THOUGHTS FOR OUR TIME

By His Eminence Cardinal McGuigan
MATERIAL PROSPERITY NOT CONDEMNED BY CHRIST
One of the many traits that distinguish man from other animals is the tendency to pile up possessions. We are naturally acquisitive.

CHRISTIAN ATTITUDE
In view of Our Lord's example, what should be the Christian attitude to created things? Must we stifle the acquisitive longings of our heart, and live as strangers in the world? Are we putting our salvation in jeopardy by not restricting ourselves to the bare necessities of life? Must we live in poverty in order to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven?
