

Baltimore Blank Kansas; Cincinnati Drops Chicago

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Frank Robinson walloped a two-run homer—his 47th of the season—Tuesday night as Baltimore Orioles moved closer to the American League pennant with a 4-0 triumph over Kansas City Athletics.

The Orioles, who reduced their margin number to three, stretched their lead to 9½ games over Detroit Tigers, rained out of their game against California Angels. Baltimore has 11 games to play, Detroit 12.

Rookie Tom Phoebus collected his second straight shut-out in as many starts for the Orioles. Baltimore scored unearned runs against Catfish Hunter in the third and fourth innings before Robinson connected in the fifth.

In the third, Andy Etchebarren reached first on an error and Russ Snyder doubled him home.

Brooks Robinson singled in the fourth and went to third on a passed ball and an error.

Dave Johnson singled off Hunter's glove scoring the run.

Phoebus singled to set the stage for Frank Robinson's towering drive against the light pole in left field.

The home run broke the Baltimore club record of 46, hit by Jim Gentile in 1961.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Luis Tiant allowed Minnesota Twins a run on a wild pitch, then came back with a two-run, bases-loaded single, helping Cleveland Indians to a 4-1 victory over the Twins Tuesday night.

Tiant, who started after Sonny Siebert came up with a sore shoulder, drove in Bill Davis and Max Alvis after two were out in the fourth inning.

Don Minchner got credit for a double in the second when Leon Wagner and Larry Brown collided going for his fly ball, then scored on Tiant's wild pitch.

The Indians had taken a 2-0 lead in the first after two infield errors and a hit batsman.

CHICAGO (AP)—Leo Cardenas' double and Gordy Coleman's pinch single drove in three runs in the 13th inning as Cincinnati Reds snapped a six-game losing streak by beating Chicago Cubs 6-3 Tuesday.

Cardenas' double scored Vada Pinson, who had singled and stole second. After an intentional walk, Coleman singled two more runs home.

The Reds tied the game 3-3 in the sixth when Lee Maye beat out an infield hit, took second on an error and scored on Don Pavletich's single to centre. Pavletich also homered for the Reds.

Ron Santo's bases-loaded single highlighted a three-run rally by the Cubs in the fifth.

LOSS OF FACE FOR BRITISH CHAMPION

Patterson Stops Cooper At 2.20 Mark Of 4th Round

LONDON (AP)—Floyd Patterson former world heavyweight champion, floored British champion Henry Cooper twice before knocking him out in 2:20 of the fourth round of a scheduled 10-rounder Tuesday night.

Patterson won the first two rounds and then dropped Cooper for the first time in the third round for a count of three.

In the fourth, a left and right to the head floored the Briton for a count of nine.

Cooper, 191½, staggered to his feet and Patterson, 193, went after him. He smashed a left and right to the head and the 32-year-old Briton went down for the full count.

The two veterans were making their first starts since being stopped in title bouts by champion Cassius Clay. Patterson was humiliated by Clay in losing on a 12-round technical knockout at Las Vegas, Nev., last Nov. 22.

Cooper was stopped on cuts in the sixth round in London last May 21.

Patterson, two-time holder of the world crown, said he would retire if he lost to Cooper.

But it was Patterson all the way before a crowd of 10,000 in the Wembley Indoor Stadium.

It was the seventh time the cut-prone Cooper had been stopped in a 47-fight career. His record is 33-13-1. Patterson, 31, has a 44-5 record, including 33 knockouts. He has been stopped four times.

Patterson said in his dressing room after the fight:

"It's been almost 11 months since I had my last fight. I thought Cooper looked good in the early stages and he threw some good punches.

"I got my combination punches going again tonight. I guess with more fights I will get more confidence and the punches should get better.

"Cooper caught me with good punches a couple of times. But of course I'm pretty pleased with the result tonight.

"Quite frankly I never want to fight Cooper again. I have watched a number of Cooper fights on television and he cuts like I have never seen anybody cut before.

"He didn't cut much tonight. But I kept on looking at his face" and wondering when the bleeding would start."

Cooper, sitting dejected in his dressing room, nursed a small cut on the right side of his nose.

Hall Unsure Of Returning To NHL

EDMONTON (CP)—The Journal says Glenn Hall has made up his mind to retire from professional hockey.

In a telephone interview with the Chicago Black Hawks goaltender at his farm in the Stony Plain district, west of Edmonton, the newspaper quotes Hall as saying he is "just tired of hockey."

