Wesleys Down But Not Out Says Coach

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, April 12.—The Western challenge for the Memorial Cup and the junior hockey championship of Canada is still very much alive. That was the word from Coach Hobbs Wilson of Saskatoon Wesleys today as his team awaited the second clash against West Toronto Nationals.

Nationals can win the championship with another victory Monday night but the Westerners were confident the series would be extended to three games. The Toronto squad, Eastern Canada champions, won by 5-1 in the first game Friday night.

“You saw how close our gangling attacks came in the third period of Friday's game,” Wilson said. “Well, the boys will have their shooting eyes on tomorrow and goals will be the result.”

There was lots of ground for the Western coach's optimism. Wesleys, lacking the inside polish of the Nationals, showed a powerful gangling attack in the third period that just failed to click time and again.

No injuries were reported in the camp of the Westerners. They rested in their hotel rooms today, quietly confident they could bring the coveted cup to Saskatchewan.

On the other side of the picture, manager Harold Ballard of Nationals predicted the windup of the series tomorrow night. “If the team plays back to its form of the other night, we can't miss,” Ballard said.

Jack Adams Realizes Ambition

By A. E. Fulford, Canadian Press Staff Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, April 12.—A life's ambition realized, Jack Adams tucked a still-moist Stanley Cup under one arm today and pointed his world champion Detroit Red Wings back to Detroit with the other.

They turned from one slightly riotous celebration of their victory over Toronto Maple Leafs to another in Detroit that may outshine the victory party they staged Saturday night. It will have to be good if it does.

Deliriously happy at bringing Detroit its first Stanley Cup and still somewhat dazed with it all, Wings posed for pictures singly, in groups, dressed and partly nude and then managed to dress despite the scores of friends who broke into their dressing room.

After they got out of there they continued the celebration at their hotel where James Norris, club president, received the cup from President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League and filled it with champagne. Even Adams, who has never taken a drink, pressed his lips to the old trophy.

Adams couldn't say anything but “nice going boys” for some minutes after the game ended but he calmed down enough later to reveal that managing a Stanley Cup team has been his ambition ever since he entered the game.

Dizzy Dean Capitulates; Will Win 50

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ST. LOUIS, April 12.—Dizzy Dean, who threatened to establish a new precedent by declining to pitch how many games the brothers Dean would win this year, capitulated today and settled on “50 or thereabouts.”

“I'll win between 20 and 30” Dizzy modestly admitted. “Paul? Oh, I think he'll have a better year than he has had so far in the majors.”

In another pre-season statement Dizzy analyzed St. Louis Cardinals into first place in the National ball league.

CURATE'S WIFE WINS AINTREE, England.—(C. P.)—Mrs. Everard Roys, wife of the curate of Heysham Church, saw her horse Pink Coat win the Lancashire Turf Race at 20-1 but the odds didn't matter as none of the family had a penny on it. The first money was about $2,000, however.

CAN TELL THEM APART LONDON.—(C. P.)—Although Arsenal kicked away red shirts and Sheffield United red and white it is not thought necessary, for distinguishing purposes, to change colors of either team for the English Soccer Cup final April 26 at Wembley Stadium.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) RICHMOND, Va., April 12.—Jimmie Thomson, Shawnee-on-the-Hill, Delaware pro who learned to play golf here 10 years ago, returned to win the $3,000 Richmond open Saturday with a subpar 285.

Second in a field which included some of golfing's best performers was Ray Mungrum, Los Angeles, with 289.

A three-way deadlock resulted for third position when the two veteran Chicago campaigners, Harry Cooper and Frank Waish, and Richmond's Bobby Cruikshank finished with 290's.

Horizon Smith, Springfield, Mo., who came here after a brilliant finish at Augusta to capture the national invitation tournament, was plagued with misfortune in the final round and carded a 291.

American Association Opens Season

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, April 12.—Kansas City Blues and Indianapolis Indians furnished the fireworks today as the American Association opened its 35th season before more than 36,000 fans.

