

Descendants Meet Of Brudenell Pioneers

An interesting meeting took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. McLaren New Perth when about thirty descendants of the McLaren and Gordon pioneers assembled to talk over future plans with regard to Brudenell Island.

formulate plans for a suitable celebration to be held next summer. A nominating committee consisting of Douglas Gordon, Henry McLaren and Louis Wright were asked to retire and present names of five to be appointed on active committee.

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. F. B. Bennett, who returned to this vicinity recently to reopen his cannery for custom canning, says he plans to install some new equipment and a new boiler, and with his son will enter the cannery on a large scale.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mr. Brainard Murphy of Charlottetown motored to Georgetown on Wednesday, October 8th, where he visited relatives.

Albert MacPhee, Mr. Arthur MacSwain, Mr. Wallace MacDonald and Mr. Joseph Clory, who have been employed with the Fraser-Brace Company in Labrador, on construction work, arrived at their homes in Georgetown on Friday, October 10th.

Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

On Monday, September 22nd, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogerson celebrated their silver wedding anniversary.

The Guardian Of The Gw

I hear a hurried footsteps And a merry whistled tune, Now comes the jolly postman Who brings the mail at noon.

DAILY CROSSWORD

- ACROSS 1. Re-examines for correction 2. A card sent on the 14th of February 3. Jewish month 4. Ireland (poet.) 5. Mild 6. The right-hand page (Print.) 7. Breeze 8. One-spot card 9. Know (Scott.) 10. Yard (abbr.) 11. Miscellaneous 12. In this place 13. One who catenies 14. Contradict 15. Uncooked 16. British (abbr.) 17. Grampus 18. Male descendant 19. National god (Tah.) 20. Mature 21. Lukewarm 22. American Indian 23. Egyptian god 24. Abandoning 25. Continued stories

Crossword grid with clues and solutions. Includes 'Yesterday's Answer' and 'Saturday's Answer'.

- DOWN 1. Means of detecting objects 2. Brilliance 3. Green 4. At home 5. Cubic meter 6. Ireland (dramatic) 7. Titter 8. Having legal force 9. Come in 10. Shore recess 11. Single unit 12. Capital (Egypt.) 13. Some 14. Chop, as wood 15. Calls to repeat a performance 16. Choral composition (dramatic) 17. Household pet 18. Blundered 19. Fetch 20. Pole 21. Scoff 22. Unfolds 23. Judicious 24. Man's name 25. Smallest state (abbr.)

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW. One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

- ACROSS 1. Head cook (poet.) 2. Irish playwright 3. Depart 4. City (Fr. Indochina) 5. Narrow roadway 6. Incendiary 7. Sick 8. Fill with dismay 9. A hide dressed with 10. Out tanning 11. Electrical Engineer (abbr.) 12. Draws off slowly 13. Gasp 14. Longing 15. Spindle thread 16. Bulk 17. Surpassed 18. Half an em 19. Supple 20. Broad street 21. Resort 22. Doorkeeper of a lodge 23. Run over 24. Ship 25. Automobiles (contracted) 26. A sauce (colloq.) 27. Conviv 28. Evening 29. Visionary 30. Form 31. Musical instrument 32. Apparent ends of Saturn's rings 33. Made of wool 34. Scotch lord 35. Shire recess 36. Public notices 37. Hastens 38. Tavern 39. Small explo (sounding) 40. Relevant 41. Lettuce 42. Edible parts 43. Blacksmith's blocks 44. Cravat 45. Hire 46. Apportions, as cards 47. Entices 48. Pen-name of Charles Lamb 49. Man's nickname (poss.)

Crossword grid with clues and solutions. Includes 'Saturday's Answer'.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

W S M Z P X M J K W S M Z W T P K X M P J X F F G B J Z J Z P P F W U D N P F F W G. Saturday's Cryptogram: WOMAN REDUCES US ALL TO THE COMMON DENOMINATOR—SHAW.

LUTHERAN STATE

Ninety-six per cent of the population of Finland are Lutherans.

Mr. James Byrne has sold his property on Byrne's road and will move to Morell Village to reside, provided he can find a home to buy right away.

Mr. Everett Laybolt was a business visitor to the city on Thursday October 9th, returning home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jay had as recent week-end guests Bert Coates retired sergeant of the Boston Police Force, and Mrs. Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien, and family spent the long week-end holiday in this vicinity, their old home, where they spent the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrne and family were visitors here from the city for the holiday week-end, returning home late Monday evening.

The school at Byrne's Road was moved across the highway some time ago, as the new road out the school grounds down considerably.

Mr. Frank Weed, who was here from the U. S. A. with a large number of bird dogs training them for hunting, and who had several guests here for the hunting season has left on return to his home in Penn., U. S. A.

Confirmation for some forty Roman Catholic children that was postponed some time ago owing to the illness of the Bishop of Charlottetown, will be conferred on them Sunday afternoon and evening October 19th at both churches.

Friends in this vicinity of little Teresa O'Brien will be pleased to learn she has returned to her classes at Notre Dame Convent, City after suffering an attack of polio in September, shortly after the schools opened.

Despite the fact fishermen are reported as landing large catches of mackerel at Rustico, fishermen report practically none here, except a few away off shore, too far for fall fishing.

Miss Bernice DeLory and Miss Sheila DeLory, students at Prince of Wales College, spent the holiday weekend as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeLory.

Miss Frances Prosper, R.N., of Charlottetown, spent Thanksgiving as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prosper.

Miss Joan McQuillan and Miss Adele Fitzgerald, who are employed in the City, were holiday visitors to their homes in Georgetown.

