

THREE CLASSES.

Kidney Diseases may be divided into Three Groups.

Dodd's Kidney Pills equally Efficacious in all—All results from the same cause—All cured by the same Medicine.

HALIFAX, Jan 19.—A medical man of this city, speaking of the work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing, made the following statement:— "The term Kidney Disease, now embraces a far wider meaning than it did ten years ago." He said, "Ten years ago kidney disease meant the purely local ailment of the kidneys like Bright's Disease and Diabetes. The other kidney diseases which are now included in the term, were then considered separate distinct maladies, and separate distinct treatments were offered them.

"They all, however, come under the one head now-a-days, and the kidneys are treated as the foundation of the trouble in each case. Kidney disease may be divided into three distinct groups; first, the local trouble; second, the numerous maladies that result from the impurities left in the system by the kidneys; third, the affections of the urinary system caused by the failure of the kidneys to dissolve the gritty particles.

"In the first are Bright's Disease and Diabetes; in the second, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Bockache, Female Troubles and Blood Disorders, and in the third, Gravel, Stone, Inflammation of the Bladder, etc., in all of which Dodd's Kidney Pills are a specific."

The above statement explains why it is that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all the diseases mentioned. They are all forms of kidney disease and Dodd's Kidney Pills are infallible for disease of the kidneys.

American Heraldry.

A foreigner coming into England is amenable to the laws of honor of his own country and the authorities controlling them in that country so long as he retains his original nationality. Those foreign laws and the laws of armorial registration and control vary considerably, but there is one fundamental rule which is now and has been for some centuries admitted practically from one end of Europe to the other. With countries outside Europe one need not trouble. American heraldry is beneath contempt (I do not refer to the army of American soldiers of English families), and the barbarousness of semicivilized countries, though the origin of our own heraldry is hardly sufficiently evolved to be considered as armory. The one fundamental European rule is this—that arms are a matter of honor and that the conferring of honor and honors is a prerogative of sovereignty.—Notes and Queries.

His Style.

"I have been considering your application for an editorial position," said the managing editor, "and I sent for you today that I might get some idea of your style."

"Just so," replied the bright young man. "Well, you will observe, I am wearing a blue suit, plain, but well cut, and a brown soft hat; quite the proper thing for this time of the year. Will I do?"

In Cuba.

In Cuba the kitchens are always on the roof or in the courtyards back of the house. Only twice a day does the Cuban housewife or servant prepare meals—at 10 o'clock, when she enters the kitchen to make ready 11 o'clock breakfast, and at 6 o'clock to cook the dinner, which is served at 8.

Those Loving Girls.

Tody—Jennie tells me young Woodby proposed to her last night.

Viola—I don't think I know him. Is he well off?

Effect of Opulence.

When a man gets beyond wondering where his next meal is coming from, he fails to wondering who his ancestors were.

Neuralgia

is Rheumatism of the face. Uric Acid left in the blood by disordered kidneys lodges along the nerve which branches from the eye over the forehead, and across the cheek to the side of the nose. The cause is the same as in all Rheumatism—disordered Kidneys. The cure is likewise the same—

Most Miraculous Heart Cure

Mr. Thos. Cooke, of Kingston, After Suffering Intensest Pain and Distress of the Heart for Seven Years--is Cured almost Miraculously by

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart--A Remedy Which Saves Lives Every-day that Have Been Proclaimed

By Physicians Beyond Human Aid--it is a powerful harmless Heart Specific and can Work Wonders in Half-an-Hour.

Kingston, April 26, 1899.—Mr. Thos. Cooke, 260 Johnston Street, Kingston, tells this wonderful story of his sickness from heart disease, and what he considers his almost miraculous recovery by the aid of that good angel of modern medical science—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. He says: I suffered seven years from a very acute form of heart disease. I experienced great weakness; had smothering sensations; palpitation so badly that one in the same room could hear the heart thumps. I had great nervousness and depression at times, suffered excruciating shooting pains. Could not stand the slightest exertion or excitement. I tried many remedies recommended to me, and consulted best physicians on my ailment and nobody gave me any hope of permanent recovery. But one day I read of a cure by this wonderful remedy which seemed just to be my own case repeated. I got a trial bottle and derived great benefit from it. I concluded to continue as it promised a complete and permanent cure, and when I had used six bottles not a vestige of the trouble remained, and although that is a year and a half ago there has never been the slightest symptom of a return of the trouble."

You can readily verify this or any other testimony of the curative powers of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, for the commendations for it come spontaneously and unsolicited, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred are given out of the "fulness of heart" in being snatched from the snare of so distressing an ailment as heart disease in any form.

