

Odds and Ends.

Few mortals are happy in this world unless they have somebody to boss. It is far pleasanter to the office boy to have a new boy placed under him than to have his salary raised.

"How pleasant it is to see husband and wife of one mind!" "It is indeed." There's the Robinsons, for example. She thinks there's nobody in the world like Robinson, and he thinks so too.

How to Rest.—Doctor.—So you're all run down! Feel generally debilitated; can't sleep, have no appetite; fever flushes, head aches and dizziness. I see. It's not a case for medicine. Patient (rightly) —What is it a case for, then? Doctor.—For rest. Patient.—But I've just been on my vacation! Doctor.—You needn't tell me that. Two weeks' active employment will rest you and make you all right. Nothing like getting back to work after a laborious vacation.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Additional prizes, consisting of Silver Tea Sets, China Dinner Sets, Gold Watches, French Music Boxes, Portier Curtains, Silk Dresses, Mantel Clocks, and many other useful and valuable articles will also be awarded in order of merit. A special prize of a Seal Skin Jacket to the lady, and a handsome Shetland Pony to the girl or boy (delivered free in Canada or United States), sending the largest lists. Everyone sending a list of not less than twenty words will receive a present. Send four 3c. stamps for complete rules, illustrated catalogue of prizes, and sample number of the Queen.

DYSPEPTICURE not only aids Digestion and cures Indigestion, but positively does cure the most serious and long standing cases of Chronic Dyspepsia.

DYSPEPTICURE BY MAIL. (Large size only). Dyspepticure will be sent by mail to those who cannot yet procure it in their own vicinity. Many letters have been received from distant parts of Canada and United States enquiring how Dyspepticure can be obtained; many letters have come from near places that either have no handy store or where the remedy is not yet well known. To meet these demands, and at the same time make Dyspepticure quickly known in places where, under ordinary circumstances, it might not reach for some considerable time, the large ($1.00) size will be sent by mail without any extra expense to the user. The Post Office is everywhere, so none who wish the remedy need be without it. Upon receipt of $1.00 by Registered Letter or Post Office Order, a large bottle of Dyspepticure (special mailing style) will be forwarded, postage prepaid, to any address.

CHARLES K. SHORT, St. John, N. B. Every Druggist and General Dealer in Canada should sell Dyspepticure, as it is strongly recommended from all directions.
