Queens Liberal Candidates Deride Tory Trade Policies

"Our first step on the road back to prosperity is to elect Lester Pearson as Prime Minister of Canada" said Allison Gillis, Queens County Liberal candidate at an enthusiastic meeting in the Brookfield Hall last night.

The electorate cannot take another five years of Tory government," he said. Mr. Gillis pointed out that about all that has been accomplished in the past five years was to make bad friends with the U.S. and Great Britain.

Mr. Lewis also a Liberal candidate in the dual riding of Queens, stated that "You and I as citizens of Canada are not keeping pace with the citizens of the other countries of the world," and cited as proof positive the devaluation of our currency, which was not planned as the Tories would have us believe

Birchwood H & S Hears Panel Discuss Student Potential

The annual meeting of the Birchwood Home and School Association was held last evening in the school auditorium. The president Ivan Berrigan presided.

The feature of the meeting was a panel discussion chaired by Mr. Berrigan. The other members of the panel were Miss Mabel Matheson, Dr. K.A. Parker and Col. Leo F. MacDonald. The topic for discussion was "Developing Student Potential".

Miss Matheson stated that although a university degree is valued very highly in our society, people do not place enough emphasis on the work required to obtain it. She also stated that self-help is one of the most important factors in the development of the students' potential.

Dr. Parker agreed with the statement that the public schools were committed to try to provide education for all children, but all pupils regardless of their talents. In order to bring about the development of the child the teacher and the parents have a role to play also.

KICKED TWICE BY 2 HORSES

A Parkdale resident found out last night that the old rule of never kicking a man when he is down, may be added by humans but it definitely doesn't apply to horses.

John A. MacDonald was taken to hospital last evening after being kicked by not one horse, but two, while working in the racing stable on Kensington Road.

Mr. MacDonald was attending his duties in a stall containing two horses when one of the animals gave him a kick that sent him to the floor. He no sooner landed when the other horses decided that it, too, would join the game, and again Mr. MacDonald was on the receiving end of a kick.

Charlottetown Hospital authorities reported Mr. MacDonald to be in "good condition" in hospital.
