New Faces in Royals Lineup Against Amherst On Tuesday

There were three new faces in the back of the Charlottetown Royals at the Sports Arena last night as the Royals were through their practices to prepare for Tuesday night's game against the powerful Amherst Ramblers.

A surprise performer at the Royals' practice was Jerry Love-Darby, who came from Halifax last summer and sparked Ross Burns to the city's final finals last summer.

Love-Darby also played Senior hockey around Halifax for the past few seasons, looked like a smart, quick player who could play.

Coach Whittick plans to give him some skating time before the game.

The other new faces were Cecil Doolan and Brian Lewis. Doolan looked like a man who had been playing for some time.

Lewis showed his old position ability around the net, but he did not play in the game.

He appeared ready for Tuesday night's game and as far as he was concerned, he will be playing on a line with Willie Dunn and Jim MacLeod.

The Amherst Ramblers started their third period with a goal and a lead of 2-1.

The Royals tied the game at 2-2 in the third period.

The game ended in a 2-2 tie.

The Amherst Ramblers will play the Charlottetown Royals in the Grey Cup final.

The Grey Cup final will be held at the Royal York Hotel on Sunday night.

Saints defeat Chatham RCAF 69-37 Saturday

Still up to his old tricks of pulling an outstanding player out of the crowd the Saint Dunstan's University basketball coach uncovered Gerry Tingley Saturday night as the Saints defeated Chatham in the Saints first game this season.

Tingley, who stands 6'4" and who developed into quite a football player and was the league's Saturday night of becoming a basketball artist. He scored 20 points to lead all players.

A mediocre player last season, Tingley suddenly blossomed in his first year with some fourth place in his early powers are a true indication of his value to the team than he big New Brunswick boy could be the "Big Man" (as Saint's are looking for).

Almost written off after the loss of John Kelly this year, the Saints showed on Saturday night in intercollegiate and Junior circles. They have balance with their scoring punch fairly well distributed and they were played without two top performers.

Missing were high scoring guard Bob Fearon, improving every season and newcomer Gil Brian Nason, who is in the hospital.

A healthy 12 points to assist the Saints against the R. C. A. F. while Chick Morrison had 10.
