Hamilton Downs Ottawa Club 23-1

HAMILTON (CP)—Hamilton Tiger - Cats exploded for 20 points in the second half to crush Ottawa Rough Riders 23-1 Monday before 27,151 fans and climb back into a first - place tie with Ottawa with only three games remaining for each in the Eastern Football Conference schedule.

The Ticats, held to three points in the first half on Don Sutherin's conference - equalling 12th field goal of the season, started their juggernaut attack early in the third quarter and there was never any doubt.

Tommy Grant, Hal Patterson and Willie Bethea took touchdown passes for the touchdowns. Sutherin converted two.

Ottawa's lone point came midway through the third quarter when Hamilton safety Garney Henley conceded a wide field goal attempt by Ottawa's Moe Racine.

Tempers were frayed through much of the game and as the gun sounded to end the game, Hamilton's Ellison Kelly and John Kenerson of the Riders, two of the beefier men on the field, began trading punches at midfield.

Although there was shoving among the players, cooler heads prevailed and the centre of attention turned to rival coaches Ralph Sazio of Hamilton and Frank Clair of Ottawa, who started exchanging words among the combatants.

The play followed a roughing call against Hamilton by Referee Paul Dojack and might have prolonged the game had not Ottawa declined with play deep in their own end.

Hamilton entered the scoring column early when Henley intercepted a Russ Jackson pass on the first play of the game at Ottawa's 45.

Five plays later, Sutherin kicked his field goal from the Ottawa 15. The field goal was his 12th of the season, tying him with Racine for the most field goals in a single season in the Eastern Conference.

Tim McCarver's Home Run Gives Cardinals 3-2 Edge

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Tim McCarver's three - run homer in the 10th inning and Bob Gibson's 13 - strikeout pitching moved the underdog St. Louis Cardinals within one victory of the world championship Monday on a 5-2 triumph over the New York Yankees in the fifth game.

Gibson set a Card club strikeout record, beating Mort Cooper's old mark of 12 in 1944 against the St. Louis Browns, and fell only two short of the record of 15 Yankees set in the 1963 opener by Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

With two out and a man on in the ninth inning, Gibson appeared assured of a shutout. But Tom Tresh hammered his first pitch into the right field bleachers, about 430 feet distant, for a home run that tied the score.

The rangy right-hander from Omaha, hit hard in the second game, bounced back with a spectacular effort that left the proud Yankees hanging on the ropes.

One more victory in the Series to be resumed Wednesday at Busch Stadium would give the Cardinals the winner's share of about $8,800 for their first World Series since 1946. Tuesday is an off day for travel.

WENT SCORELESS

The Yanks had gone scoreless for 17 1-3 innings, 8 2-3 Sunday and another 8 2-3 Monday, before Tresh's homer broke the string of goose eggs. An error by Dick Groat on Mickey Mantle's grounder had preceded Tom's long distance blow.

But the fighting Cardinals struck right back against Pete Mikkelsen with a rally that was climaxed by McCarver's homer into the lower stands in right field. It was the third hit of the day for the 23-year-old Cardinal catcher, who leads all the series hitters with a .471 average.

Bill White fouled off half a dozen before he drew a walk to open the St. Louis 10th. Ken Boyer pushed a bunt to the right of the mound and Mikkelsen neglected to go after it. The ball rolled dead before anybody else could get to it and it went for a scratch single.

With Groat at bat, Elston Howard threw to second, trapping White off base. But the alert St. Louis first baseman dashed for third and slid in safely with a stolen base when Phil Linz's hurried throw was too late Pedro Gonzalez, playing third, was unable to hold the ball as White collided with him.

Groat grounded to Gonzalez who threw slowly to second for a force of Boyer with no attempt at the double play because White represented the winning run on third base.

WORKED ON McCARVER

Mikkelsen worked carefully on McCarver, taking the count to 3-2 on the left-handed batter, before he came in with the pitch that meant the ball game. Mickey Mantle in right field moved back to the barrier and then watched helplessly as the ball sailed into the crowd.

The crowd of 65,633 cheered for Gibson as he marched along getting better the longer he pitched.

The flame - throwing pitcher worked just the opposite from his pace in his previous start, pacing himself for a strong drive down the stretch. He fanned only three in the first three innings but picked up with six in the next three and finished with a flourish.

Kenny Boyer, leaned into the box seats behind the Cardinal dugout to snare Maris' pop foul for the last out while the Cards thumped Gibson and McCarver on the back in a victorious parade to the clubhouse.

Gibson was not just a pitcher this fine warm, October afternoon. He dropped a single into short left and scored the first of two Cardinal runs in the fifth inning. Until Tresh struck his blow, the second run seemed superfluous.

DASHED OFF MOUND

In the ninth inning, just before Tresh connected, Gibson dashed off the mound and made a sensational play to nip Joe Pepitone at first base.

Pepitone's liner bounced off the pitcher's leg and rolled almost to the base line with Gibson in hot pursuit. The long throw to first just barely got Pepitone, who joined with Manager Yogi Berra and coach Jim Gleeson in a bitter protest to umpire Al Smith.

Shoddy play by the Yanks, who have been guilty of seven errors in the first five games, cost them dearly in the fifth inning.

