Argyle Shore

The vague note is "hay-making" "Let's all sing, let's get in swing" for the crop is very promising this year, regardless of the late season.

Owing to the intensity of the heat on Sunday last, large numbers of pleasure seekers, sought coolness in the delightful "Strait" waters and the "Shore" is unexcelled for surf-bathing.

A new addition to this exceptionally excellent holiday resort and a necessary feature is the appearance of a refreshment booth which was quite a novelty for Sunday fans.

Tourists, under the personages of Mr. and Mrs. James Beck, Bangor, Me., and Rev. G. F. and Mrs. Sprigg, Cape Breton Island, are occupying Mr. J. A. MacDougall's bungalow.

many memories it awoke in the minds of the visitors. Mrs. C. came piling in full of hungry people. The tables, set under the leafy bowers were quite attractive looking and were kept well filled all the time.

St. Stephen's Church, Burlington, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Margaret Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Blakney was united in marriage to Gordon McKay Cousins, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cousins, Belle. The service was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Freeman. Mrs. Charles Frazier played very softly the Wedding March as the wedding party entered the church and during the ceremony. The choir sang softly the Voice That Breathed O'er Eden. The church was beautifully decorated by girl friends of the bride for the occasion, the chancel being banked with ferns and summer flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father who was gowned in blue and cream taffeta with a pretty white hat and white accessories to match. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white lilies and maiden hair fern. Miss Marjorie Blakney attended her sister, she was becomingly gowned in yellow with hat and all other matching accessories and carried a beautiful bouquet of yellow lilies with maiden hair fern. Mr. David Cousins was best man for his brother. The ushers Mr. Borden Council and Mr. Harris Blakney. During the signing of the register Mrs. Robert Hunter sang a pleasing solo in her capable manner. Soft music was played while all were leaving the church while the bridal couple remained outside to receive the congratulations of their many friends who were present. The bridal party left on a honeymoon trip immediately after the ceremony and showers of comfort and good wishes from a host of friends.

A number of the members of Darnley and Sea View motored to Long River to attend the District Rally. There were a good many present at all the sessions.

The many friends are pleased to learn that Mrs. Colin Donald is recovering through slowly from her recent illness.

Mr. Frank Hudson, Hills Station has been spending a pleasant week in Sea View the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Donald.
