

THE DAILY EXAMINER. JULY 29, 1892.

Notes and Comments.

Relieved of Farrer, the Toronto Globe is disposed to be reasonable, from the Canadian point of view.

—Sir Charles Euan Smith, the British minister to Morocco, who some time ago went on a mission to Fez, and concerning whose safety anxiety was felt, owing to the fact that he had not been heard from for several weeks, arrived at Tangier on the 22nd inst.

—It is probable that all the talk of the Republicans about retaliation will amount to nothing. But it is, nevertheless, pleasing and satisfactory to know that Canada is not now wholly dependent upon the United States for means of communication with the Northwest.

—The New York Post publishes a sensible editorial article in which it deprecates the vigorous and clumsy efforts of United States politicians to woo Canada by means of retaliatory measures. It says that: "The retaliation bill directed against Canada, which was passed in the senate as it came from the house, without explanation or discussion, is humorously entitled an act to enforce reciprocal relations with Canada."

—Mr. Peel, an attaché of the British embassy at Washington, who has been visiting Toronto, says that at present and throughout the past, the relations between the United States Government and the Washington representatives of Her Majesty had been most cordial.

—The Montreal Gazette says: "Canada applies her canal tolls impartially to American and Canadian cargoes, and, as respects all grain destined for local consumption or for a port on Lake Ontario, strictly observes the injunction of the treaty that there shall be equality of treatment."

—The Montreal Gazette says: "Canada applies her canal tolls impartially to American and Canadian cargoes, and, as respects all grain destined for local consumption or for a port on Lake Ontario, strictly observes the injunction of the treaty that there shall be equality of treatment."

A Sudden Call.

MR. GEORGE DOCKENDORFF, WHILE IN AP- PARENT GOOD HEALTH, DROPS DEAD.

THIS forenoon, about ten o'clock, a very sad occurrence took place in the store of T. J. Morris, Upper Queen Street. It appears that George Dockendorff, a farmer living at North River, came to town to attend the usual Friday market. He took with him from the farm a quantity of cream for Carter's restaurant and had left it with Mr. Carter. Before leaving Carter's store he took a drink of lemonade, and then went to the adjoining store of T. J. Morris.

Relief for St. John's. The following are additional contributions: Per K R Morrison, Eldon—Capt R McRae, Pinette, 3 bags potatoes; Wm Ross, Flat River, 2 bags potatoes; M Stephens, Orwell, 2 bags potatoes.

Gladstone's Health.

The New York World's London special says: A member of Parliament closely associated with Mr. Gladstone made the following statement a few days ago, Mr. Gladstone's health is causing uneasiness to his friends. The exertion of the Midlothian campaign has told severely on him, and the result of the elections, leaving him with so small a majority, opens a vista of trouble which has worried him intensely. He has nothing organically wrong, but he has begun to show the effects of his extreme age in features entirely new to him.

Personal.

Duncan Mann, Esq., Little Sands, is in the city. A London despatch (July 27) reports that Mr. Gladstone's eye is improving and that he is allowed to use it briefly for reading purposes. His general health is good.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons left Charlottetown this forenoon for Vernon River, where he will be the guest of the Rev. Dr. Doyle.

Mr. Hitt, who is prime mover in the movement for retaliation against Canada, is the same Hitt whom the grid leaders on this side of the line are proud to acknowledge as their ally and patron.

There were registered at the Hotel Davies yesterday: T H Dobson, Montreal; Mrs J E McDonald, Cardigan; D J Gillis, Minneapolis; A B McLeod, M McDonald, Boston; J T Bunting, Montreal; R Brock, Boston; Mrs K Field, Brooklyn; J Stirling, H Taylor, Lt Col and Mrs Mansell, Montreal; E St Clair, Miramichi; Geo Gagnon, Quebec; A Siveright, New Glasgow; Miss M Clifford, Worcester; Miss A E Childs, do; Mrs A E Clifford, Worcester. To day the arrivals were: H F Ellis, Toronto; J O'Neill and wife, Fall River; Henry Green, Cardigan; Mr and Mrs Beech, Toronto; Chas F Beech, do; Miss F Newbony, do; A Mason, city.

At a Ripe Old Age.

