Moon Photos Are Revealing

LONDON (Reuters) - Russia's Lunik III has revealed the presence of hitherto unknown seas and craters on the surface of the moon, the official Soviet news agency Tass indicated Wednesday night.

A map of the moon pinpointing the newly - found moon marks will be issued soon, according to the president of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, Alexander Mesmeyanov.

Tass quoted Mesmeyanov as saying Soviet astronomers now "are studying the invisible side of the moon." He was speaking to a meeting of the Young Communist League's central committee.

Lunik III, launched Oct. 4, looped around the moon and photographed the side of the moon which is permanently turned away from the earth.

Russia announced Sunday that the pictures were transmitted to earth as Lunik III reached its closest approach to earth on its orbit.

Lunik III was 312,500 miles from earth at a point above Brazil at 2 p.m. ADT Wednesday, Tass announced.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X E
is
L O N G F E L L O W
One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

DeGaulle, Rebels Move Closer On Algeria Insurrection Row

By DAVID MASON
PARIS (AP) - President de Gaulle and Algerian rebel leader Ferhat Abbas have clearly moved closer on the issue of ending the Algerian insurrection.

Important differences still remain. But some diplomatic quarters feel these can be settled. This has given rise to reports that negotiations—official or unofficial—now are in progress.

Despite de Gaulle's offer of self-determination for the vast North African territory, the rebels still insist on formally negotiating the political conditions of a cease-fire.

But France says it will talk politics only with elected representatives once peace is restored in Algeria.

KEEPS CLOSE CONTACT
Abbas, premier of the rebel regime, has been in close touch with President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia and King Mohammed V of Morocco - both moderates who have close contacts with Paris.

France's Western Allies have also been discreetly passing on anything that comes their way from the Algerian side. Secrecy is dictated by several factors. De Gaulle faces delicate problems involving French public opinion, a restive army and the volatile European settlers of Algeria, who want Algeria joined firmly to France.
