required to pass a judgment on its merits. And the people of this Island, as a general thing, are not "familiar" with "the process of arbitration" in any form. Not one man in a thousand of the adult population of this Colony has ever been engaged in such a business; and even if the whole tenantry of the Island understood the machinery of an arbitration as well as their household words, not one man in a thousand could hope to be successful against an influential antagonist like a land proprietor.

The friends of the Government in town make great efforts to persuade the country people, whenever they can seize them by the button hole, especially on market days, that the whole award will be found very advantageous to the tenantry, and that the arbitration clause will prove a boon of inestimable price, "inasmuch," say they, "as it leaves every tenant to settle the va ue of his own farm." The preceding remarks, which will commend themselves to every man of sense and judgment, will shew that the tenant can enjoy no such privilege. The price of his farm will not be determined by him, if he submits to an arbitration, but by two individuals in the interest of the proprietors; and the poor tenant must, in the long run, pay them for deciding against him. The attempt to force any other view on the country people can only cover the Government with shame and humiliation in their hour of trial, which is fast approaching.

The award has created an intense feeling of disgust and indignation all over the Island. Better for the friends of the Administration to step aside, and let the torrent roll on. An attempt to resist its progress will only give impetuosity to the tide when at its flood. The public mind of this country possesses a healthy, vigorous tone. We may not discover in it many scholarly acquisitions or great refinement; but there is a rich vein of common sense running through it which cannot be wholly obscured by the dust of party warfare, nor lose any of its original brightness by coming in contact with the dirty droppings that ooze from their native filth, and steal into the pestilent stream whereon floats the rotting and noisome ship of state.

We are honoured by several attacks from the Islander and Monitor, whose editors and correspondents have, during the past week, given unusual attention to us. Their object is to make the country believe that we take an erroneous view of the award, and that we do so for interested motives. That is a matter in reference to which we can afford to leave the country to decide. But appreciating the generous considerations of our cotemporaries, we hope they will excuse the shortness of this notice, assuring them that so soon as time and space will permit, we shall be happy to treat with them according to their deserts.

A PLAIN QUESTION PROMPTLY ANSWERED.

"Can Mr. Whelan show that the award will in any way injure the Tenant?"—Islander, Sept. 6.

THERE are some things that speak for themselevs. The Award is not in the list. To the dumb benefits of the Royal Commissioners must be added speech, to their facts illustration, and their figures exposition, before the deceitfulness of their decisions is fully comprehended. This conviction is no where so evident as in the twenty years' purchase idea, than which a grosser attempt to disguise the bitter pill with a coating of sugar promises was, perhaps, never attempted or exposed. Since the declaration of Mr. Howe upon this point some one-shilling tenants have been told that they were fortunate in not having to pay twenty instead of one shilling per acre. Scotland, however, is too remote to furnish points of comparison, and the congratulation too wide of the mark to require comment. Assuring complacencies are very well in their place — they are polite, and the tenantry deserve courteous treatment, but there will be a time when with or without proprietary permission, the politeness and kindness of the question of twenty years' purchase must be reached through our common arithmetic, and our gratitude expressed in figures. Against this obelisk of wisdom—the 20 years' purchase—we must set up a few little figures from the Worrel Estate, and from the known proportion of the last measure the unknown proportions of the first. 1st. Then let us ask the Award if we wish to convert an area of one hundred acres of land held under lease at 1s. per acre into freehold, what sums under the 20 years' purchase arrangement may be demanded. Say the negociation is opened in 1862 immediately after the Award becomes law—well first and foremost, there is 5 years of back-rent to be paid up.

