Barn, Henhouse Burn At Brooklyn

ALBERTON—A large barn caused roof fires to a vacant henhouse and barn about a quarter mile down wind but these were put out by the firemen without difficulty.

Four pigs, and about 40 hens were also lost in the blaze which is thought to have originated from a brush fire started Saturday evening.

A garage nearby was extensively damaged before the fire was extinguished by the Alberton fire department. Sparks from the burning buildings drifted toward Peter's Square Sunday.

AUDIENCE WITH POPE

VATICAN CITY (Reuters)—Pope Paul VI received King Baudouin and Queen Fabiola of Belgium in a half-hour audience Monday. The royal couple accompanied his coronation in Saint Peter's Square Sunday.

HALIFAX (CP)

The weather office says Monday evening variable cloud amounts had spread over the three Maritime provinces. This cloud, in advance of warmer weather, will prevail. Showers and a few thunderstorms should occur in the afternoon with the chance of a thunderstorm in the evening. Winds southwest 20 with afternoon gusts to 35.

Low-high at Sydney 53 and 75, Charlottetown 53 and 78, Halifax today at Charlottetown at 6:42 a.m. and 8:10 p.m. At Lunenburg at 2:38 a.m. and 3:35 p.m. Summerside today at Charlottetown Sun rises today at 4:33 and sets at 7:33.

CHINA PROTESTS

PEKING (Reuters)—Communist China has lodged a "strong protest" with India against the influx of the warmer air into the Maritimes today. During the day hours, therefore, all parts of the Maritimes except the southern coastal section, should become warmer and more humid. Fog will form and increase along the southern coastlines. Variable cloudiness will prevail. Showers and a few thunderstorms should occur in the afternoon with the chance of a thunderstorm in the evening. Winds southwest 20 with afternoon gusts to 35.

PEKING (Reuters)

South Africa Monday began policing its frontiers with the British protectorates of Swaziland, Basutoland and Bechuanaland. Barbed-wire fences and 24-hour patrols will aim at halting members of the militant African underground from escaping into the protectorates or entering South Africa.

PEKING (Reuters)

asked Mr. Hellyer in the Commons whether the minister considers a 25-kiloton bomb—the size of the bomb that devastated Hiroshima in the Second World War—is a "low-yield" one.

PEKING (Reuters)

replied Mr. Hellyer, who Thursday told the Commons defence committee that Canada is planning to be armed with low-yield atomic bombs.

Talent Cavalcade Held At Alberton

ALBERTON—A delightful program, indicative of the talent possessed by boys and girls of the area, was presented in Alberton W.I. Hall, Friday evening. The occasion was an amateur cavalcade sponsored by the local branch of the retired children's association.

The chairman, Rev. David MacDonald, also made a real contribution to the program by relating a number of humorous stories which kept the audience in a responsive mood.

Candy, contributed by ladies in some 12 school districts, was sold during the intermission. At this time a light fruit cake, kindly donated by the Western Hospital, was auctioned by J. W. D. Campbell. It was returned for resale by the first five purchasers who were Cecil Dennis, Robert E. Campbell, M.A. Rev. David MacDonald, J.W.D. Campbell and R.D. McKinnon. The final purchaser was Mrs. Frank Gallant.

At the close of the program Mr. McKinnon expressed appreciation to those who had generously donated prizes to participants in the cavalcade, teachers, parents, judges, and all others whose efforts had contributed to the success of the evening.

They were: piano solo—1. Barbara Matthews and Linda B'arbour (equal). 2. Debbie McCorue and Yvonne Barrett (equal); 2. Garth McKinnon.

Recitation or reading: 1. Barry Priddy; 2. Enid Froitt. Dialogues—1. Mill River School, 2. Montrose School.

Vocal duet or trio: 1. Frances O'Brien and Geraldine Shea; 2. Phyllis Auer and Cynthia Myers.

Solo dancing—1. Stephen Clemens.

Special selections included in the program were a square dance performed by eight small boys and girls under direction of Mrs. Arthur McEwen, solos by Mrs. Wallace Macdonald and step-dancing by Tommy Clemens.

Closing Held At Alberton Elementary

ALBERTON—Paula Foley received a special prize for having the best disposition of certificates and prizes were presented to students of all the high school grades.

Highest standing in grade 12 was David McNeill; 2. Marie O'Brien; Highest standing in senior commercial, William Murray.

Raja Gopal has announced that the old Lake (5 classroom) school will be closed on the grade 12 in the Maritime Board examinations and $20 to the student going on to university.

The address to the graduating class was given by Dr. A. H. Grant, of Summerside, a former principal of Alberton Regional High School, who recalled some happy memories of his two years in Alberton.

In addressing the graduates he said, "This is not an age of materialism and greed, but an age of stress on the importance of keeping high academic standards. Parents are told mothers and fathers that they now belong to that select few, the school of intellectuals."

Helen Dalton, was responded to by Mrs. Gopal. A toast to the teachers, proposed by Elaine Dalton, was in response to the Miss Evelyn Carpenter.

Present at the banquet were members of the graduating class, the commercial graduates, teachers, trustees and bus drivers.

Donna O'Brien was toastmaster. The toast to the Queen was proposed by Mr. Cain. A toast to the school, proposed by