DEATH OF THE REV. BENJAMIN DAWSON.

Rev. Benjamin Dawson, an octogenarian, and one of Montreal's best known citizens, died at his residence, 41 McGill College Avenue, on Saturday night. Mr. Dawson was a native of Prince Edward Island, where he was born in March, 1804. He was, therefore, 88 years of age at the time of his death.

[The late Mr. Dawson was well known to many of our older citizens, and the announcement of his death will be read with regret by a large circle of relatives in this Province. Two years ago he spent a good part of the summer season in Charlottetown on a visit to his nephew, Thomas Alley, Esq., when he was remarkably hale and hearty for a gentleman of his advanced years.]

General Telegraphic News.

LONDON, July 27.—The Standard says in reply to a despatch from Sir Charles Euan Smith asking whether the British mission could withdraw from Morocco, Lord Salisbury has instructed him to remain in that country.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Some days since it was stated that three French grril M. P.'s had threatened to resign and that Deslisle, M. P., had attributed disloyal language to Sutherland, M. P., North Oxford, regarding Mr. Laurier. The grit press violently denied the story, but a letter appears to-day showing that the member for Portneuf really did give the information, which was perfectly true.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—As a precautionary measure against the introduction of cholera, the secretary of the treasury has directed collectors of customs along the Atlantic seaboard to prohibit the landing of emigrants from France.

CHRISTIANIA, July 27.—The greater portion of the town of Sorpeborg, Norway, has been burned. The damage is estimated at 500,000 kroner.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—The Carnegie company has decided that there is not evidence sufficient to warrant any action against Her Most at the present time.

DREYFUS, July 27.—The dead body of a sailor was found on the marsh at Kewaway Head, St. Mary's Bay, yesterday afternoon. It is supposed to be one of the poor unfortunates from the ill-fated Peter Stuart, lost near Yarmouth some months ago. The appearances indicate that he had been in the water since that time. When found a life preserver was attached to him. He had a pair of trousers tied around his neck and a bundle of child's clothes under his overcoat. The body was buried in the Baptist cemetery at this place.

NEW GLASGOW, July 27.—Miss Smith, of Truro, who has been visiting at New Glasgow, took in the excursion last night. On the return trip, Capt. Rudolf assisted the passengers off the Egerton at the New Glasgow wharf, and particularly told them to go on the gangway singly. The night was dark and he stood alongside with his lantern. Miss Smith got off the boat with another lady friend, and as there was not enough room for two to walk the gangway, she landed in the water instead of on the wharf. Instantly the captain dropped the lantern and went overboard and saved her. In his time the young captain has saved many persons from drowning.

Supreme Court.

FRIDAY, July 29. Queen vs Chas Cannon—Tried June term at Summerside. Convicted of assault to prevent arrest. Court refuses this motion in arrest of judgment. M. McLeod, Q C, for prisoner; Attorney-General for Crown. The prisoner will receive sentence next October term at Summerside.

Queen vs Thos McTague—Convicted at present term of court for perjury. Mr W S Stewart moves in arrest of judgment; the Attorney-General contra. Court takes time to consider.

Application of Hugh Ramsay for certiorari to null an order of Judge Kelly rescinding a former order—court on return of writ annuls the second order of Judge Kelly, Mr. Richard Dawson, is still living in Prince Edward Island at the age of 92 years. The late Benjamin Dawson received the title of "Reverend" after his eightieth year from the Reformed Episcopal Church, of which he was the oldest deacon in Montreal.—Montreal Star.

Roos Buote vs Edmund C Maxfield—Tried two years ago at Summerside. The court now refuses rule for new trial without costs to S Stewart for plaintiff, A A McLean, for defendant.

J A Longworth vs Jas Clow—Action of ejectment verdict for plaintiff. Mr Davies, Q C, is now moving rule for non-suit or new trial.

Mr. Gladstone will probably be the oldest prime minister that has taken office in Great Britain. As a rule, his predecessors have retired from active leadership soon after seventy, if they attained that age, and for the most part they have not lived many years beyond it. Some of them have been cut down in their prime, like Pitt, Canning, Peel and others. Mr. Gladstone is the only instance of an English statesman forming four cabinets.
