

WILL FLY THE PRIME MINISTER

OTTAWA, Her is the crew of the RCAF C-5 which will fly Prime Minister Diefenbaker and party on a round-the-world tour. Front row, left to right: Cpl. Percy Atkinson, Port La Tour, N.S.; Sgt. J.O. Mignault, Isle Cerie, Que.; Flt. Sgt. Al Cooper, Toronto, Ont.; Sgt. Bob Camer...

DAILY MARKET QUOTATIONS

SUMMARY

Toronto: Market lower in moderate trading. New York: Market lower. Montreal: Market mixed in active trading.

GRAIN

WINNIPEG (CP)—Good export interest in Canadian grains again highlighted action Wednesday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Montreal: Market mixed in active trading.

NEW YORK CLOSING STOCKS

Table with columns for stock names and prices. Includes items like Kennecott, Aluminum, and various industrial stocks.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—The stock market closed down Wednesday for the third straight session amid moderately active trading. Base metals were down almost 1 1/2 points as coppers weakened. Western oils lost almost 1 1/2 points. Golds showed a slim several decimal point gain.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—Prices were irregularly lower in active trading Wednesday on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges. The papers were mixed. Powell River gained 1/2 at 38 1/2, and Price Bros. was up 1/2 at 46. Consolidated lost 1/2 at 39 1/2, and Abitibi was off 1/2 at 36.

NEW YORK CLOSING STOCKS

Table with columns for stock names and prices. Includes items like Kennecott, Aluminum, and various industrial stocks.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—The stock market closed down Wednesday for the third straight session amid moderately active trading. Base metals were down almost 1 1/2 points as coppers weakened. Western oils lost almost 1 1/2 points. Golds showed a slim several decimal point gain.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—Prices were irregularly lower in active trading Wednesday on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges. The papers were mixed. Powell River gained 1/2 at 38 1/2, and Price Bros. was up 1/2 at 46. Consolidated lost 1/2 at 39 1/2, and Abitibi was off 1/2 at 36.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower for the third straight day Wednesday. Motors, metals, chemicals and oil declined. Steels, rails, retail merchandising and aircraft producers finished mixed. Tobacco and airlines advanced.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.

Exercise "Common Cause" Planned For This Weekend

While Government leaders are planning requirements for defence against future threats from guided and ballistic missiles, the Ground Observer Corps in the Maritime provinces, in conjunction with GOCB volunteers in the province of Quebec, will once again re-affirm its capability to deal with a threat which is perhaps more vital because it exists today.

Give Christmas Mail Deadlines

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Headquarters Wednesday announced deadlines for Christmas mail to Canadian servicemen serving in the United Kingdom, Europe and the Middle East.

Mink Stole's New Owner Is Mystery

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office's strayed mink stole has found an owner. But the mystery of who mailed it without putting an address on the parcel was replaced Wednesday by the mystery of the identity of the new owner.

Adjudicator Announced For Regional Plays In Festival

OTTAWA (CP)—Richard Ainley, British actor-producer, will adjudicate the Dominion Drama Festival's regional plays this winter.

Amherst To Be Scene Of Home And School Conference

The Atlantic Regional Conference of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Amherst, Nova Scotia Friday and Saturday, will be the fourth such conference held in recent years.

Is Named To Historic Board

Donald Grant Creighton of Toronto, chairman of the history department of the University of Toronto and an eminent Canadian historian, has been appointed as one of the Ontario members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of the Canadian Confederation.

WANTED!

One Nice Apartment Early occupancy Will Pay Top Rent Please Call 3183

RED HOT PLANE

LONDON (Reuters)—The Daily Mail says Britain's Bristol Airplane Company is building a plane capable of cruising 2,000 miles an hour. Its "polished skin will glow with the heat caused by air friction," the story says.