OBITUARY

MRS. ALEX PAQUET Many friends and family members were saddened on March 11th, 1964, when word came of the passing of the Hospital of Mrs. Alex Paquet, in her 79th year. Aunt Annie, as she was familiarly known, was loved and respected by all who knew her. She endured a lengthy illness with great patience and resignation to the will of God.

Mrs. Paquet was the former Annie MacDonald, daughter of the late James R. MacDonald and Johanna Campbell of South Lake. She married Alex Paquet of Souris, who predeceased her in 1947.

Mrs. Paquet's life was a living example of Christian charity and kindness. Her home was truly a hospitable one. She was devoted to her church, a faithful and loving mother and grandmother, and a kind neighbor who was always ready to help the sick or afflicted. Her skill as a nurse was well-known. However, she will be mostly missed in the home where her kind and gentle qualities were so manifest.

During her last illness, she was tenderly cared for by her family, especially James and Marie, with whom she made her home. Her brother, George MacDonald was in almost constant attendance at the bedside. She was comforted by frequent visits of the clergy, Rev. J.J. Dunphy and Rev. Robert MacDonald, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church. But, despite the skill of her doctors and nurses, her gentle soul, at the Master's call, passed to his eternal reward.

Left to mourn are four sons and two daughters, namely: George and Mary, Mrs. Louise of Montreal, Geraldine, Mrs. Grey of Toronto, Miss of Charlottetown, Joseph and James of Souris. A also two brothers, Joseph of Ontario and George of Charlottetown. Her brother Louis James was killed in World War One, and a sister, Finesse, predeceased her in 1952. She had 35 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

The large funeral which was held at St. Mary's Church, Souris on March 13th, 1964, was to the esteem in which she was held. Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. J.J. Dunphy. Religious services conducted at the grave by Rev. Robert MacDonald.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Annie Paquet wish to express their sincere thanks to the clergy, doctors and staff of Souris Hospital. A special thank you to the nurses, also to Fred and Laveta Perry of Perry's Funeral Home, in all those who gave Masses, sent flowers, messages and sympathy, and to all friends and neighbors who helped and tried so many ways during our recent bereavement.