Kansas City and Indianapolis battled 13 innings to a 2-2 tie, the thrill-packed contest being called because of the Indianapolis six p.m. closing law. A crowd of 9,159 saw Kansas City collect 12 hits and Indianapolis 10.

Minneapolis Millers, champions last season, trounced Toledo Mudhens 3-1 before 9,160 spectators, Toledo getting its tally on a home run by Harry Davis, first baseman.

Burling Grimes' debut as an Association pitcher was successful as his Louisville Colonels beat Milwaukee Brewers 6-1 before 10,560 fans.

Columbus trimmed St. Paul 4-2 before 7,500 fans, Bob Klinger granting nine hits but being good in the pinches for the Red Birds.

Easter Services At Summerside

conjured up the breathless suspense with which one watches a test of the thing he holds most dear; as when the family doctor tells the anxiously waiting loved ones that everything hinges upon one contingency; or as when the judge charges the jury that the fate of the prisoner at the bar hinges upon one thing, and all else is irrelevant. It is here that Paul's thinking is most audacious. He stakes everything on the resurrection of Christ and is satisfied to let everything go if that does not hold.

The strength of a chain is the weakest link in our christian faith is our belief in the resurrection of Christ, inasmuch as it cannot be as thoroughly reinforced with logical arguments as can other doctrines in our creed. Yet, for all that, Paul not only calls attention to it, but invites as thorough a test as man knows how to apply, expressing himself as willing to abandon all if this does not hold.

The centuries have taken Paul's challenge and applied their tests. They have applied historical tests, only to discover that the resurrection of Jesus is as secure of its place in history as any other great fact, and further, that the history of the last two thousand years would be largely unintelligible apart from it. They have applied their intellectual tests, only to discover that if this seemingly incredible thing is impossible then almost all else that has meaning and value cannot be accounted for.

They have applied their spiritual tests, only to discover that a self-propagating faith, valid everywhere and for all conditions of life, draws from the resurrection of Christ as its source, and always has. There is no better proof of the resurrection of Christ, and none other that men should need, than that He is living and working in His own people, to bestow upon all mankind the riches of His grace.

The music at the morning service included a soprano solo, “I Know That My Redeemer Liveth” (Messiah), by Miss Alice Coffin, and an anthem by the choir, “The Risen King,” Schaecker.

In the evening the music included “I Know That My Redeemer Liveth,” by the male quartette, Rev. L. E. G. Davies, Messrs. John S. Wright, T. W. Bentley and W. H. Slackford, Miss Helen Davies taking the soprano obligato; a tenor and baritone duet, “Take Up Thy Cross,” Akeley, Messrs. George Bowness and Albert Huestis; also two anthems by the choir, “We Declare Unto You Glad Tidings,” soloist, Miss Alice Coffin, and “Awake Thou That Sleepest,” Simper.

The flowers were very beautiful.

Summerside United Baptist Church

The services in the Baptist church were largely attended, both morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Wilson preached both sermons. The Easter music and the Easter messages at both services were impressive and inspiring. The subject of the morning sermon was the “Power of Easter,” based on the words of the risen Lord, “Because I live, ye too shall live.”

The “Ageless Quest” was the subject for the evening worship based upon the words of the women at the tomb, “Who will roll away the stone?”

This plaintive cry of the women stretches into an endless way of darkness, strife, pride, bloodshed, national and international jealousy along which crushed groups of humans grow bitter-looking and longing for the light to lead them to a better day and life—yet all through the centuries the light of the world has been kept sealed in the tomb and the cry goes on unheeded by the majority of people.

While God alone can roll the stone away from our earthly graves to let us live the endless life, yet only Man can roll away the stone from the sepulchre that keeps Christ from reigning over the nations and the peoples of the world. Only through human personalities and their experiences can He walk the earth again—it is within the power of man to release Christ to mankind.