Payment 1862, 5 years' back rent of 100 acres at 1s.					£27 17 6
Do.	1863, 1st instal'mt.	£11 3 0	int'rest	£5 11 6—	16 14 6
Do.	1864, second do.	11 3 0	do.	4 18 2—	16 1 2
Do.	1865, third do.	11 3 0	do	4 4 10—	15 7 10
Do.	1866, fourth do.	11 3 0	do.	3 11 6—	14 14 0
Do.	1867, fifth do.	11 3 0	do.	2 18 2—	14 1 2
Do.	1868, sixth do.	11 3 0	do.	2 14 10—	13 17 10

Do	1872, tenth do.	11 3 0		—	11 3 0
					£166 0 0

The Award says "twenty years' purchase, and no more." while plain figures say, without the assistance of Notes of Hand and Bond Warrants to swell the account, "thirty years and no less." This is what the Monitor calls "the privilege of having the price settled by disinterested valuators." It is the old English fashion of measuring the branches in with the trunk for timber, and here we realize this idea to perfection. And though "comparisons be odious" in this instance, in all due respect we cannot help submitting the little Worrell figures against this pile of money, just to furnish data of investigation. The late Government made 10s. per acre, or ten years' purchase, a rule like the Award twenty years, in the conversion of leaseholds into freeholds; but ALL arrears of rent were forgiven, and a like period to the Award given to pay the principle;—thus, then, hundreds of acres were before the award sold under a Liberal Government for £50—and the accounts stood thus during ten years:

First payment		....			£10 0 0
Second do	£4 13 4	interest,	£2 8 0—		7 1 4
Third do	4 13 4	do	2 2 4—		6 15 8
Fourth do	4 13 4	do	1 16 9—		6 10 1
Fifth do	4 13 4	do	1 11 4—		6 4 8
Sixth do	4 13 4	do	1 4 0—		5 17 4
Seventh do	4 13 4	do	1 0 0—		5 13 4
Eighth do	4 13 4	do	0 14 4—		5 7 8
Ninth do	4 13 4	do	0 8 9—		5 2 1
Tenth do	4 13 4				4 13 4
					£63 5 6

Comment is unnecessary, but we leave the subject with regret that our space will not permit a more lengthy expose of this attempt to saddle the tenantry with a thirty-three years' purchase, instead of the thirteen years at which the settlers on the Worrell estate have been able to secure freeholds for themselves, thereby making the burden just twenty shillings an acre more than was found necessary on the last mentioned Property by the late Liberal Government.

SIR D. DALY.

WE have learned, with unfeigned pleasure, by the last English Mail, that our much esteemed friend, Sir D. Daly, has received the very important and lucrative appointment of Governor of South Australia. The Salary annexed to this post is four thousand pounds sterling, with an allowance of four hundred pounds sterling for a Private Secretary. It is certainly a great rise in the scale of promotion to be transferred to a vast and flourishing Colony like South Australia, with a Salary of £4,000 a year, from a poor little Island like this, where the salary was only £1500 a year, without any imperial allowance for a Private Secre ary. But, without reference to the pecuniary value of the appointment, Sir Dominick's friends will regard it as highly important, inasmuch as it fully recognizes the eminent services of a gentleman who has served the Crown for many years with the utmost fidelity, and whose private character is adorned by all the virtues that should illustrate the deportment of a perfect gentleman, and endear him to all classes in the community. Our very good and highly respected fellow citizen, Stephen Swabey, Esqr., who is now in London, has written to us on this subject by the last Mail; and his friends and the friends of Sir Dominick will be pleased to learn from the publication of his letter—which we give to our readers without any advice from him—that he shares with thousands of others the gratification felt at seeing Sir Dominick made the recipient of royal favour and confidence in such a conspicuous manner.

6 SUFFOLK STREET, PALL MALL, LONDON,
August 22nd, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR,—You can imagine how delighted Sir Dominick Daly's friends in London were this morning on reading in the Times of that gentlemen's appointment to the Government of South Australia. I regret that Sir Dominick's absence from Town prevents my being one of the first to offer him my sincere congratulations on this further recognition by our Home Government of his ability and acknowledged worth.