If modern medical science has given to the world a remedy—a cure—that thousands used and have tested the curative powers of after having suffered for years, and had been pronounced hopeless case—if, as a last resort, even it has proved such a boon, what an amount of suffering would be spared if when the slightest uneasiness of the heart is experienced, Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart were used? It has never failed to do what it promises. It gives relief in the most acute forms of the disease in less than 30 minutes. It not only stimulates a healthy heart action, but it heals the diseased organs, gives vitality, tones the whole system, and it's not claiming too much to say "IT MOST WORKS MIRACLES."

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder relieves cold in the head in ten minutes—it will cure the most acute and disgusting forms of Catarrh, no matter how long standing.

Dr. Agnew's Ointment acts like magic on Itching, Irritating skin troubles, such as Eczema, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, and will cure piles in from 3 to 5 nights—35c

Dr. Agnew's little pills for Constipation, Sick Headache and Bliousness—20 cts for 40 doses.

A Raise in Salary.

Some years ago Collis P. Huntington's private secretary, Mr. Miles, asked for an increase of salary.

"Do you need any more money?" asked Mr. Huntington thoughtfully.

"No, sir, I don't exactly need it," replied Mr. Miles, "but, still, I'd be glad to be getting a little more."

"Ah—hum—m—m," mused his employer. "Can you get along without the advance for the present?"

"Oh, yes," answered the secretary. "I guess so," and the matter was dropped.

A couple of years later a new boy appeared at the Miles home, and the secretary thought the time propitious to renew the application. "Why, my dear sir," said Mr. Huntington when he heard him through, "I raised your salary when you asked me before."

"I never heard anything about it," said the secretary in amazement.

"Probably not," returned Mr. Huntington. "In fact, I used that money to buy a piece of property for you. I'd just let it stand for awhile if I were you."

Mr. Miles thanked him warmly and retired somewhat mystified. Shortly after Mr. Huntington called him into his private office. "By the way, Miles," he said, "I have sold that real estate of yours at a pretty good advance. Here is the check."

The amount was $50,000. The property was part of a large section purchased by the railway king as an investment for his wife.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Took the Tip.

The good advice of the laird of Waterton, in Aberdeenshire, to a sheep stealer reads like a very practical joke. He had himself sent the man to jail, and in those days sheep stealing was a capital offense. Visiting the prisoner the night before the trial, he asked him what he meant to do. To which the prisoner replied that he intended to confess and to pray for mercy. "Confess!" said Waterton. "What, man, will ye confess and be hanged? Nae, nae! Deny it to my face." He did so and was acquitted.

Genuine Courtesy.

Surface manners are like cut flowers stuck in a shallow glass with just enough water to keep them fresh an hour or so; but the courtesy that has its growth in the heart is like the rose-bush in the garden that no inclement season can kill and no dark day fore to forego the unfolding of a bud.

The Vaudeville Theater.

Sometimes the vaudeville theater is an individual and independent enterprise; more often it belongs to a circuit. The patronage, expenses and receipts are enormous. One circuit will speak for all. It has a theater in New York, one in Philadelphia, one in Boston, and one in Providence, and they give no Sunday performances, and yet these four theaters entertain over 5,000,000 people every year, give employment to 350 attaches and to 3,500 actors.

Four thousand people pass in and out of each one of these theaters daily. Ten thousand dollars are distributed each week in salaries to the actors and $3,500 to the attaches. Take one theater for example, the house in Boston. It is open the year round, and it costs $7,000 a week to keep it open, while its patrons will average 25,000 every week. On a holiday it will pay to from 10,000 to 12,000 people.—From "The Vaudeville Theater," by Edwin Milton Royle, in Scribner's.

The Elder Booth's Beautiful Reading.

I never heard any one read just like the elder Booth. It was beautiful. He made the figure stand before you! It was infinitely tender. Some of the passages of "Lear" were touching in the extreme, though he used Cibber's frightfully bad edition of that sublime tragedy.

He had some very odd ways at times. We were playing "Hamlet" one night in Natchez, and during Ophelia's mad scene a cock began to crow lustily. When the curtain fell upon that fourth act, this crowing became more constant. And when the manager could not find Mr. Booth to commence the next act he looked up and saw him perched on the top of the ladder, which was the only way to reach the "flies" in that primitive theater.

The manager ascended the ladder and had quite a lengthy discussion with Mr. Booth, who at last consented to come down on condition that he should resume his high position after the play and remain there until Jackson was re-elected president.—"Autobiographical Sketches of Mrs. John Drew," in Scribner's.
