Bishop B. W. Arnett

SWAYS AUDIENCES WITH HIS MASTERLY ELOQUENCE.

He Writes a Letter of More Than Usual Interest to Suffering Humanity.

At Wilberforce, Ohio, three miles north of Xenia, and near Dayton and Springfield; is located Wilberforce University and Payne Theological Seminary. These two institutions of learning have educated many ministers and teachers. In this somewhat noted educational centre resides Bishop Benjamin W. Arnett, D. D., a divine whose special prominence because of his thrilling eloquence, with which he has swayed many audiences.

Among the high officials of the church, no one is more distinguished than he.

BISHOP B. W. ARNETT.

Before being elected bishop he was a leading minister in his church and also a very prominent Republican. He represented his country in the Ohio Legislature for several years.

Having given this sketch of the bishop, the following testimonial from him will be found very interesting reading and fully explains itself.

To whom it may concern: "In April, 1894, when on my way home from Philadelphia I caught a very severe cold which soon developed into rheumatism. It was impossible for me to rest by day or sleep by night. About the first of June I was compelled to take to my bed, where I remained for some time. When I was able to get up, I could only get about by the use of crutches.

"The fall came on and the rheumatism grew worse, lasting all through the winter of '94 and '95. I suffered as I never suffered before. I thought that the spring would bring me relief, but it did not, consequently I was forced to cancel engagements to speak.

"One day in June, 1895, my wife said, 'Bishop, I read so much about Dr Williams' Pink Pills, suppose you try them and see if they will not help you?'

"I said, 'No, there is no use of getting them for we have tried almost everything that has been recommended to us, and none of the remedies suggested seem to help my case.'

"She said no more, but went to Xenia, Ohio, and bought a box of the pills. On her return she gave me a dose at noon and another at night. She was only called one time to attend to me during that night.

"For months previous she had been called three or four times during the night. The next day I took three doses of the pills, and the second night I was not disturbed. My wife, for the first time in more than ten months, had a good night's sleep.

"I have not lost a night's sleep since that time on account of the rheumatism. I carry a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in my pocket wherever I go.

"I cheerfully bear testimony and hope that others may find relief as I did. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to several people.

"Yours for God and Man, BENJAMIN W. ARNETT."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving the disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

A DESTRUCTIVE HABIT.

"Have another with me?" and they have another. Thus first through sociability, the awful work alcohol is begun, and then the fiendish desire starts on its work of destruction killing happiness and health. ANTI-BOOZE is endorsed by the leading physicians in Europe and America as a most remarkable remedy for the cure of intemperance in all its stages, and for destroying the fearful effects of all narcotic poisons. It rebuilds the shattered nervous system restoring the patient quickly to normal physical and normal mental conditions. ANTI-BOOZE is put up in pill form and sells at $1.00 a box, sent to any address, prepaid in plain wrapper, on receipt of amount. Oriental Chemical Co. 20 St. Alexis Street, Montreal.

A WOMAN'S SOLILOQUY IN 1950.

I know my husband really tries A pleasant home to make, But he can't seem to make such pies As father used to bake.
He keeps the parlors very neat, Cares for the baby too. But, oh, he doesn't roast the meat As papa used to do!
He has good taste in cutting out And sewing children's clothes. That means economy, no doubt, But father's cooking goes!
I really must insist that Jake Shall seek a cooking school And learn to make such pies and cake As father does, by rule.
And then how proud and glad I'll be, When ma brings father here, To hear her say, "It's plain to see Jacob can cook, my dear."
—J. L. Heaton in "The Quilting Bee."

TRUE CHARITY.

That Which is Recognized and Practiced by All in India and Japan.

India, which has no poor law system, is the home of the ideal—religious, metaphysical and domestic—to an extent which makes those ridiculous who speak of her creeds as ignorant, or her inhabitants as "heathen." You never see any but the most wretched women begging for alms there. Why? The explanation proves how elevated, even if mistaken, the average moral sense is of the people. Every woman not deformed, or an outcast, or insane—at least in the higher castes—has been betrothed at an early age to a boy, whose household thereafter adopts her entirely. If the little husband dies before or during marriage the disaster is regarded universally as the penalty for sins committed by the female in a previous life. The widow must submit, and will submit, not marrying again, but hoping, by patience, to rejoin her lord after death, and his family will until her demise loyally support her for his sake. Practically these views obtain all over the land, and as every female child becomes betrothed all women are definitely provided for.

If the rash ardor of certain crude reformers could have its will and alter this so as to promote the remarriage of Hindoo widows all those who became wives for a second time would find neither of the two allied families willing to sustain a wife belonging in the next world to two husbands, or to none at all. Besides this, the sentiment of the bhao-bund, or blood relationship, is all powerful in the land, and never repudiated. As also in Japan, where there are no poor laws and no paupers, the ties of kinship are everywhere acknowledged, discharged and repaid, and the household cakes will be distributed to all who put forth the claim of poverty, hunger and relationship. Add to all this that charity is not so much a virtue in India as a habit, a religious necessity, an indispensable passport to further prosperous existences, and it will be seen why India in a most tender and effective manner fulfills the law which Christians only, or principally, talk about.—Sir Edward Arnold in North American Review.

Bismarck's Boswell. Bismarck's Boswell, Herr Moritz Busch, studied theology, but in 1848 went into politics as a violent democrat, came to the United States about the same time as Carl Schurz and for a short time filled the pulpit of a German church. He returned to Europe in 1852, to travel in Palestine on behalf of the Austrian Lloyds, edited the Greuzbote till 1866, and after acting in various capacities in Schleswig-Holstein and Hanover was employed by Bismarck as press reporter. Among his duties as such were the writing and forwarding of articles which the chancellor wished in the interest of his policy to see published in the leading papers. He remained in Bismarck's service without any distinct functions till 1873.

After the war a number of sketches from his journal were published in the Gartenlaube, but they were suddenly broken off by the editor of that periodical, whereupon Count Bismarck wrote to the editor expressing his father's satisfaction. Busch is the most copious and minute of the prince's biographers, with a genuine Boswellian veneration for his subject, which is by no means the least qualification for such a function.

Two Trolleys. There are two kinds of trolleys—those that are built to carry passengers and those that are built to sell bonds of and to sell machinery to. They may look alike at first, but in time the difference becomes very apparent, and there are obvious dangers in multiplying the latter variety. It takes somebody's money to set any trolley line going. The people are full of the idea that real estate doubles the minute a trolley line touches it, and there is in the air more or less of the spirit that led, thirty years or so ago, to ruinous investments in steam roads all over the state. The farmer who takes his savings bank deposit to help build a trolley that is to pass his door may mortgage his home next to keep the road running, and eventually may see the service stopped and the house sold. People don't run trolleys at a loss forever. Somebody must foot the bills.

It is asserted in some well informed quarters that one must search long to find a single cross country trolley that pays. Be that as it may, it is obvious that a good many are projected that cannot pay, and it is equally true that eventually the line that doesn't pay will come to grief.—Hartford Courant.