Charles MacConnell of the Royal Canadian Navy and who is a crew member of aircraft carrier H.M.C.S. Magnificent, arrived in Georgetown a few days ago on a short leave.

Mr. Raymond Lavandier, Mr. Pte. Delano Connolly has left for his training camp after spending his embarkment leave with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Connolly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien, and family spent the long week-end holiday in this vicinity, their old home, where they spent the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrne and family were visitors here from the city for the holiday week-end, returning home late Monday evening.

The school at Byrne's Road was moved across the highway some time ago, as the new road out the school grounds down considerably.

Mr. Frank Weed, who was here from the U. S. A. with a large number of bird dogs training them for hunting, and who had several guests here for the hunting season has left on return to his home in Penn., U. S. A.

Confirmation for some forty Roman Catholic children that was postponed some time ago owing to the illness of the Bishop of Charlottetown, will be conferred on them Sunday afternoon and evening October 19th at both churches.

Friends in this vicinity of little Teresa O'Brien will be pleased to learn she has returned to her classes at Notre Dame Convent, City after suffering an attack of polio in September, shortly after the schools opened.

Despite the fact fishermen are reported as landing large catches of mackerel at Rustico, fishermen report practically none here, except a few away off shore, too far for fall fishing.

Mr. Joseph "Sonny" Johnson was a business visitor to Charlottetown October 11th.

Mrs. Adolphus Scully and daughter Jane returned to their home in Georgetown on Saturday, October 11th, from a visit with relatives and friends in Boston, Mass.

Mr. Hughie Power of Halifax, N.S., was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Prosper during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Bernard Walsh, student at St. Dunstan's College, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walsh.

Mr. Ronnie Ceredini and Mr. George Ortalano, who have spent the past few weeks in Georgetown at Mr. Ceredini's summer home, left a few days ago by car, for their homes in New York City.

Miss Joan Murphy, student at Prince of Wales College, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Agnes Murphy over the holiday weekend.

Mr. Albert Landry of Summerside, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Landry.

Mr. Donnie Simmonds of Charlottetown was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hansen.

Mrs. R. S. Glidden of Nantucket, Mass., arrived in Georgetown on Saturday, October 11th, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Lavers. Mrs. Glidden is the former Jessie Skinner of Georgetown and is a sister of Mrs. Laura Lavers, Miss Beatrice Skinner and Mr. Daniel Skinner of Georgetown, and Mr. James H. Skinner of Bridgetown.

Mr. Raymond Lavandier, Mr. Pte. Delano Connolly has left for his training camp after spending his embarkment leave with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Connolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrne and family were visitors here from the city for the holiday week-end, returning home late Monday evening.

The school at Byrne's Road was moved across the highway some time ago, as the new road out the school grounds down considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jay had as recent week-end guests Bert Coates retired sergeant of the Boston Police Force, and Mrs. Coates. They have returned to their home in the big city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien, and family spent the long week-end holiday in this vicinity, their old home, where they spent the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrne and family were visitors here from the city for the holiday week-end, returning home late Monday evening.

The school at Byrne's Road was moved across the highway some time ago, as the new road out the school grounds down considerably.

Mr. Frank Weed, who was here from the U. S. A. with a large number of bird dogs training them for hunting, and who had several guests here for the hunting season has left on return to his home in Penn., U. S. A.

Confirmation for some forty Roman Catholic children that was postponed some time ago owing to the illness of the Bishop of Charlottetown, will be conferred on them Sunday afternoon and evening October 19th at both churches.

Friends in this vicinity of little Teresa O'Brien will be pleased to learn she has returned to her classes at Notre Dame Convent, City after suffering an attack of polio in September, shortly after the schools opened.

Despite the fact fishermen are reported as landing large catches of mackerel at Rustico, fishermen report practically none here, except a few away off shore, too far for fall fishing.

Friends in this vicinity of Mrs. Annie Curran, who has been in the infirmary for a number of years and later transferred to Beach Grove Home for aged people will be glad to learn that she enjoys good health and is very happy there.

Mr. Raymond Lavandier, Mr. Pte. Delano Connolly has left for his training camp after spending his embarkment leave with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Connolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Byrne and family were visitors here from the city for the holiday week-end, returning home late Monday evening.

The school at Byrne's Road was moved across the highway some time ago, as the new road out the school grounds down considerably.

EAST BALTIC SCHOOL

Standing for the month of September for East Baltic School: Grade X-1. Beatrice Bruce; 2. Jean MacGregor. Grade VIII-1. Betty MacPhee; 2. Bradley Fay; 3. Paul Fisher. Grade VII-1. Elizabeth Bruce; 2. Joan Dixon. Grade VI-1. Sandra MacGregor; 2. Francis Murphy; 3. Philip Fay. Grade V-1. Joan Fay; 2. Joseph MacPhee.

Portland 5, Maine. (Formerly of Montague).

Grade IV-1. Mavis Rose; 2. Edith MacGregor; 3. Edgar Dixon. Grade III-1. Ann Fay; 2. Aubrey MacGregor. Grade II-Johnnie MacPhee; 2. Margaret Fay; 3. Marlene Fraser. Perfect attendance: Elizabeth Bruce. Highest average in senior grades. Betty MacPhee, 81.4%; highest average in junior grades, Joan Fay, 83.8%. Mrs. Inez Dixon, teacher.

Mercury car advertisement featuring a large image of a Mercury sedan, the slogan 'Let's Go!', and detailed text about the car's features like '125 Hp. V-8 Performance' and '3-Way Choice in Transmissions'.

Advertisement for Minard's Liniment, featuring a horse and rider illustration and the text 'Just Rub In Minard's Liniment - King of Pain'.