

Three Nights of Comedy Acts

From December 18 to the 20, there will be a series of three one-act comedies, taking place in the Steel Recital Hall right here at UPEI. The comedy will begin precisely at 7:01 pm each night. There will be an 8 dollar cover, with a 3 dollar discount for students and seniors. Come and laugh until your stomach eats your bleating, pumping heart, and explodes out through your neurotic, giggling mid-body torso.

Those involved would like to first warn that some people become unable to function properly upon laughing a great deal, and there is a chance that you may be one of these people. You may find you are having trouble containing yourself, and it is being advised that you simply let your horrible snorts and cackles out. Class clowns now studying here at the university suggest that one is less likely to have a crippling double-hernia if one opens up into a vicious spasm of mad laughter every once in a while. It is believed that this is due to a releasing of the built-up tensions in need of expenditure.

Come to the Steele

Recital Hall here at UPEI, between the 18th and the 20th, relax and laugh yourself out of your coveted seat in the front row. The show will begin at precisely 7:01 pm, but you may want to get there early in order to get a good seat to fall off of.