The private friends and political admirers of our late Lieutenant Governor could always afford to treat with silent contempt the slanders of his enemies, and the false statements of partizan and unscrupulous journalists in Charlottetown. Her gracious Majesty, through one of her ablest public servants and noblest of Colonial Ministers, has given the happiest refutation to the oft-repeated assertions of the Family Compact party and their toadies in P. E. Island, that Her Majesty's Government would never entrust Sir Dominick Daly with further Colonial control.

We can, my dear Sir, well afford to be magnanimous to our political opponents. Sir Dominick's appointment to a larger sphere of command is a credit to the Colonial Office, and a subject of congratulation to our loyal fellow-subjects in the splendid Colony of South Australia.

Feeling assured I have the pleasure of writing to one among many thousands in Prince Edward Island and elsewhere whose most ardent good wishes attend our late respected and highly esteemed Lieut. Governor to the other side of the world, and to his latest day—hoping to see you in a few weeks, I beg you believe me, dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours,
STEPHEN SWABEY.

To the Honble. EDWARD WHELAN, &c. &c. &c.

WE have been asked for the words of the Ballad with which Madame Anna Bishop favored the assembled company on the occasion of her farewell entertainment a few evenings ago on the grounds of Government House. The Composer, Stephen C. Massett, has written many favorite Songs, but none, we believe, which have run through so many editions in so short a time as "Our good Ship sails to-night," written expressly for Madame Anna Bishop, and published by Firth, Pond & Co., No 547, Broadway, New York:

Our good ship sails to-night, Mary,
And I must haste away,
I see the banner waving,
Out in the little bay;
Long, long I may be absent
Upon the deep blue sea,
But when I'm gone away, love,
Still, still remember me.

I cannot linger now, Mary—
The shades of evening fall;
The boat is waiting by the beach,
I hear the well-known call;
Then faretheewell, my darling one,
My home is on the sea.
Yet should my life be spared, love,
I'll come again to thee!

My heart will e'er be true, Mary,
Unto our early vow,
And though the ocean rolls between
'Twill beat as warm as now;
This little token I will keep,
What e'er my fate may be,
I'll wear it near my heart, love,
A priceless gift from thee.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"A Tenant," in answer to "A Farmer," who, in the last Monitor, gives credit to the Government for having done more to benefit the country than their predecessors—will appear in our next issue.

"One of the People," on the Land Commission and the Tenant Question, will also appear in our next.

"H," on the local affairs of Georgetown, will likewise appear in our next.

"Aurora" will appear as soon as space will permit.

We are requested to announce that the Meeting advertised to take place to-morrow at the City Hall, on behalf of the Deaf and Dumb, is postponed until further notice.

A meeting will be held at the Charlottetown Reading Room to-morrow (Tuesday) at 8 o'clock, p. m., to discuss the advisability of having the Manufactures and Products of the Island represented at the International Exhibition of 1862.

The arrival in Halifax, on a brief Professional visit, of the well-known London Practitioner, Dr. LA'MERT, offers a rare opportunity to those seeking medical advice. Dr. LA'MERT'S standing in his Profession, in which he has attained the highest honours both Medical and Surgical, and the vast extent of his practice, afford, we need scarcely add, the best possible guarantees of a successful treatment. The duration of Dr. LA'MERT'S sojourn, as well as his place of residence, will be found in the Advertisement that appears in another part of our impression.

The following announcements appear in the Times:—"Philip Wodehouse, Esq., C. B late Governor of British Guiana, is to succeed Sir George Gray at the Cape of Good Hope; Francis Hincks, Esq., now Governor of Barbadoes, is to succeed Mr. Wodehouse in British Guiana; James Walker, Esq., now Secretary of Barbadoes, who has for some time temporarily administered several governments, is to succeed Mr. Hincks at Barbadoes; the Hon. Arthur Gordon, the youngest son of the late Eral of Aberdeen, is to succeed the Hon. Henry Manners Sutton in New Brunswick; Colonel Gore Browne, C. B., late Governor of New Zealand, is to succeed Sir Henry E. F. Young in Tasmania; Sir Dominic Daly, late Lieut. Governor of Prince Edward Island, is to succeed Sir Richard McDonald in South Australia.

