Return From Enjoyable Visit To Scotland

Mr. and Mrs. David Hutcheson arrived at their home in Montague Monday night after a two and a half months visit to their old home in Scotland.

On their arrival at Southampton, England, they were met by their son, Lewis, and Mrs. Hutcheson, and then motored to London.

In Scotland they remained with Mr. Hutcheson's mother, Mrs. L. Hutcheson. A family reunion took place with a brother, Lewis, home for the first time from Australia.

It has been twenty-three years since Mr. and Mrs. Hutcheson left their native land and after so long an absence were happy to see their homeland once more.

They arrived at Quebec from Southampton Sunday morning, and came to the Island by train, where they were met by their son Alex and Mrs. Hutcheson.
