B.C. Newspaper Price Cut Comes Under Fire In East

TORONTO (CP) - The move by a British Columbia newspaper printer in reducing the price of its product has come under sharp attack from other manufacturers - but they may have to follow the lead. MacMillan, Bloedel and Powell River Co., one of Canada's big three newspaper producers, announced Wednesday it was reducing its North American print newsprint to a ton to $124 - the first price change since 1957. Although several competitors immediately branded the cut as unjustified economically, one industry analyst said they will attempt to make it match in their North American markets if MacMillan Bloedel can hold to its reduced price. Meanwhile uncertainty pushed into the business by the cut continued to hammer down prices of newspaper company stocks on the Toronto and Montreal stock exchanges. Losses for various companies ranged from a few cents up to $1.50 a share.

Baptist Group Suggests End To Joint Effort

TORONTO (CP) - The council of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec announced today it will recommend to its convention's 1965 assembly publication of a controversial new 103-page book on the history of the Baptist Church is discontinued. The assembly meets next June in London, Ont. The curriculum, published as a joint venture with the United Church of Canada, met with widespread disapproval from some Baptists when it was announced earlier this year. It was the approval of the Bible has many 'theological' elements, suggests the story of the creation and the virgin birth of Christ are myths and that the resurrection may not have been a literal physical event. The convention said in a press release the decision to recommend suspension of publication of the curriculum was made on a recommendation from the convention's department of Christian education.
