

Local and Other Items.

TYPHOID fever is prevalent in Montreal. Hon. A. J. Macdonald, Georgetown, is in the city to-day. Dr. Robins and Mrs. Robins returned home last evening. Mr. Alex. Macdonald, of the P. E. I. Railway, is visiting Boston. Hon. Donald Ferguson has arrived home from the Bangor Exhibition. There will be a meeting of the City Council on Monday evening next. There will be football practice at the Park on Saturday afternoon, commencing at three o'clock. The members of Royal Arch Chapter, A. F. & A. M., are holding a picnic at Rocky Point to-day. Handsome new Silver Ware direct from the manufacturer, now opening at E. W. Taylor's, Cameron Block. No business at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon. Two Scott Act cases are on the docket for to-morrow. A meeting of the supporters of Mr. Haviland will be held this evening in committee room, Full's Building, at 8 o'clock. The veteran Methodist, Hon. Jas. Ferrier, is probably the oldest member in the Methodist Conference. He is in his 87th year. Mr. J. W. Mitchell has gone to Boston; but he is not now—as stated by several of our contemporaries—attached to THE EXAMINER Office. A St. John, N. B., shoemaker, named Ryan, died at his work on Tuesday evening. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death. The body of a petrified man, seven feet in height and weighing about 1,700 pounds, arrived in the city to-day and is to be on exhibition in Stevenson's building. At Newcastle, N. B., on Tuesday night, burglars made attacks upon three different houses. The burglars were not very successful, and are still at large. The crew of the seized schooner Highland Light arrived in the city from Georgetown this morning. They leave for home in the steamer Carroll this evening. A regular meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society will be held in their Hall, Prince Street, on Friday evening, the 10th inst.—John Hennessey, Secretary. sep 9 21 The annual meeting of the Rifle Association is to be held in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court-room at 8 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is requested. The annual meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Aid Society will be held in St. Paul's School room on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 3.30 p. m. A full attendance is requested. By cablegram to Peake Bros. & Co., the brig, Zerelde arrived at Liverpool on the 8th inst., making the passage in 24 days. This vessel will at once go on the berth for Charlottetown as advertised. We are informed that Mr. Lemuel Compton, of Belle Creek, has a sunflower growing in his garden, which is eight feet nine inches in height, and has fifty-four flowers on it. Who can beat this? The members of the City Fire Companies will attend the grand Moonlight Excursion which takes place on Wednesday evening next, under the auspices of the City Cornet Band. The firemen, headed by the Band, will march from the Hook and Ladder Rooms to the boat at 7.30 o'clock. THREE FAIRY TALES, from a volume in press, "Annals of the Court of Oberon," by Mr. J. Hunter Duvay, are being published in the Herald, of Halifax. It is apparent at a glance that the writer is quite familiar with the spirit world, and has a proper appreciation of the beauties of fairy land. Mr. Rupert D. Taylor, of Halifax, and Miss Marion R. Goddard, daughter of the City Clerk of Portland, N. B., were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father on Tuesday evening last. Shortly after the ceremony the happy couple left on a bridal tour, which includes a visit to the Island. They arrived last evening and are registered at the Revere. A good sized audience greeted Capt. Sturdivant last evening at the Methodist (brick) church. This evening the Capt. speaks at Cornwall, and to-morrow evening at Georgetown. The people of our city will have one more opportunity to hear Capt. S., before he leaves the Island, as arrangements have been made for him to address the people at the Gospel Army hall next Monday evening. ONE good result of the opening of the Lyceum here is the announcement that the celebrated Court Musicians, patronized by Her Majesty the Queen, and the Royal Family, and universally eulogized wherever they have appeared, are to give two of their entertainments here during the first week of October. The company consists of five celebrated vocalists and one pianist, and Mr. Walter Pelham, whose reputation is world-wide. This will be a rich musical treat for musical Charlottetown. Full particulars later on. PILGRIM'S PROGRESS AGAIN.