With one out, Gibson blooped a fly ball in front of the dashing Tresh for a base hit Tresh got his glove on it in a diving try but couldn't hold the ball.

Curt Flood then hammered a ground ball at Bobby Richardson and the usually reliable second baseman fumbled it. Both men were safe. From the press box, it seemed it was a potential double play ball but at least one man would have been retired.

CAME UP WITH SINGLE

Lou Brock then came through with a single to right field and Gibson, who had stumbled and fallen on all fours after rounding first on his own single, came rolling home.

White's bouncer to Richardson forced Brock to second but the relay to first did not quite get White to complete a double play. The Yanks, led by Pepitone, danced in rage at the call on the play. Flood scored from third with the second run.

This was a day of days for Gibson, a 28-year-old 19-game winner in regular season who had lost in the second game to Mel Stottlemyre, who opposed him again Monday.

Stottlemyre pitched well enough, allowing only six hits and two runs in seven innings before he left for a pinch hitter.

"We had to bounce right back in the 10th," said Johnny Keane the Cardinal manager. "Because the Yanks were up off the floor in the ninth.

"Every game is a big game but this was bound to be a big one for us."

Keane said he would pitch Curt Simmons, an 18-game winner, who started Saturday's game in Yankee Stadium. That game was lost on Mickey Mantle's home run on relief man Barney Schultz's first pitch.

Drugmen Capture Ch'ship

SUMMERSIDE — Living up to his earlier prediction that they would be the Maritime Senior B, softball champions, Ulrice Gallant's Enman Drug squad became so, here on Saturday.

The Summerside team walloped Glace Bay Parkside 10-4, the team they had to beat for the crown

By doing so they knocked them off in the best of three set in two straight games Enman Drug, as a result of winning the Maritime honor breezed through their playoffs in six consecutive games, beginning in Charlottetown.

Enman Drug, in fact had little trouble in winning the deciding game. Glace Bay literally gave the game way, committing a horrendous 11 errors.

Lou White went the distance for the win and recarded two strikeouts. He allowed eight hits, one of the them a two run homer by pitcher Fred Adshade. He also whacked a single.

Scoring three times in the third, Enman Drug took the lead and were never serously threatened. They scored four more runs in the fourth after as Adshades homer. added a single tally in the seventh and a pair in the eight.

Glace Bay scored their third and fourth runs in the fifth inning. Losing pitcher as Adshade struck out four and allowed 10 hits.

Speedy John MacLaren led the Enman Drug offensive with two doubles and a triple followed closely by 'Spider' Crawford's two singles and White double and single.

Rangers Down Bruins In Penalty Filled Game

BOSTON (AP) — Scrambling New York beat Boston 6-2 in the National Hockey League's season opener Monday night when Vic Hadfield played the go-ahead goal off his body. The Rangers then riddled the disorganized Bruins for four scores in the runaway third period of the penalty - filled rout.

Less than a minute after Boston tied the contest in the middle period, rookie Arnie Brown's shot from the left side caromed off Hadfield and into the left side of the net. Hadfield was credited with the goal and the Rangers never were in trouble thereafter.

A Boston Garden capacity crowd of 13,090 saw that the league fathers weren't kidding when they told officials to call penalties more closely.

There were 20 minors and a 10 - minute misconduct called with only one punch being landed. At 12:13 of the finale, Ranger Dick Duff and Bruin Gary Dornhoefer went to the penalty box for roughing.

Down the stretch in the third period, Bob Nevin deflected rookie Rod Seiling's shot at 6:27. Then at 7:21, Duff connected and the game was out of reach.

Bruins' rookie Ron Schock got one back at 10:27 but it was only 26 seconds before Camille Henry had restored the three-goal bulge.

The Rangers, beaten three times and outscored 17-4 in preseason exhibitions, got the job done without ace centre Phil Goyette. He went to the dressing room with a fever after taking one turn on the ice at the start of the game.

Summerside Nine Captures Crown

SUMMERSIDE — When Paul MacWilliams is right it is generally a foregone conclusion that the opposition have a slim chance of winning.

Yesterday, the strong armed right hander hurled a seven-hit, 2-0 shutout in conquest of Halifax's Junior Vivas that gave the Summerside Legionaires the Maritime Junior Baseball title. The game was sudden death and it was played here beginning in the morning. The single game was orginally set for Londonderry, N.S., Saturday, but the rains came causing a cancellation and the rematch.

The Summerside hurler had to win the hard way. MacWilliams was given only a single run to work with for most of the game because his teammates coundn't mount any threat against the Halifax hurler. Dave Duffy and Jerry MacAliser gave with two singles apiece gave MacWilliams the most trouble.

But then, in the eighth inning, Alan Gaudet scored for Summerside on an error following a double play with the bases having been loaded on three straight singles. Summerside scored a earlier run in the fourth, when George MacNeill singled home Don Gunning.

Halifax stayed alive in the ninth when, after the first two baters fanned, MacAlister singled and stole second. The next batter, John Elder walked. But the lead runner was picked off ending it. It was on of several such plays made in the game.

For Summerside it was a dramatic victory. They were nearly knocked out of the Maritime playoff trail on their native soil. Having lost the opening game to the Eastern Centennial All-Stars, the Legionaires struck back, winning the next two and the best of three Island finals before meeing Halifax.
