

THE MOST RELIABLE FRIEND.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Its Searching and Healing Properties are known and recognised throughout the World.

The number of years this invaluable Ointment has stood the test of public opinion, and the longer known the better appreciated, is a testimony of itself more convincing than anything that could be written in praise of its truly wonderful healing properties. In the cure of bad legs, bad breasts, sores, wounds, and ulcers its effect is marvellous. For ringworm, scald-head, scrofula, and diseases of the skin generally, there is no remedy to be compared to it. When assiduously rubbed upon the skin (previously well bathed with warm water) this Ointment is quickly absorbed into the system, and cleanses, in its passage, every part to which it is applied.

Glandular Swellings, Bronchitis, Mumps, Quinsey, Sore Throats, and Diphtheria.

In any of the above diseases, immediate and permanent relief is obtained by effectually rubbing this detergent Ointment, twice a day, upon the neck, chest, and back. It acts upon the very mainsprings of life; for through the glands pass all new matter required for the body's reparation and all old particles detrimental to its preservation. The Ointment, used conjointly with Holloway's Pills, will act so searchingly and certainly as to effect cures in the most hopeless cases.

Rheumatism, Lumbago, Contracted and Stiff Joints.

Many thousands of martyrs from the above complaints have found life almost insupportable; yet, if Holloway's Ointment be briskly and perseveringly rubbed upon the parts affected, ease may be safely guaranteed, especially if the pores of the skin be previously opened by fomentation with warm water. The gross humors required expulsion from the system; it is therefore necessary to have recourse to Holloway's admirable Pills, which, by purifying and strengthening the system, greatly assist the operation of the Ointment and facilitate and confirm the cure.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Ulcerations of all kinds.

There is no medicinal preparation in the world which may be so thoroughly relied upon, in the treatment of the above ailments, as Holloway's Ointment. Nothing can be so simple or safe as the manner in which it is applied, or its action on the body, both locally and constitutionally. The Ointment, rubbed around the part affected, enters the pores just as salt enters meat. It quickly penetrates to the source of the evil and drives it from the system.

Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores.

In all irritations of the skin, sores, ulcers, burns, or scrofulous enlargements of any kind, Holloway's Ointment presents a ready and easy means of cure. It manifests a peculiar power in retarding inflammation, removing stagnation, cooling the heated blood, and checking all acrimonious and unhealthy discharges.

Diseases attendant on Childhood.

Diseases incident to early life fall more under the management of the mother than the medical man. Holloway's Ointment should therefore be regarded by her as a "Household Treasure," as it never fails in bringing out the rash in measles and scarlatina; and for the removal of all skin diseases its effect is miraculous. In cases of whooping cough and croup, this invaluable Ointment should be rubbed twice a day upon the throat and chest, and the youngest invalid will derive therefrom the most soothing relief. Two or three of Holloway's famous Pills, reduced to a powder, will augment the curative powers of his Unguent.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

BEAUTY AND VIGOUR.

For the sex to wish to be beautiful is reasonable and natural. With what rapture do we gaze upon a lovely countenance, on every feature of which sits the calmness of content—the radiance of a happy, guileless mind, spotless in its eyes. With what admiration do we look on a blooming complexion. That delicately wonderful texture inhaling, exhaling, untiringly, with inconceivable elasticity and strength, and covering us with a garment lighter than gossamer—those invisible points more sensitive than electric wires that join the outer to the inner world, bearing on its surface a blush more evanescent than the bloom on a flower—Yes, beauty is charming. But it may vanish in a moment, for it is but an aureole around the brow of health—the sign like the fragrance of the flower of perfect vitality.

Beauty is strength, and strength and health depend on the order of the animal functions. For regulating these, Holloway's discoveries have proved the most potent ever known. His Pills as stimulators of the stomach and secreting organs, separating the deleterious deposits in the various fluids, and evacuating by the skin and bowels, those particles which by irritating the vessels excite disease, and indeed unequalled in the catalogue of medicines.

The Ointment arrests either recent or chronic ulceration, helps the discharge, and at the same time, by its peculiarly softening qualities, soothes and reduces inflammation at the edges of the tender vessels, thus inducing them to reunite, not only rapidly, but so as not to bear those hard, unsightly scars which so often remain witnesses of the past disease, and discolours of personal appearance through life. Nothing can compare with health; its preservation is our chief duty and highest interest. Impair this either by excess or neglect, and beauty so becoming is distorted. The happy countenance well nigh transparent is discoloured by disease. Unsightly sores break out and fester on the skin. As the lava from a burning mountain, so the eruption, evidence of inner malady goes on, corrupting as it goes. Life itself would soon be extinguished. But science steps in. The hand of the skilful gardener is at hand to heal and re-invigorate. We are not saying more than what is known to all the world when we assert that Holloway's Pills and Ointment are equal to their celebrity, which has been well and nobly earned. Professor Holloway is a fortunate man to be able to offer such genuine remedies, and sufferers are indeed fortunate in having them so near at hand.—Temperance Freethinker.

Holloway's Pills—The Best Friends.—When bad health overtakes mankind, what would not be given to be free from it? Holloway presents to all invalids the means of recovering their health and renewing failing strength for a mere trifle. His Pills invariably produce the most satisfactory results where the digestion, circulation, or nerves are at fault. The Pills purify the blood, balance its circulation, induce healthy action in the liver, and overcome all painful affections of the intestines. Illness of the most alarming character, which have withstood all other treatment, have yielded to a course of Holloway's Pills.
