

THE DAILY EXAMINER

FEBRUARY 8, 1898.

SEWERAGE.

LADIES, give your husbands, brothers, sons and nephews a hint when they leave home, tomorrow morning, to be sure to vote for sewerage—for your sakes!

Gentlemen, don't forget when you vote, tomorrow, the claims of future generations as well as the convenience and comfort of citizens who are here now. We like to think of our children rising up and calling us blessed; but they will—according to the best authorities—have cause to curse us if we persist in the blind-well system and go on emptying slops into the ground water under the town.

Sewerage is not going to add much, if anything, to taxation; for sewerage will be paid for as the water-works are being paid for; and everyone—well, almost everyone—will take advantage of it after it has been placed within reach.

We might, just as well as those who come after us have the benefit of the circulation of money which the construction of sewerage will cause. A word to our wise workmen and men of business ought to be sufficient. Sewerage has to come. It had better come now than later.

It is generally understood that economy of construction and management and the best possible system of sewerage will be secured by the same method as these ends were secured in respect to our water works. The City Council will not—in fact they cannot, possibly—take hasty or independent or expensive action towards sewerage; for legislation has to be obtained, and the people as well as the Council will be able to bring their influence to bear upon the Legislature.

All things considered—and in spite of every objection that has been raised by fertile imaginations—we cannot do better than vote for sewerage, tomorrow!

AS TO THE MAYORALTY.

No one blames Dr. Warburton or has any fault to find with his conduct as to the mayoralty. The mayoralty is an honorable position and the requisition accepted by Dr. Warburton—though admittedly signed in haste and without sufficient consideration—was large and subscribed to by influential men. Dr. Warburton's acceptance of the requisition and his desire to occupy the honorable position of Mayor of Charlottetown and perfectly justifiable. But it was for the nonce that Dr. Warburton, however popular and however skillful as a physician, has had no experience whatever in civic business. Indeed, it is quite possible that though successful as a physician he may be wanting in business capacity. We have had no public proofs of his ability in public affairs. We have not noticed him taking an active part in respect to public matters or civic affairs. We have never even seen him occupy the chair at a public meeting. We know nothing of his ability to manage and control the deliberations of a number of gentlemen such as those who are elected to the City Council. He has, so far as we know, done nothing whatever to merit election to the most honorable position in the gift of the city.

Mr. Hughes on the other hand, has been publicly active and progressive in civic matters from his youth. He has been a City Councillor for eight years and chair-man of the street committee for the greater part of that time. The streets and crossings were greatly improved while he occupied the office; and we have not heard of any notable act of extravagance or corruption on his part. Mr. Hughes is a respectable citizen and a heavy taxpayer. He has contended in the City Council and he has given freely a great deal of care and attention to matters of civic interest. He has fairly won a claim to credit and appreciation and we think it will be admitted that credit and appreciation can be shown in no better manner than by electing him to the mayoralty.

AS TO THAT RAFT.

When the account for the raft of timber, to which reference was made by our correspondent "W," was presented to the City Council for payment, Mr. Hughes moved the following resolution in amendment, seconded by Councillor McCarron: "Resolved, That Mr. Compton's bill for timber be on the table till next meeting of Council and the Recorder's opinion be procured as to the liability of the city for payment of same." Comment is needless.

IS THIS FAIR?

The Premier of this Province is actively canvassing against Mr. Hughes and in favour of Dr. Warburton. It is but natural that Hon. Mr. Warburton should desire to see his brother in the high and honorable position of Mayor of Charlottetown. But we submit that he has no right to exert his influence as Premier to that end. When he canvasses for his brother, he does so not as an ordinary citizen but as one who has patronage at command and jobs at his disposal. To exert this influence in the election of his own brother is, we submit, unjust and unbecoming in the head of the Provincial Government. Mr. Hughes has a right to a fair field. Dr. Warburton had the great advantage of coming out early. A strong canvass in his behalf was made while signatures were being obtained to the requisition; and no time was lost by the doctor and his friends in canvassing those who were known or supposed to be anxious to cultivate the goodwill of the powers that be. It is significant of the strength of Mr. Hughes' candidature, that the Premier of the Province, himself, has been constrained to take the field to supplement the efforts of those who had gone before and to use a political influence which only he can wield. If Mr. Hughes had been an opponent of the Liberal Party, the exertion against him of the Premier's influence would be unjustifiable in a civic contest it is doubly so in view of the fact that, in Provincial and Dominion politics Mr. Hughes has been an active supporter of the Liberal party.

—Electors, show your appreciation of capable men who take an active interest in civic affairs, by voting for Hughes tomorrow.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 1.

GENTLEMEN,—Having decided to withdraw from the contest for the election of a City Councillor on Wednesday next, I take the earliest opportunity of expressing my thanks to the electors of Ward one, for their support in the past, also for the continued and additional support tendered to me on the present occasion.

Yours truly, HENRY C. DOUSE.

—A Mayor who knows about civic business or a Mayor who doesn't, which? Look out for the answer tomorrow evening.

SUFFOCATED BY GAS.—A late Maddoc, Ont., despatch says: John Milligan, aged 21; Lee Milligan, aged 15, and Ethel Baker 12, were suffocated by gas from a charcoal fire early this morning, and the mother of the first named is still unconscious. At night her husband had been in the habit of placing live coals in the stove having no pipe connecting them with the chimney stoves in the bedrooms. Last night he substituted charcoal for the hot coals, with the above result.

—Give the honor of the Mayoralty to one who deserves it on account of his labours in the City Council.

N. C. O's.—Non commissioned officers meet tonight in uniform.

—The Mayoralty is an honorable office. Elect to it one who has creditably served the city.
