The body was transferred from the Montague Funeral Home to his late residence then to St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon on Thursday where Requiem High Mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock.

11 Cub Scouts Pass Tenderpad At New Glasgow

NEW GLASGOW — The 11 members of the newly-formed New Glasgow Cub pack recently passed their "tenderpad" tests and were invested as cubs in a ceremony at the Junior Farmers Hall.

They were: Stanley Parkman, Ian and Harvey Gauthier, Dana and Robert Dickson, Brian and Elaine Nicholson, Michael Conson, Charles Selver, Edwin Pineau and Tony Howland.

Most are from New Glasgow, but others are from surrounding districts such as South Boston and Ebenezer.

The pack, formed by Scoutmaster W. A. Conson in early March, closed out its year's activities last evening with an open air campfire.

Boy Injured In Collision With Truck

A recent traffic mishap near the intersection of Weymouth and Richmond's Streets, resulted in Russell Downe, 7-year-old son of Capt. and Mrs. Robert (Bob) Downe, 53 Weymouth Street, being admitted to the Prince Edward Island Hospital with an injury to the head.

The young lad suffered the injury when he collided with the open door of a local dry cleaning truck, operated by John Profit of St. Peter's Road. A few seconds before the accident occurred the driver had stopped to make a delivery and had just opened the door and was about to step out of the cab, when the lad who was riding a bicycle crashed into the door.

The injured boy was taken to the hospital where examination revealed that he had suffered a broken skullum. He was released to his home after about a week with instructions to return at a future date for further examination.