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League think a salary increase may induce veteran goalie Glenn Hall to end his announced retirement.

"I think we'll be able to satisfy Hall somehow," says general manager Tommy Ivan. "Glenn is too good a goalkeeper and too young to retire."

At his 160-acre farm in Edmonton, Alta., Hall was busy with chores Monday, but his wife indicated Glenn was considering a retirement letter he wrote Ivan last June.

"We have pretty well decided that if enough money were offered, Glenn might come back," Mrs. Hall was quoted as saying.

Ceebees Close In On Dodgers

At Victoria Park last night, the Ceebees defeated the Dodgers 5-1, in the City Softball League Finals.

The Ceebees came up with single runs in the first, second, and fourth innings and collected their final two in the sixth. The Dodgers made their lone score in the top of the fifth.

Winning pitcher was Fred Morrison who gave up four hits, walked two, and struck out seven. He had tremendous fielding support from shortstop Bimbo Morrison.

Tete Gregory hurled for the Dodgers with a record of nine hits, no walks, and two strikeouts.

Top hitters for the Ceebees were Norbie and Fred Morrison, each going two for three. Joe Commisky managed a double for the Dodgers on two official trips.

The series resumes tonight at 6:00 at the Victoria Park Diamond with the Dodgers holding a 2-1 lead.

Summerside Club Amazes Crowd

By NORMAN MacDONALD

What never ceases to amaze us is the inspired play of that Summerside Junior—Juvenile baseball team. The Fredericton Vikings, who have quite a reputation, came to town, and we were all set to watch the massacre. But "Summerside" was ahead 2-0 at the end of the sixth inning, and this was something we didn't expect to see. True, Fredericton did get in their licks in the seventh and eighth innings with five hits and a walk giving six runs. But no one could say that Summerside was outclassed by the visitors. By the way, we see according to a local newspaper that the Summerside Juniors have acquired a "Rooster", and we think it quite possible—not probably, you understand—but possible that, now that they have something to crow with, they will also have something to crow about.

Jon Down went into that game with a lame back, but held the Vikings to two hits in 4-1-3 innings, one of these hits the result of a baseball rule about which we will have something to say later on. Then he suddenly lost control and walked three batters in the fifth inning. Jackie Pate coming in with the bases loaded and only one out, retired the side without a run, which won him a well-deserved round of applause but the Fredericton juggernaut finally did get going. Doug Macdonald pulled off the fielding gem of the game when he leaped into the air to snare a high throw and landed back on first base a split second before the runner crossed it.

One of the two hits registered off Down was chalked up in the following way: Jack Stafford, Fredericton catcher, hit the ball between first and second and it hit his teammate Saunders who was running to the keystone sack. Saunders was declared out, and according to the rules Stafford gets credit for a hit. Seems a bit tough to charge a pitcher with that kind of a hit, but you've got to be fair to the batter too, of course.

The little league all-stars of Summerside took on their dads at Queen Elizabeth Park on Saturday. The oldesters, in spite of probable cases of arthritis, bursitis, housemaid's knee, etc. romped around the bases like colts, and tied the kids 10-6. We bet those youngsters could have walloped the daylight out of their dads the morning after.

Paul MacWilliams, star hockey junior, had the choice this year of going back to Halifax to play hockey there or attend Saint Dunstan's University, and play with the Saints. It must have been a hard choice for the boy to make, but we think he made the right decision. Education should come first. Bill Dickie, Paul's teammate last year, made the same hard choice, and is attending Summerside High School this year.

Two Special Events To Go At Raceway

SUMMERSIDE—Although the race card being presented by Summerside Raceway tonight is possibly one of the best to be seen this season it is being overshadowed by the special events that will be held prior to post time at 8 p.m.

At 7.15 p.m. the first of the two special events will be held when the grooms, caretakers, and owners take over—among the drivers taking part will be Sonny Huestis, Erskine Waite, Clint MacLeod, Bernie Grady of Summerside; Johnny Doyle from Tignish; Willard MacLeod from O'Leary, Fred Ford from Hunter River, Everett Murray from Cornwall, Clayton Crabbe from Amherst, Don Gillis from Miscouche, and several more to be named. They will be driving the well known horses, such as Silver Glengie, Name The Price, Sandra's Boy, Sandybee, Captain Logan, Gary Lee C.C., Captain Bill and Single C.C. Trophies will go to the winners of these special features.

