

Bay Literature.

The English are famous betters. A French paper (the French are always poking fun at John Bull) gives the following singular bet at Brighton between Sir John and Lord Ch...

When the giant and pigmy met the latter said: "Now, my Lord, I am ready. Take off your clothes."

"What! strip myself? You don't mean it?"

"I bet to carry you, but not a particle of your clothes. Come, let's proceed. It won't do to disappoint these ladies and gentlemen."

But my Lord was inflexible. He blushed at the bare thought of showing himself in the thin costume of Venus emerging from the waves. So the referee decided that Sir John had won the bet.

Pat went to the house of the priest to confess his sins, and passed into the kitchen to ask for the holy father, but perceiving that there was no one in the room, while a fine ham was lying on the table fresh from market, Pat lost no time in securing the prize. Hiding it as well as he could under his coat, he proceeded to the apartment of the priest, and said: "Here, your reverence, is a fine leg of bacon which I stole and brought as a present to your holiness. Will you take it?"

"Take it!" said the confessor, "by no means. Carry it back instantly."

"Faith an' I did, Sir, and he said he wouldn't take it, by no means."

"Very well then, Patrick, you may keep it."

"An' I'll be absolved, your reverence?" demanded Pat.

"Yes, it is yours, if the owner will not take it back."

"Good morning; God bless ye; long life to your reverence."

MARRY.—If you are for pleasure marry; if you prize rosy health marry. A good wife is heaven's best gift to man—his angel and minister of graces innumerable—his gem of many virtues—his casket of jewels—her voice is sweet music—her smiles his brightest day—her kisses the guardian of his innocence—her arms the pale of his safety, the balm of his health, the balsam of his life—her industry his surest wealth—her economy, his safest steward—her lips his faithful counsellors—her bosom the softest pillow of his cares, and her prayers the ablest advocates of heaven's blessings on his head.

Corners have always been popular. The chimney-corner for instance, is endeared to the heart from the earliest to the latest hour of existence. The corner cupboard, what sweet stores of things it has contained for us, in our youth—bread and manhood! A snug corner in a will, who ever objected to such a thing? A corner in a woman's heart—once get there, and you may soon command the entire domain. A corner in the Temple of Fame—arrive at that and you become immortal.

NOT MUCH DIFFERENCE.—A certain Judge was once obliged to sleep with an Irishman in a crowded hotel, when the following conversation ensued: "Pat, you would have remained a long time in the old country before you could have slept with a Judge, would you not?"

"Yes, yer honor," said Pat; "and I think yer honor would have been a long time in the old country before ye'd been a Judge, too?"

A waggish journalist, who is often merry over his personal plainness, tells this story of himself: "I went to a drug-store early the other morning for a dose of morphine for a sick friend. The night clerk objected to giving it to me without a prescription, evidently fearing that I meant to destroy myself. 'Pshaw!' said I, 'do I look like a man who would kill himself?' Gazing at me steadily for half a minute, he replied, 'I don't know. Seems to me if I looked like you, I should be greatly tempted to kill myself.'"

A little girl of three years was saying her prayers, not long since, when her brother, about your years old, came behind and pulled her hair. "With her head, she paused and said, 'Lord, excuse me a minute I had an evening when I was present at an appointment exceedingly interesting about which I had written myself."

AXIOMS FOR FARMERS.

Expense is the moth that eats away earnings. They are like cats and mice, or other vermin, in your granary. They consume your hard earnings invisibly, and all you know is that they are gone. Scrutinize well, then, every expenditure, and weigh its necessity. Thought costs nothing, and hence it is not expensive to think, and thinking to advantage, saves many a dollar, and brings you many many more to your pocket.

Pick up—hang up.—Your land is your best friend—treat it well.

Pick up—hang up.—Your extremities are your heart—let it be active.

Pick up—hang up.—Knowledge is a good land-dresser.

Pick up—hang up.—Care, a good granary.

Pick up—hang up.—Carelessness, a rat-hole.

Pick up—hang up.—Daybreak's dews, farmer's diamonds.

Pick up—hang up.—Sow when you should—reap when you can.

Pick up—hang up.—Go away slow—come back quick.

Pick up—hang up.—Quick market—empty fields.

Pick up—hang up.—Good master—good horse.

Pick up—hang up.—Much care—much money.

Instead, as is generally the case, of selling the best fillies, the best male colts, the best bull calves, or the best heifers, keep the best to breed from and sell the poorest. If the stock-grower wishes to make the most money, he will accomplish his end in this way. If he fails to do this, he will find in a few years that instead of having good stock all the while to sell, he will fall back on a very poor grade of stock, or at best he will have the poorest of his kind. The first great principle, then, is to look at every field, animal and tree upon your farm, and see to it that they earn their living by increase. Crowd on to every single thing all your energies to make them work to advantage for you, and never take a business step that does not point in this direction. The great principle, in raising or growing, is to select such grains, fruits, or animals, as will produce the greatest value, with the least expenditure of labor.

DR. WINLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN'S TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation. We speak in this manner "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhoea in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None Genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal office, No. 48 Dey Street, N. Y. Price, only 35 Cents per Bottle.

New Triumphs of Roger's Medicines.

Run your eye over them and tell your officed neighbour about it.

West Branch, East River, Octon, Sep. 11, '64 MESSRS. ROGERS & Co.:

Gentlemen—For the sake of those who are suffering with Scrofula (King's Evil), I wish you to publish the following facts: About eight years ago, a swelling appeared under my chin; in a short time it ulcerated, and became a running sore, and extended across my neck from ear to ear. The bone became affected and several pieces came out from time to time. The smell from the parts affected became very offensive so much so that I had to retire by myself as dress them. I tried the best doctors in the country, and many in the United States, but all to no purpose. I also tried various patent medicines, including Kennedy's Discovery, which I used for two years, but it did me no good. Under your treatment my general health which was very much impaired is completely restored, and the Scrofula my neck is entirely healed up. I am a southerner now, thanks to Providence for his goodness. Let no one who reads this doubt its truth. Hundreds know my case, THOMAS CHISHOLM
