

A Versatile Genius.
That excellent literary authority the Critic tells us that F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, is "a jack of all trades." He wanted to cross the ocean once and saved cabin passage by jumping aboard a small boat and sailing over. He wanted a house to live in, so he rolled up his sleeves and built one. Of course plumbing was necessary, so he escaped the expense and unpleasantness of a plumber's bill by doing the work himself. He desired silver statues for his drawing room and forthwith proceeded to carve them. He wanted shoes for his family, laid in a dozen or more lasts and a ton of leather and made the shoes himself. In view of all these things we wonder at the popularity of Mr. Crawford's books. The shipmasters must feel bitterly toward him, the silversmiths would be right in pronouncing a boycott against him, the shoe dealers must have it in for him, the architects and carpenters must regard him as an enemy and, last of all, the plumbers' union must have arrayed itself against him, and with reason. But we have always had faith in Mr. Crawford. We predicted great things for him at the beginning of his career. How handy a literary man like that must be about the house!—Atlanta Constitution.

orders of the digestion, and all weakness of the stomach. It makes the assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and rich with the life-giving elements of the food, the nerves strong and steady, and it drives all impurities and abnormal acids from the blood. It allays inflammation and dispels pain. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It does not make corpulent people more corpulent. Unlike cod liver oil, it does not build flabby flesh, but tears down the unhealthy, half-dead tissues that constitute corpulency, carries them away and excretes them, replacing them with the firm tissues of health. Thousands have testified to its merits. Sold at all medicine stores.

"I have been afflicted with rheumatism and kidney trouble," writes Mr. C. B. White, of Grove, Geauga Co., Ohio. "I suffered untold pain. I was afraid I would lose my mind. At times was almost entirely helpless. There had not been a night for three years that I could rest in any position. I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I used three bottles of it and an well of both diseases."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and there's nothing else "just as good."

If your children are well but not robust, they need Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil.

We are constantly in receipt of reports from parents who give their children the emulsion every fall for a month or two. It keeps them well and strong all winter. It prevents their taking cold.

Your doctor will confirm this.

The oil combined with the hypophosphites is a splendid food tonic.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

Made in Switzerland.

A departing friend once asked a little girl what she should bring her from the continent.
"Shall you go through Switzerland?" asked the child, whose imagination had been stirred by hearing how exhausted travelers lost in the snow are rescued by dogs and their keepers.
"Yes," answered the lady, expecting to be asked for some carved toy.
"Then bring me two monks and a St. Bernard dog," was the prompt and disconcerting reply.—Nuggets.

A Big Thing on Ice.

There was excitement in the crowd when pa put on his skates. For he hardly dared to speak aloud. He looked so brightly and so proud. But all much interest waned when pa put on his skates.

A lush fell on the nightly throng when pa stood on his skates. He was so cool, so nonchalant. No one could fear a contrempe. To see his graceful abandon when pa stood on his skates.

But, ah, me, what a fall was there when pa first tried to skate! With one wild swoop of fierce despair he sat down where there was no chair. And both his legs waved in the air when pa first tried to skate.

Then everybody looked away while pa took off his skates. The sun stopped shining for that day. The sky grew overcast and gray. For pa said things no man should say while he took off his skates.

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit
—They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium. Besides these excellent alternatives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, and Pipsissewa.

Nor are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.