In the regular card winners will be hard to pick.

In the first race, which is the first half of the daily double, some hard thinking will have to be done to single out a winner. One lone trotter, Wick's Ace will be pitted against seven pacers.

Miss Lane, just off a win in her last start, will trail Future Chief out and with the fast leaving Jolly May in second spot, it will be a race into the first turn—also in the first turn, looking for positions will be

Absolute Confusion Marks Prince County Sport

SUMMERSIDE—The age mixup, delays, and protests, are becoming chief topics of conversation in the baseball world and on the field activity seems to be at a standstill as Prince County teams seek Maritime laurels.

The ages were all boosted one year on the Island to conform with the Canadian Association, but the snag was caused when the two other Maritime provinces failed to accept the Canadian ruling. Except that is for junior age, where the three provinces are uniform.

So now, the Summerside Juniors are preparing for Maritime playdowns and will have to drop their "overaged" players, and will be allowed to pick up replacements. Some local ball followers are advocating a complete revision of the Maritime body, giving it more control of playoff arrangements and in the minor ranks, to have uniformity in player ages.

The age controversy started when the Prince Edward Island winners in Bantam age group had seven 15-year-olds. They were advised that they had to be dropped and replaced by those 14 or under.

The junior ball club is holding workouts this week prior to travelling to Fredericton for Saturday afternoon's four o'clock encounter with Fredericton Vikings. Vikings won the opener, 6-2, last Saturday. If the locals come up with a win on the weekend, the final game will be played in Fredericton Sunday.

The local baseball scene has been confronted with a protest. In the Intermediate "B" playdowns between Morell and Tignish, Tignish have protested the use of two Morell players.

The protest is being made to the Prince Edward Island baseball association, and concerns the eligibility of Mike Kelly of Morell and Walter Bradley of Peakes Station.

Tignish contend that both Kelly and Bradley had playing cards with Charlottetown Junior Legionnaires, but that they signed with Morell only after Charlottetown decided that they were not going to contest the Junior series.

The situation has been complicated by the apparent fact that someone connected with the P.E.I. Baseball Association gave permission to Bradley and Kelly to play with Morell.

Tignish are protesting the fact that both Bradley and Kelly signed these cards after the deadline.

A Tignish official said he expected a decision from the Island body within a few days.

And a bit more confusion on the baseball scene as the Summerside R.C.A.F. Eagles baseball team have been idle for two weeks awaiting a winner in Intermediate "A" series.

New Brunswick are dragging their feet with a best-of-seven final just getting underway, and Nova Scotia finals are now beginning. Maybe the Air Force will get a Christmas present, because at the present rate, that's when the Maritime finals will be over, and from all indications, the Airmen probably will wind up in the finals.

Winnipeg, Argos Have Problems

WINNIPEG (CP)—Bud Grant, head coach of Winnipeg Blue Bombers, is having problems with his offense but he's not getting any sympathy from Bob Shaw, his counterpart with Toronto Argonauts.

"I've got too many problems of my own to worry about Grant's," said Shaw, listing six injured players who are doubtful starters for a game tonight that opens the second half of the Canadian Football League 1966 interlocking schedule.

Argos, trying to shed a losing habit that has kept them in last place in the Eastern Conference since 1962, have lost full-back Bob Swift for the season with a knee injury.

Mike Wadsworth and John Vilunas have ankle pains; Mario Mariani, a former Bomber, a severe chest bruise; Billy Martin, who left Bombers to become Argos' eighth halfback this season, a pulled leg muscle; end Al Irwin, a sore knee, and defensive halfback Dick Aldridge a shoulder injury.

Green Meadows Takes Trophy

Green Meadows, Sunday, won the Southern Queens baseball title by defeating Johnston's River St. Pats 12-5 on Peake's diamond.

Emmett McInnis went the distance for the winners. Gary Phelan played a strong defensive game at third base for Green Meadows as well as scoring two runs. Longest hits of the day were two doubles by Michael Kenny of Morell while Danny Quinn and George Murphy had one each for the losers.

Cletus Phelan was the winners' top batter with a two for three performance. Blair Weir and Kevin Phelan each scored two runs for the victors. Gerard Murnaghan was top batter for Johnston's River.

Umpire for the game was Billy Conohan while base officials were John and Wally Conohan.
