IN MEMORIAM

COLLINGS - In loving memory of Ray Collings, of Sturgeon, who passed away on March 7, 1947.

Once again we pay our tribute to the one we loved so dear; Though we know you can't be with us, We still wish that you were here.

Fondly remembered and sadly missed by wife and daughters Mary and Grace.

PURCELL - In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. James Purcell who went to her eternal rest March 7, 1947.

There is a sweet picture deep in my heart More precious to me than silver or gold It's a picture of my darling mother Her memory is a treasure that will never grow old.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her daughter Mary, Mrs. Allan J. Campbell.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends who sent me so many nice cards, letters, treats and presents and all those who came to visit me on my 100th birthday. A sincere thanks to them all.

Mrs. Catherine Moreside, North Milton.

Mrs. Fred Ford, Hunter River, wishes to express her kindest thoughts and appreciation to Doctors Marchbanks, Irwin, Laidlaw, nurses and staff of the P.E.I. Hospital, also relatives, friends, clergy for visits, treats and cards during her recent illness.

Words cannot express our appreciation to all our kind friends and neighbors, Crystal Chapter No. 25, Air Force Benevolent Society, Rev. Mr. Ware, and those who collected for the fire fund to help us get started back in business again after our recent loss. Melville and Eudavill Weeks.

Philosopher

the Mounties had the stuff, as they slowly erased the margin and even went ahead at one point. The Saints came back and took the lead, never to relinquish it again. With only two minutes remaining, the locals were leading by seven points and everyone was anticipating that last second spurt. But, it never came and the final score read 64-62 in favor of the Saints.

The Senior hockey squad met the Garrison Juniors on Thursday last and added another victory to their meager string as they scored a convincing 4-1 win. This was the second win in the city league this year, both the Red and White squad and the league have been beset with troubles and unfavourable circumstances all year.

JUVENILES WINNING

The St. Dunstan's Juveniles, under the coaching of Fr. Ledwell, continued their winning streak over the past seven days, Thursday last they entertained the visiting Abbies and eased to a seemingly effortless 2-2 victory. Noonan fired 4 of the tallies and MacDonald was next with 3; the other goal came off the stick of Dick Tingley.

Saturday, the Juveniles went to the Charlottetown Arena and, without the aid of three good men, MacDonald, Murphy, and O'Brien, they edged out a narrow 3-1 victory against the P.W.C. team, the only team to have defeated the Saints so far this season. The three Red and White markers came off the sticks of Sherry, O'Brien, and Noonan.

The Prince of Wales squad visited the University again on Tuesday and went down to defeat for the last time in league play at the hands of the Saints. Paced by Dick Tingley, who fired two goals and assisted on the other two, the saints edged the
