Toronto Stocks

TORONTO (CP) — Weak base metals led the stock market lower in light trading today, but losses were mostly small. Final volume was 1,735,000 shares. Noranda, affected by continuing uncertainty over tariffs on base metals entering the United States, dropped $3. Other senior base metal losers were Consolidated Smelters, Hudson Bay, and Quetton. Cassiar, in Juniors, lost 15 cents.

Losses in western oils outnumbered gains more than two to one, but most losses were in pennies. Husky, up 25 cents at midday, finished with a 10-cent gain.

Mainotwage issues were steady, with Consolidated Howey and Consolidated Mosher registering two-cent gains. Bathurst issuer and uranium firms were slightly weaker.
