THOMAS HUNT, D. C. C.

SOLDIER'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of Sergeant and Piper Major Angus M'Leod, who died on the 3rd May, of fever, after an illness of four days, in Paisley Barracks, took place on Wednesday last. He was buried in the Cemetery, near to Dr. Kerr, the originator of bringing the Stanley water into Paisley. The deceased joined the 79th Regt. of Cameron Highlanders, at the age of 18 years, in 1843, and served in Gibraltar, Canada, and the East Indies, throughout the mutiny, for rather more than 22 years, and was discharged as Sergeant and Piper Major from the Highland Depot Battalion, stationed at Aberdeen, in 1865, on a pension of 1s. 11½d per day. The deceased was a most exemplary character, and received a medal for long service and good conduct, together with a gratuity of £10. He was in possession of the Indian war medal, with a clasp for the relief and capture of Lucknow. In 1865, on his discharge from the 79th Regt., he was immediately made Sergt. and Piper Major of the Royal Renfrew Militia, in which he was much respected both by officers and men. The funeral was attended by a number of civilian friends and relations, and by a party of Non-Commissioned officers, and men of the 1st Battalion, 25th Royal Borderers, by the Staff and Band of the Royal Renfrew Militia, and also by the kind permission of Major Smith, by one of the Paisley local companies of enrolled Pensioners, who furnished a firing party of 1 Sergeant, 1 Corporal, and 20 Privates, who fired three volleys with veteran precision over his grave. The following officers of the deceased's late Regiment attended his funeral. Captain and Adjutant Forrest, Drs. Hutcheson and Graham, and L. B. Barr, Esq., Quarter-Master. The deceased was a native of the parish of Tongue, Sutherlandshire, and leaves a widow and four children to lament his loss. The streets were densely crowded with spectators along the whole route, from the Barracks to the Cemetery.—Paisley Herald, (Scotland.)

Deceased was a son-in-law of Mr. John Ross, Pensioner, Charlottetown, P. E. Island.
