*NURSERY CLUB MEETING - A meeting of the Montague Nursery Club was held last night at the home of Mrs. G. G. Jardine, Mrs. A. E. Sullivan presided. There were 12 members present. After the secretary, Mrs. Carl Stewart, read the minutes, and the financial report was given, the evening was spent in sewing for the hospital nursery. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the ladies. The lunch committee next week will be Mrs. Malcolm Clair and Miss Florrie Beaton.

*HALLOWEEN PARTY - The Home and School Association, Montague, sponsored a hilarious Halloween party for the High School students in the Legion Hall Tuesday evening. The party got under way about nine o'clock, opening with a sing song with Mrs. Atwood MacDonald as pianist. Two very interesting films, one on hockey and the second on scouting were shown by Mr. Eric Duvar. A contest, "Place Names On P. E. I." was won by Mr. Douglas Johnston. The second contest "Guess Who" was won by three teams, Barbara Mabon and Douglas Johnston, Fay Stewart and Arthur Clements, and David Stewart and Helen Wright. The students then enjoyed a social hour of dancing with recorded music supplied by Mr. Duvar.

Death of Mr. Edmund Collings At Montague

A wide circle of friends were shocked to learn of the death of Mr. Edmund Collings, Montague, who passed away late Monday evening in his 79th year. He was about as usual until a few days prior to his passing.

The late Mr. Collings was born in Montague, and resided here throughout his life. His wife, nee Katherine Bradley, predeceased him on February 1st, 1950. He has been residing recently with a son, Leo.

The community joins with the sorrowing family in paying a final tribute of respect to the late Mr. Collings. Many beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received.

Left to mourn are six daughters, Mamie, Mrs. John Burke, Montague; Theresa, Mrs. Edward Ryan, Halifax; Margaret, Mrs. Herbert MacGuigan, Sydney; Eileen, Mrs. Vincent Larkin, Montague; Adell, Mrs. Edward Powell, Sydney; Thelma, Mrs. W. D. Lunegan, Boston, Mass.; and two sons, Dennis and Leo, both of Montague.

The funeral services will be held on Friday morning from St. Mary's Church, Montague.
