The monthly meeting of the Teachers Study Club was held in St. Peter's Lake School on Oct. 28 with the following teachers in attendance: Cecille MacCormack, Point de Roche; Theresa MacDougall, St. Peter's Lake; Marion Kelly, St. Andrew's; Alice MacEwen, Canavoy; Mary Ledwell, St. Peter's Lake; Gordon M. Rice, Charlottetown; J. A. B. McConnell, Savage Harbour. The entire meeting was devoted to the teaching of reading and remedial reading, with the discussion led by Supervisor Rice. It is the unanimous opinion of this group that those meetings are really worthwhile. Mr. Rice, a teacher of wide experience before becoming supervisor, has the happy faculty of getting to the root of the troubles that beset the individual teacher and can always offer some helpful suggestions. The next meeting of this group is scheduled for St. Peter's Lake School on Wednesday, Nov. 25th at 2:00 p.m.

The Women's Institute of Savage Harbour continue to show outstanding interest in the welfare of the local school as proven by their actions during the past week. Over the week-end the classroom was thoroughly scrubbed, a chore which the Institute members attend to each month, and then on Monday their energetic secretary Miss Hattie Pigott visited the school bringing with her a full supply of towels, soap and other sanitary essentials as well as a complete refill for the First Aid kit. The Institute members are planning ways of raising funds so that they may continue their good work. It is likely the first venture will be a cribbage tournament, held one night a week over a four week period with the winner being declared champion of Savage Harbour, which in so far as cribbage is concerned, means the Island champion.

A large crowd attended the masquerade dance held in the Mt. Stewart Theatre on Thursday night, October 29. Some 40 contestants sought honors for the best costumes, while scores attended solely for the dance. The judges had no easy task as there were many outstanding costumes to say nothing of the "mystery trapper" who appeared in person with his day's harvest, a lonely skunk and then as quickly disappeared as the judges sought the "trapper" to have him before them as final decisions were made. Weird stories concerning his disappearance survived; some say friend skunk decided he would no longer co-operate while others, cling to the thought the Scotch element of the trapper predominated and he left to collect the bounty. Outstanding and among the prize winners were Mrs. Cyrene MacIntyre and Miss Joyce Jay, both of Mt. Stewart. The dance sponsored by the local branch of the Catholic Women's League was one of the best entertainments of the year.
