CATTLE SHIPMENTS.—Yesterday morning Messrs. Blake Bros., of this city, shipped forty head of cattle to Mr. S. P. Henry, of Halifax. They weighed on an average 1,200 lbs. In the S. S. Coban, they shipped to-day to St. John's, Nfld., thirty head of grade cattle, averaging in weight 1,400 lbs. This is undoubtedly one of the finest shipments of cattle ever made to that market. Among the number was a fine bull bred by Mr. Murphy, of Gallas Point, which turned the scale at 2,000, and a magnificent ox bred by Mr. Thos. Mitchell, of Bedeque road, which weighed 1,706 lbs. P. Blake, Esq M. P. P., accompanied the shipment. We hope the venture of shipping superior cattle to St. John's will meet with the success it deserves.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

News from Soudan.

CAIRO, May 28.

The Governor of the Dongola telegraphs that he has visited the disturbed districts and has persuaded the people to remain quiet. All the tribes have even consented to pay their taxes. The Governor engaged to pacify the entire Soudan if several thousand troops are sent to him. The Moslems who have been five months on the wry from Darfour have returned to Assonam. They bring a letter from Slaten by Governor of Darfour, in which he says after resisting the rebels two years, during which time I have exhausted my supplies of provisions and ammunition, and was at last reduced to the expedient of casting copper balls, which proved useless against the enemy, and after having waited in vain for oft-solicited assistance I finally surrendered in order to avoid further bloodshed.

Derby Day.

LONDON, May 28.

Derby day does not excite as much interest as usual owing to the fact that many of the best horses take no part in the race, such as Busy Body, Scot Free, St. Simon, Archidue, and Plunger Walton. Richmond is well liked and is thought to possess a undeniable chance of victory. Richmond is a chestnut colt that runs fast. The weather is cool and the course good, and the race likely to be a good one. Later—The race for the Derby resulted in a dead heat between St. Gatien and Harvester, Queen Adelaide finished third.

Massacre of Priests and Nuns.

CAIRO, May 28.

The Catholic Bishop of Soudan has arrived at Cairo from the south. He reports seven station priests and four sisters of mercy have been massacred at Elobied. He also reports that three priests were exposed naked to the sun for four days, and died from the effects of the exposure.

State Aided Emigrants.

LONDON, May 28.

The Anchor Line steamer, Furnessia, sailed yesterday for New York with 500 state-aided emigrants on board. Princess Louise gave an audience yesterday to several state-aided emigrants who will sail in the Peruvian to-morrow under the auspices of the Women's Emigration Society.

A Brutal and Fatal Fight.

BLYTH, Ont., May 28.

A brutal fight occurred on Monday, just outside the village limits, between two farmers and their sons, named Beamish and Maine, resulting in the death of one of the combatants—William Maine. The village is greatly excited. Warrants are issued for the arrest of Beamish and his son.

El Mahdi Defeated.

CAIRO, May 28.

News has reached here that the New Black, the False Prophet, appeared before Darfour and defeated El Mhadi's troops. The new Mahdi states El Mahdi was one of his former Dervishes.
