The two clergymen presided at the celebration of Holy Communion which brought the conference to conclusion at noon Sunday. Dr. MacDonald, formerly of Crapaud, led in the service of song and Mr. MacLeod was one of the guest speakers.

UC Speaker Discusses Negro-White Relations

"Integration is a two-way street," Dr. Harry Denman, secretary of Evangelism for the Methodist Church told a United Church Men's conference at Stanhope over the weekend.

He said he had membership in a Negro church and felt this was the only true way in which integration could take place. "The whites think the colored man must come to him but we must also go to the colored people," he added.

The noted preacher from Nashville, Tenn., said his state was populated with a majority of negroes and reminded his audience that the white race is very much in the minority throughout the world. The colored races have the numbers, he added, and why should we have more of it, money.

Dr. Denman, in dealing with the theme of the conference "The Goals We Choose," said we are living in an age of affluence in which our "golden calf" is prosperity. "If President Johnson cannot give the people of United States prosperity he will be defeated," he said.

He contended that people in the western world were willing to sacrifice time, health and even their families for the sake of money. He said there were very few who had time to read the Bible or other good books, no time to go to church, no time to pray or get direction from God.

Dr. Denman interspersed his talks with humor. He spoke last night to a large congregation in Trinity Church and will continue in a mission of Stewardship at Park Royal Church Monday and Tuesday nights and at Kensington Rural High School Wednesday night.

Other speakers at the conference included Alec MacLeod of Nashwaakias, N.B.; Robert Allison of Halifax and Hamilton Woodside, D.D. of Bathurst, N.B. assisted by Rev. Dr. George Murray of Halifax. Some 200 delegates from throughout N.S. were in attendance.
