Early Closing at Montague, Cardigan and Bridgetown.

The merchants of Montague, Cardigan and Bridgetown have agreed to close their stores all day on Dominion Day, and at 7.30 o'clock each evening during the month of July, Saturdays excepted.

THE PROBS.—Fresh to strong south and southwest winds; showery and foggy. Thursday: Fresh southwest and west winds; showers in morning, then clearing and warmer.

CAMP BRIGHTON.—All the officers and men of the 82nd Battalion and Companies 4 and 5 of the 4th Regt., G. A., have arrived at Camp Brighton. The eight companies of the 82nd Battalion are in camp, and together with the artillery bring the total strength up to between 450 and 500. The companies are very nearly all full. Sgt.-Instructor Sutherland is instructing the artillery, while the infantry is receiving instruction from Sergts. Beyers and Little, of the Royal Canadian Infantry. The camp buglers are being trained by Bugle-Instructor Torrance, R. C. R. The officers mess is under the charge of Messrs W. Pickard & Co.

Soldiers' pipe clay and blanco at Central Drug Store.

Advertisers, if you haven't yet arranged to have your advertisement in the P. E. Island Magazine for July, do so a once. It's going to be a good number and will have a circulation nearly half as big again as the usual number.
