I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting of St Lawrence Lodge tonight at 8 o'clock. Second degree.

KLONDIKE.—Reserve Tuesday evening 15th inst for a trip to the Klondike in Kindergarten Hall illustrated by 60 fine views. Mr. McCready has kindly consented to describe the views.

BLOCKADED.—The snowstorm on Saturday somewhat delayed travel on the Railway. Owing to the drifts the train for Tignish was late, and the track to the Capes was not opened till late. To-day the trains are on time.

WIN-LOE DAIRYING CO.—The annual meeting of this company took place last week. The secretary reported a good season's work and all of the old directors were re-elected except Mr. Duncan Martin who is succeeded by Mr J. B. Stewart.

POLICE COURT.—At the Police Court, this morning, two drunks were each fined $4 or 20 days. Two young men, Alex Lafferty and James McAleer were arraigned for fighting at the railway station last Wednesday night at the conclusion of the Hockey match. Lafferty was fined $5 or 30 days and McAleer was discharged.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The committee in charge of the past course of entertainments in St Peter's Hall hereby tender sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who kindly took part in the several entertainments or delivered the lectures of the course; also to all those who in any way contributed to the success of the season, to the public for liberal patronage, and to the press for many courtesies.

FRUIT GROWERS.—The annual meeting of the Fruit Grower's Association of P. E. I. will be held in the Young Men's Liberal Association Rooms (market building), on to-morrow (Tuesday) March 8th, at one o'clock p. m.—D. J. Stewart, Secy. All who intend to attend are asked to be sharp on time so as to be able to go to the Agricultural meeting in the Kindergarten Hall, afterwards.

CONGRATULATIONS.—We heartily congratulate Mr. Harry L. Bowness, son of Mr. Andrew Bowness of Kensington, on his graduation after a highly successful business course at the P. E. Island Commercial College. Like all other successful students who have obtained their diplomas at this college Mr. Bowness has been a hard and persevering worker, and will, we feel sure, reach a high position in his chosen profession. He carries with him our best wishes for his continued success.

THE STANLEY.—Freight is being taken to and from the Stanley to-day, most of the city truckman being employed. The track on the ice is however very bad and it is difficult to get enough teams for the work. The steamer will leave to-morrow morning for Georgetown. The Agent of Marine informs us that she will not come back to Charlottetown but will return to Georgetown where the facilities for loading and discharging freight are better than at this port. It has been suggested that dynamite be used to blow up the ice that prevents the steamer getting into port, but this has been tried years ago and the result was not at all encouraging.

B. I. S.—The Annual Meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society was held on Sunday afternoon. There was a large attendance. The reports of the past year showed the society to be in a flourishing state being a handsome balance to its credit in the bank. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- Patron—His Honour Lieut. Governor Howland, re-elected.
  - President—D. O. M. Reddin, jr.
  - Vice-President—R. F. Maddigan, re-elected.
  - Second Vice-President—Jas. Edmonds.
  - Treasurer—Patrick Bourke, re-elected.
  - Secretary—Thos. Driscoll, re-elected.
  - Chief Marshal—John Connolly, (Fau-dry), re-elected.
  - Assistant Chief Marshal—Wm. Mitchell.
  - Charitable Committee—Wm. Cantwell, Jeremiah Sweeney, John Corcoran, Jas. Hennessy and Thos. Hughes.
  - Standard Bearer—Frank Morgan, John Flynn, John Rice and Thos. McNally.
- The retiring President, (who having served for six years declined re-nomination) and other retiring officers received a hearty vote of thanks; and an invitation was extended to the A. O. H. to join in the St Patrick's Day parade.

The success attending our sale and new methods is very gratifying

CHEERY, WHUSTLIN' MEN.

JOHN IMRIE, TORONTO, CAN.

When troubles rise, like clouds in skies,
An' a' things eerie seem,
Keep up your heart, though freens depart,
Nae time is that to dream!
The weakest man in a' the lan',
Is he that has nae foe
Trust mair in self than freens or pelt,
An' whustle as ye go!

Cho.—Just whustle to yerself, my man,
Some cantie tune ye ken,
The deil himsel can't stan' the spell
O' cheery, whustlin' men!

Should love beguile, just wait awhile,
There's guid fish in the sea,
The fickle jaud may get nae lad,
She's no' the lass for thee!
Tak' time to think, an' in a blink
The richt lass ye will see;
Just whustle some, an' she will come,
Wi' love-light in her e'e!—Cho.

Some married men, as ye may ken,
Hae sometimes cause to dre—
A scoldin' wife may vex his life,
An' oot the house he'll flee!
But don't do that, like frichted cat
But tak' advice frae me;
Be unca fain, an' tak' the wean,
An' syne she'll mak the tea!

Cho.—She canna whustle like you, guid man,
An' that ye brawly ken.
But she can sing, an' comfort bring
To cheery, whustlin' men!
