Mr. Motorist! Mr. Farmer! If you are thinking of purchasing a new car or trading an old one; if you need the best in tractors and farm equipment; if you require top-flight repair service; then the firm of S. R. Johnston, Limited, St. Peter's Road, is a must on your visiting list.

An association with the Ford Motor Company dating back 31 years is the proud boast of the proprietor, S. R. Johnston. A native of Fortune, Kings County, Mr. Johnston has been selling Ford products to his fellow Islanders since 1927. Eight years later in 1935 he obtained his first direct contract with the motor company, and in 1941 took over the Ford agency in Charlottetown.

Following three years service in the Canadian Army during World War Two, Mr. Johnston re-opened his City dealership in the Belvedere area. In 1947 he completed the large, commodious structure that has become a landmark on the St. Peter's Road.

A brother, Lester, became associated with the firm in 1950. They are sons of Mrs. Ernest S. Johnston, Fortune Bridge, and the late E. S. Johnston, well-known retailer and lobster packer.

The Johnston brothers are chief P. E. I. dealers for the Ford-Edsel line of cars, Ford Trucks, Ford Tractors, and the famous Fordson Major diesel-operated tractor. In addition S. R. Johnston Limited carry a complete line of parts and replacements for all types of vehicles sold by the firm, and offer the public the most modern and up-to-date repair department in the Province. S. R. Johnston's large, efficient staff, averaging 20 people, make it possible for them to provide prompt, thorough service at all times.