—Since the presentation of the Panorama and Lecture at the Gospel Tent on Tuesday evening, Mr. Chambers has had many urgent requests, both from city and country people, to repeat it, and so give the hundreds who were turned away from the Tent on that night for want of room an opportunity to see and hear the graphic presentation of this wonderful subject. Mr. Chambers has concluded to repeat on Monday evening next, Sept. 13, at the Baptist Church, at 8 o'clock. Admission, 10 cents; reserved seats, 20 cents. A limited number of reserved seats tickets have been issued, and are on sale at Warren's Shoe Store. Those desiring them had better apply early. ABOUT ten o'clock last evening, as two ladies and a gentleman were passing along Richmond Street, in the neighborhood of the Cameron Block, they were impudently accosted by a "smart" young man, who was one of a group of "ornaments" in a doorway. Notice the ladies nor their escort took any notice of the individual's remarks, as, judging from the way he acted, he evidently wanted to pick a quarrel, but passed on. The "smart" young man, however, continued to have his say, and it was not until the party were out of hearing distance that he desisted. This business of insulting ladies and gentlemen on the streets is becoming altogether too common, and it is high time an example were made of some of the offenders.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.] Schooner Seized.—The Adams Case. HALIFAX, Sept. 8. The American schooner Pearl was seized at Arichat to-day for being in the harbor without entering the Custom House and fined $400. She was on her voyage home from the Banks. It is understood that the trial of the David J. Adams has been fixed for the 20th inst. That case will be completed and judgment filed before the Doughty case is taken up. A Fatal Fight. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 7. A telegram from Kennedy Station says that an affray occurred between two Mexicans and two Americans on the one side and officers on the other yesterday, during voting on the local option, in which Sheriff Tate Elder, his brother, Deputy Sheriff, and a Mr. Pullen were killed outright. Several others were dangerously wounded. Complaints from Halifax. HALIFAX, Sept. 8. Business men complain that they cannot get any answer from inquiries at Ottawa. Even Civil Service officials can't get instructions. A horse seized for carrying illicit liquor six weeks ago is boarded at $3 a week and only worth $40. No answer can be got from Mr. Costigan as to what to do with him. A Sad Suicide. DUTCH VALLEY, Kent Co., N. B., Sept. 8. Miss Lockhart, a school teacher of Donegal, committed suicide on Friday, the 3rd inst., by cutting her throat with a carving knife. Cause, temporary insanity. Kicked to Death. OTTAWA, Sept. 8. On York Street this afternoon, during a fight between four men, one named Starkie was knocked down and kicked to death. The other three have been arrested. The Haldimand Election. TORONTO, Sept. 8. The result of the contest in Haldimand to-day shows a majority for Coulter, Grit, of 88. Weather Bulletin. TORONTO, September 9—10 a.m. Moderate to fresh southwest and west winds, partly cloudy weather with local rains. Mr. Rogers' sketches are rendered in a spirited manner. His imitations of the three great actors—Lawrence Barrett, Henry Irving and Edwin Booth—seemed to give good satisfaction to such of the audience as had witnessed performances by these gentlemen. His rendition of the dialogue between Hamlet and Horatio was also a very excellent piece of what might be called individual dialogue, and in another way the spirited altercation between an Italian family showed the great power Mr. Rogers has over his voice, and facial muscles. "Darius Green and His Flying Machine" convulsed the house, as it always does, while the story of "Little Jim" brought tears to the eye.—Chatham Tribune. A young man was arrested in Newcastle, N. B., on Monday for loud talking and causing a disturbance in the streets. On being searched at the station house slips of paper were found on him on which were bits of scrawly writing stating that he was deaf, dumb, and partly blind, and begging assistance in the name of all the things that were sacred. He had evidently been playing the deaf and dumb game throughout the country and had been so far successful as to be able to come into collision with some of Newcastle's "talking" whiskey, which had worked a miracle on him, loosening the joints of his tongue, bringing light to his darkened vision and setting his tympanum reverberating. He was discharged after being cautioned.
