THE Prince of Wales' fortieth birthday was kept with all the prestige possible a few days ago. Everyone staying at Sandringham presented a gift. These gifts were arranged on small tables in the hall, and caused as many surprises and as much amusement as the birthday presents of the youngest members of the family.

THE steamer "Germanic" on her voyage to Queenstown, picked up the crew of the steamer Hurworth, which was in a sinking condition and had been drifting about for eleven days. The rescued seamen had suffered greatly from exposure. Funds were supplied them by the passengers of the "Germanic."

THE town of Cornwall, Ont., obtains its supply of water from wells, and specimens of the water from eighteen of these have been sent to Dr. Baker Edwards for analysis. He has analyzed them, with the startling and disagreeable result that at least half the wells furnish water totally unfit to drink by reason of the quantity of sewage matter they contain.

ENTERTAINED.—Previous to his departure for Ontario, Mr. Bowie, agent for Champion Mowing Machines, was last evening entertained at a supper in the Imperial Saloon, and presented with the following address to which he made a suitable reply:—
To Edward Egerton Bowie, Esq.

SIR,—The undersigned learn with regret that it is your intention to leave our Province for a season. We hope that the term of your absence may be short, and that your return may be speedy.
During your sojourn among us, we have learned to appreciate your qualities as a gentleman, and your abilities as a business man. When you come among us again, you can rely upon a Highland welcome; and we can only hope that on your return to this Province we shall have the pleasure of welcoming you and yours, instead of addressing a member of the Order of Saint Benedict.

Very sincerely yours,
