BIG MEETING IN THE MARKET HALL.

Large Audience Listens to Sir Louis and Mr. Stewart.

The meeting in Market Hall last night was attended by an audience which completely filled the building. Before eight o'clock every seat was occupied and hundreds were obliged to stand throughout the proceedings. There was a good proportion of ladies present, many of whom, including Lady Davies, occupied seats on the platform.

A few minutes before eight o'clock, the hour set for opening the meeting, Mr. W. S. Stewart arrived, his coming being the signal for an outburst of applause and cheers such as had never before been heard in Market Hall. A few minutes later Sir Louis Davies came in and he was also greeted with cheers and applause.

At ten minutes after eight Premier Farquharson, who presided, called the meeting to order and explained the arrangements made regarding the speaking. He asked that both Sir Louis and Mr. Stewart be given a good hearing.

Sir Louis, who spoke first, was well received as he came forward. After expressing the opinion that the conditions were favorable to the return of the Liberal Government, including himself, and expressing his disapproval of joint meetings and some of the canvassing methods used, Sir Louis took up the question of kerosene oil, claiming that he had done all he could to keep his promise regarding this commodity. He thought that every farmer in Canada ought to approve of the Government's action on the binder twine question, asserting that they had removed the duty from what was imported and sold what was made in Canada to the farmers at cost and charges. He repudiated the charge that the Government had broken their pre-election promises, and claimed that they had adhered to the Ottawa platform in respect to the tariff, reciprocity, the public debt and expenditures and the giving of clean and honest government. He claimed credit for the southern railway and the Hillsboro bridge, and closed with a reference to the sending of the troops to South Africa.

Mr. Stewart followed Sir Louis and was given a magnificent ovation upon rising, cheer after cheer going up from the great crowd. At the outset he dealt with the sending of the troops to Africa, condemning the delay of the Government at a critical period in the history of the Motherland, at a time when every colony of the Empire was offering troops. He disputed the statement of Sir Louis that the promises made in the Ottawa platform had been kept. He showed that the promises made regarding clean and honest government had not been kept by laying bare the iniquitous emergency rations deal, the election frauds in West Huron and Brockville, the Yukon scandal, the Crow's Nest Pass railway scandal and the Drummond railway dicker. Then he took up the kerosene oil matter and showed how the Government had given the Standard Oil Company a monopoly in Canada, crushing out the Canadian industry, and pointed out that in Canada today oil is 15c a gallon dearer than it is in the United States. As with oil so it was with binder twine. By placing this article on the free list they had fastened another giant monopoly on the people of Canada. To the Liberals the people are indebted for the oil monopoly, the binder twine monopoly and the barb wire monopoly. Taking up the matter of expenditures, Mr. Stewart showed that the Government had failed to keep their promises in this regard, reviewing at length the records of the Liberals and Liberal-Conservatives to prove his assertion. The Liberals had promised reciprocity with the United States, but here again they failed to make connection with their pre-election utterances, as by placing certain articles imported from the United States on the free list before they set about negotiating the treaty they practically gave away their case. The expenses of the reciprocity commission, the "smelling commissions" and the penitentiary commission were also referred to. He denied that the Liberals had reduced the taxes, claiming that Hon. Mr. Fielding admitted that there was practically no difference between the two tariffs. The taxes had been actually increased by $10,000,000 a year. He took exception to the statement of Sir Louis that the Conservatives had acquiesced in the expenditures, reading a resolution of protest submitted by Mr. Foster last session to back up what he said. He exposed the inaction of the Liberals with regard to the Pacific Cable; and in reference to cold storage spoke of the fraud perpetrated upon the people of P. E. Island in this regard, showing how sheep and lambs shipped from Charlottetown to Great Britain were lost owing to the bad ventilation of a tramp steamer sent here by the Government. In fact the Liberals had violated every promise they made. They have lowered themselves in the estimation of the electorate and in their own estimation as well. They have been condemned by their own people. Hon. John Charlton condemned them, and said they should have done what Sir Charles Tupper wanted them to do. Hon. Mr. Fielding was tendered a nomination in Pictou County, but was afraid to contest the seat. Mr. Russell, of dog-biscuit fame, has been driven out of Halifax to seek a seat elsewhere. The condemnation of the Liberals is already written, and the indications are that they will be snowed under on election day. Mr. Stewart closed his able and eloquent speech with an appeal for support on election day; and at the close received three rousing cheers.

Sir Louis then spoke for twenty minutes in reply to Mr. Stewart, and was given a good reception. The meeting closed with cheers for the candidates.

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—Moderate west winds; fair. Friday: Southwest winds; fair.

Yes, the tide of public opinion is moving against the Tarte-Laurier Government and its candidates. The fact was evident at the last night at the Market Hall meeting. It is evident everywhere.

It is reported that canvassers for Mr. Bell in East Prince are feeling blue over the refusals they constantly receive.

—A few days ago THE EXAMINER published an article relative to the probable death of an Islander named Daniel Macdonald in the Yukon. The account stated that Macdonald was last seen making his way with a companion named John Macdonald down the Findlay River, northern British Columbia, toward Fort Graham, about the last of August 1899. Word now comes from Emerald that a Daniel Macdonald, son of Mr. James Macdonald, of that place, left the Island for the west in May 1897. The last time he had been heard from was in a letter from Butte, Montana, written in May 1898, in which he told his relatives not to write him till he wrote them again. He intended to go to British Columbia. This he may have done, and may have gone north in the rush to the Klondyke. He has not been heard from since; and this fact and the other that it was an Islander of the same name who with a companion was probably lost in the rapids of the Findlay River, tend much toward the conviction that this person was the Daniel Macdonald of Emerald.
