MOCK PARLIAMENT.—To-night at the Y. M. C. A. lecture room, a paper will be read by Miss Macmillan, elocutionist. Subject: "Orators and Oratory." A full house expected.

THE MARKET.—The attendance at the market to-day was fair and the supply good. Prices were little changed. Oats sold at from 35 to 40 cents per bushel, and pork at from 5½ to 5¾ per lb. by the carcase.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.—The Provincial Legislature will meet for the despatch of business to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The guard of honor will be under command of Captain Crockett, of the 82nd Battalion, and the usual salute will be fired from Fort Edward.

ALLEGED PERSONATION.—A late despatch from Ottawa states that the civil service commission are instituting a rigid enquiry into the number of cases of alleged personation in last November's examinations. Concinsive evidence of frauds will be forthcoming in half a dozen cases. The full penalty of the law will be invoked against all offenders convicted.

EXTRA DOORS.—In the liquor cases disposed of at the Police Court this morning, the defence in one instance was that the extra door complained of was used only for putting in stock, and in the other case that it had not been used at all. His Honor, in giving judgment, declined to entertain the pleas, and held that the very existence of these doors was contrary to the statute. He therefore imposed a fine of $25 and costs in each case.

A. O. H. SOCIAL.—The social under the auspices of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, in their division room last evening, was a decided success in every respect. Dancing began about half past nine o'clock, and was continued until "the wee sma' hours." About fifty couples were present. The chaperones were Mrs. D. O'M. Reddin, sr., Mrs. D. J. Kane, Mrs. Thomas Handrahan and Mrs. M. Blake. Excellent music for dancing was furnished by Worth's orchestra. The caterers were Messrs. John Murphy & Son, and they gave every satisfaction.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.—Mr. J. Hebet Haslam of the C. P. R. delivered his lecture on Chicago, and the World's Fair, in the basement of the First Methodist Church last evening. Rev. W. W. Brewer, president. There was a good audience. The views were excellent, and the discriptive matter very interesting. The lecturer first gave views of Chicago and some of its principal buildings, then came views of the World's Fair, showing the interior and exterior of the various departmental building's and closing with some of the groups of statuary. The proceeds go towards the balance on the church debt.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, Angus DeRoche and Peter Paul Gillis were each fined $25 and costs, or two months imprisonment, for selling intoxicants in a room not fitted up according to law. Margaret Collyer had her husband, William Collyer, arraigned on a charge of assault and battery. Margaret, in her complaint, alleged that William hit her in the face with a turnip blacking her eye, and also beat her about the head with a basket. This morning, however, she declined to prosecute, and the summons was dismissed. Before dismissing the case, His Honor gave Collyer some wholesome advice concerning the manner in which he was to behave towards his wife in the future. John Joseph Hogan had young Patrick McMillan arraigned on a charge of annoying him in his dwelling by throwing stones against the door of his house. Patrick denied the charge, and the case was adjourned for further evidence.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE PETERS POLICY.

SIR,—In the Premier's speech at Mount Stewart, I find the following: "The policy that the Liberal party have always and I hope always will preach and act upon in this country is that there are three things our farmers want. First—a good market. That unfortunately we have no control of, but we hope soon to put a government in power at Ottawa that will give it to us." I shall not stop now to deal with the second and third things in the policy of the Liberal party, but merely ask what I conceive to be some pertinent questions with respect to the first of these "things." Now, it devolves on Frederick Peters, Esq., Premier of the grit Government of P. E. Island, to show the electors by some authentic quotations from the markets abroad what are the prospects of a better market in any country—say the United States—for better prices for our farm products as a whole than we are now receiving in the Dominion of Canada. Davies, Welsh and Peters tell the people that if the wicked Tory Government at Ottawa was removed and a grit Government placed in its stead, a great market would be provided for our farm produce and our condition improved financially to an incalculable degree. Will Premier Peters tell the people of this Island where this market is to be found? We want to know in what country we can get more remunerative prices for our farm products than in Canada? Will Mr. Peters condescend to name this country? It is high time we knew where it is if such a country is to be found under the sun. Come crafty deluders or blind leaders of the blind. Out with the whole secret. Tell us where this land of promise with a people ready to consume all our surplus farm produce at big prices is to be found. On what part of the habitable globe is it situated? Is it described in any of our geographies? If such a country is located anywhere outside of the diseased imagination of gritdom, and the wicked Tory Government at Ottawa bars our access to its market, the sooner the poor tories know all about it the better. Tories are as fond of good prices for their farm products as grits can be, and as ready to listen to anything relating to their best interests as grits; but unfortunately with respect to the outside markets they find that the quotations abroad show smaller prices for farm produce than at home. Even if we had unrestricted reciprocity or annexation the markets here could be no better, for the United States farmer receives less for his produce than the Canadian farmer. Still the grit oracle continues to reiterate through the press, on the floor of the house and on the public platform, that sale delusion—that hollow mockery which poor dupes believe and act upon—that outside of Canada somewhere, in some land unknown to enlightened traders and statisticians, exists a people sadly in need of our surplus produce and ready and willing to give fabulous prices for it. At present they tell us there is one difficulty in the way. That wicked Tory Government which is determined the poor people shall never have access to this boundless market must first be removed;—then after the grit leaders are duly installed in office and in receipt of big fat salaries, the land will flow with milk and honey. Alas! Alas! How the poor electors love to be gulled. What implicit faith they have in the mere statements of interested politicians. Verily the Premier has baited his hook well. Do simple-minded electors believe this to be for the benefit of the fish. I tell them nay. The naked truth is that this promised market exists only in the imagination of the duped electors, and like all other political nostrums will be discovered in time to be one more humbug which after having attained its period of usefulness to the grit leaders will be relegated with them by an indignant electorate to the limbo of political clap-trap.

ANTI-HUMBUG.

THE SUGGESTION APPROVED.

SIR,—"Correspondent's" suggestion in ye-terday's EXAMINER is undoubtedly a good one. I understand that the public is under some obligation to the Postmaster for his kindness in having the rear door of the Post Office opened on Sunday, and if he would order the front door to be opened also, his action would undoubtedly be received with added approval.