The Great Eastern will go back to Canada, and with more troops. It is said to be the intention of the Government to purchase the vessel ultimately.—Leeds Mercury Correspondent.

GOLD—SPLENDID SPECIMEN FROM TANGIER.—We were shown this morning the nugget of gold taken from Messrs. Archibald, Brothers and Co's. claim at Tangier, some time last week. The vein from which it was taken is in what is termed the "Nigger Lead," and is about fourteen inches wide. We learn that many parties are doing very well at the mines. We heard of some taking out as much as forty dollars worth on Monday. Great dissatisfaction is expressed at the inefficiency of the crusher sent down; in consequence of which there is no means of telling yet how much the quartz will yeild.

THE DISTRESS IN SPITALFIELDS.—A large number of half-famished men and women of all ages have perambulated the streets at the east end of the metropolis, soliciting alms, one person in each group carrying a box in which the contributions are deposited, and similar boxes for subscriptions are placed in tradesmen's shops in the localities of Shoreditch, Spitalfields, and Bethnal-green. Despite the efforts of the parochial authorities and the benevolent inhabitants, the destitution of the poor weavers is greatly on the increase, several of the unfortunate persons who are deprived of work having been compelled to sell their few goods, and thus break up their homes to provide for their starving families.

The whole number of tailors in New York and vicinity is estimated at 40,000, the majority being Germans.

The Vicksburg Sun bespeaks a coat of tar and feathers for Russell, the London Times correspondent, should he ever go South again.

Out of 200,000 three months and three years men enlisted for the Union armies, ta least fifty thousand are of foreign birth, principally German and Irish.

A REAL HEROINE.—The following story is told in a letter from Naples:—A heroic exploit is told of a beautiful young woman in the village of Spinelli. The house of her uncle, a liberal priest, was invaded by some twenty brigand ruffians. One of the leaders was amusing himself stabbing the poor priest, who was old, when the girl rushed in, flung herself on him, snatched in an instant the brace of revolvers he had in his belt, and shot him dead. She ran through all the rooms, firing upon every brigand she found engaged in plundering the house. She shot down four of them. Alarmed at this unexpected attack, and not knowing what to make of it, the ruffians in the other room ran out. She, still pursuing them, succeeded, before they could get a knowledge of the enemy they had to encounter, in closing the front door against them. The brigands attempted to set fire to the house. From the balcony she put out an old musket belonging to her uncle, and fired upon them again, and then displaying from the window a tricolored flag, cried "Viva Garibaldi" with all her strength. The miscreant fired an ineffectual shot or two, and fairly ran for it. A few moments after, a captain of bersaglieri, who just came up, found the exhausted girl fainted upon the dead body of her uncle.

A CARD.

DR. HOMER begs to return his sincere thanks to the inhabitants of P. E. Island for the liberal patronage bestowed on him during his visit to this beautiful Island, and whilst hoping that he may have the pleasure of again visiting it at some future period, would intimate to his patients and those suffering from the afflictions of disease, that he intends lecturing in Georgetown on Tuesday, the 10th instant, and remaining during the days Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, in order to attend patients wishing to consult him. On leaving Georgetown he will remain at Mr. Adams's Hotel, the "Half-way House," during the day Friday, and at Mr. Stewart's Hotel, in Charlottetown, during the day Saturday.

Since his arrival in P. E. Island, Dr. Homer has met with unexampled succe , and has perfo med some almost miraculous cures. Those wishing to secure his services should attend immediately at those different localities, as he positively intends leaving the Island for Pictou, on Monday, 16th instant, his extensive practice and wonderful success having already protracted his stay to a much longer period than he at first intended.
