Hello! Brother RAT!!—
 No, we're not insulting you—it's this way. When Shirt meet Flirt at West Point, it's "Howdy, Cadet!" When Frail meets Male at Annapolis, it's "Ahoy Middle!" We're not just sure what it is in Charlottetown, but when Old meets Guy at V. M. L. it's "Hiya"

ISLANDER PASSES—Mrs. George Green of Kingston has received word of the death in the hospital at Edmonton, Alberta, on June 13th of her uncle Mr. William Pridham Colwill, aged 97 years. For many years Mr. Colwill was a resident in the prominent of Charlottetown, having a crockery store on Sunnyside which will be remembered by many citizens. Mr. Colwill was greatly revered, left behind the west about 33 years ago and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Victor B. Howard of Edmonton, and Mrs. W. H. Ball of Bremner, near whom he made his home for the last 20 years, following the death of his wife. Three sons also survive, Charles and George of Lavo, and Pridham of Edmonton.

NICHOLSON MEMORIAL PROPOSED—The following item which speaks for itself has been received from George M. Nicholson, formerly of Charlottetown, but now residing at five Sherbrooke Place, Lynn, Mass. A memorial is to be erected on the site of Scotland House, Isle of Skye, Scotland; home of the Nicholson Chief and headquarters of the clan for over eight centuries. Any Nicholson, Nicholson, according to the spelling of the name, descendants of the Skye Nicolson by birth or marriage, if interested can help by sending donations, no matter how small, to Dr. Ian Nicholson, 74 Trinity Road, Edinburgh 5, Scotland. Doctor Nicholson served in the medical department as surgeon, in the battleship fleet of the British Navy during the World War. At present he is Assistant Professor of Anatomy at the University of Edinburgh, and is cataloguing and re-arranging the University anatomical museum. It is hoped all members of the clan will rally to the support of the memorial, as our ancestors had the support of the clan in the historical past.

Celebrates His First Solemn High Mass
 The newly ordained priest, Reverend Edward Baldwin, C. S. R., celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in St. Teresa's Church on Sunday, June 26th. He was attended by Rev. L. Howard, C. S. R., Holy Redeemer Church, Charlottetown, as deacon and by Rev. Raymond McKenzie, St. Lunsitan's College as sub-deacon. The pastor, Rev. Basil Croken was Master of Ceremonies. A very able sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Father Howard, C. S. R. in his discourse he eloquently impressed upon the congregation why the day was a day of joy. He congratulated the young priest for co-operating with God's grace and accepting a life of service in the Lord's Vineyard. He also congratulated his parents, the pastor and the people of the parish in giving the new priest to the church. After the service Father Baldwin, C. S. R. was presented with a beautiful Longine wrist watch and following address was read, to which Father Baldwin replied in very choice words.

 Reverend Father Edward Baldwin, C. S. R. Reverend Father:
 In the ceaseless passing of time, we mortal creatures of destiny are brought face to face with events that mark certain periods in the history of our lives. Thus it is today that we experience a most glorious epoch in the history of St. Teresa's Parish. Only this event has been expected, although quite a few years have elapsed in which we should have been prepared to realize it, still we are brought today to the actual realization that one of our boys has been called to minister at the altar, ordained a Priest of God.
 The position that you now hold, dear Father, is one of high spiritual perfection and social honour. It brings to our minds that for any person, such a position can only be obtained by prayer, frequent reception of the sacraments, and a very potent desire to succeed.
 As we assisted today at your First Solemn Mass, we can't help but think that you have brought great honor not only to yourself but also to your family and to your parish. In this you should rejoice with us, that you were born of good Christian parents whose first ambition was the proper training of their children. It was in your home that the first indication of a religious vocation was fostered and protected. When you entered St. Dunstan's College and finally St. Alphonse Seminary the prayers of your devoted parents assisted in your preparation for the manifold duties of the exalted office to which you have been elevated.
 The parishoners also rejoice in your ordination. Historically speaking this parish was established over seventy years ago. And already many of its sons and daughters have sacrificed their lives to work in the Lord's Vineyard, but you are the first member of a religious order to be ordained a priest, who lived within its confines. Is it any wonder therefore that the celebration of your First Solemn Mass May 1, 1939.