At the morning service Mr. Jack MacLeod sang “Open the Gates of the Temple” and the music at the evening service consisted of three anthems, special parts being taken by Mrs. C. Stewart, Miss Audrey Taylor, Miss Irene Johnson and Mrs. Jack MacLeod. These included Haydn's “Spacious Firmament” and “Songs of Praise” by Schoebel; a duet, “Seeking Jesus,” by Mrs. Jack MacLeod and Miss Irene Johnson, concluded a fine program of Easter music.

The church presented a very fine appearance with the Easter flowers—lilies, tulips and other potted flowers.

It was intimated by the pastor that a slight delay in the supplying of the church's order of New Baptist Hymnary, that it was regrettable they were not able to use the new books for Easter as had been intended. These new books are the gift of the Ladies Guild to the Baptist Church. Also gratifying to the Summerside church is the fact that they were the first of the Maritime convention to order these new books.

UPON ENTERING the auditorium of the Central Street Christian Church one was immediately called to worship as the eye beheld the beauty of the floral display. A large congregation attended both morning and evening service.

At the morning service the choir with Mrs. Harold B. Schurman, organist, under the direction of Mr. A. F. Sharpe, rendered most impressively the anthem, “Victory Be” by Trussell.

The text of a very delightful Easter message brought by Mr. Waterworth was taken from John 20, 20. “Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.”

Truly this was a day of vision and victory. It was “the same day of all history, the resurrection day. To the disciples, the last week had been wild and bewildering. Scene after scene had left them perplexed. It was three days since the mob had killed Him. Certain that He was dead, they begged for the end of the second day. The tomb was closed and sealed until after the Jewish Sabbath. Then the disciples received reports that the stone was rolled away. They were troubled. The mystery was increased. Little did they realize the importance of the day.

The geographical setting is in an upper room. But as to the more important, the disposition of heart and mind of the disciples, it was a place of restlessness. Confusion reigned in those hearts and minds. They felt they had buried all when they laid the Body of their Lord away. Three years before they had left all. It was difficult for them to go back to their fishing and tax collecting. They had forgotten the much that their Lord had told them.

and Monsignor MacLellan preached the sermon. There were large congregations at the three Masses.

In the evening at 7 o'clock the Vespers of the Sunday were chanted followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Deny Spain To Devalue Currency

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MADRID, April 12.—A forced departure from Spain's prevailing monetary policy was regarded by many informed observers today as inevitable because of a new and potentially serious menace to her international credit.

With approximately 700,000,000 pesetas (the peseta is valued at about 13.6 cents) tied up in frozen credits due to exchange restrictions, it was learned foreign banks have declined to open further credits unless the government provides some positive guaranty of their payment on maturity. The uncertainty of the present political situation, coupled with insistent rumors the government was contemplating devaluation, caused the banks to take this action.

The ministry of finance has categorically denied the devaluation rumors had any basis in fact, but a new record delay of 341 days in payment of exchange applications led foreign banks to halt credits temporarily as a safety measure.

Kents May Visit The United States

LONDON, April 12.—The Sunday Express said today the Duke and Duchess of Kent are considering an invitation to go to the United States aboard the liner Queen Mary on its maiden voyage May 27.

The Duke, the paper said, is expected to make a decision in about a week, when he and his wife are to return to London from Belgrade, Yugoslavia, where they have been spending the Easter holidays with Prince Regent Paul.

Police Press Search For Alvin Karpis

DALLAS, Texas, April 12.—Police pressed a search today which they neither would confirm nor deny was for Alvin Karpis, public enemy no. one, after the arrest here last night of a Karpis associate, Lloyd Doyle, accused kidnapper.

It was learned definitely that detectives had “pulled” the identification card of Karpis, Montreal-born Lithuanian, to have it available for quick fingerprint comparison.

Police identified Doyle as the last man wanted for the kidnapping of August Luer, capitalist, at Alton, Ill., in 1933; a suspect in the slaying last November of Vivian Chase at Kansas City, also indicted in the Luer case; a man who lingered on the outskirts of gangs led by the late John Dillinger and “Baby Face” Nelson.
