Flyers Dump S.D.U. 5—2 In Island League Game

Meeting Of All Jr. Players To Be Held This Evening

At a meeting to be held at the Workman's Compensation Board office tonight at 8 p.m. the first step toward the organization of a City Junior Hockey League will be taken.

Anyone interested in junior hockey and all players intending to turn out with the juniors are asked to attend this meeting.

There are many players of Junior age in Charlottetown A.J. MacAdam, hockey coach at S.D.U., said last night that the University is certainly interested in the development of junior hockey but said that players playing intercollegiate ranks could not also play junior. However there are plenty of high school players at S.D.U. ineligible for intercollegiate play that could turn out for a try with the juniors.

Also P.W.C. has a good number of players around and together with the supply in Charlottetown it is thought hat there will be enough talent to form a three-team league.

On Saturday night at the Sports Arena a practice will be called for all players of junior age. At that time it will be known definitely whether or not the junior league will come into being.

"Col. Dan" Enlightens Baz O'Meara On Maritime Racing

Bax O'Meara writing in his daily column for the Montreal Star has made use of Lt. Col. D.A. MacKinnon's early harness racing roundup which appeared in the Guardian on December 31st, in the issue of Tuesday, January 10th.

O'Meara made extensive use of the Colonel's review under the heading "Progress in the Maritimes". The indroductory paragraph of the piece reads: "Lt. Col. D.A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., Croix de Guerre, famous Maritime driver and harness authority, has supplied us with a comprehensive review of the growth of that sport down there as outlined by him in the Charlottetown Guardian."

The columnist then gos on to quote many of the facts and figures supplied by the Colonel in his outline.

In a final paragraph O'Meara says: "Before reading the MacKinnon review we had no idea of the extent of Maritime racing even though Vern Oatway and other Maritimers have been drum beating its praises for years."

Gained Hall Of Fame

Sam "Boston Tar Baby" Langford Dies In Boston

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Sam Langford, boxing's fearless "Tar Baby," died Thursday just three months after he gained the Hall-of-Fame recognition which almost eluded him in his sightless old age.

Langford died in comparative obscurity after a long illness in a nursing home at the age of 72.

Born in Weymouth, N. S, Langford ran away from home as a youth to embark in a career encompassing some 642 bouts from 1902 through 1923. His performances have caused many ring experts to consider him the greatest pound-for-pound fighting machine in the history of the professional sport.

TACKLED HEAVYWEIGHTS

Despite his maximum 162½-pound weight and five-foot, 6½-inch height, Langford took on many heavyweights. His most memorable battle was a bloody 15-round loss on a close decision to Jack Johnson in nearby Chelsea in 1906 in which he was outweighed by 49 pounds.

Sam was knocked out in the 13th round by Clem Johnson in El Paso, Texas, in 1923—his final bout.

The following year Langford became blind as the rsult of eye injuries suffred over years of savage ring battles.

His only source of income in recent years was a trust fund set up by the New York Herald Tribune after sports writer Al Laney discovered the destitute "Tar Baby" huddled in a small, cold room in New York's Harlem section. The fund drew contributions from sympathetic readers and reached a reported $10,892 at the time.

RETURN APPEARANCE

Langford's final public appearance was in 1952 at the site of many of his fights—Boston's Old Mechanics building. At the time he was given a testimonial by about 1,000 boxing enthusiasts and friends in New England.

A squat, broad - shouldered fighter with tremendously powerful arms, he was among few mentioned in the Canadian Press half-century poll as fighter of the half-century—Jimmy McLarnin topped the poll.

Early in the century Langford travelled to London, Paris, Melbourne, Sydney, Perth and Brisbane as the uncrowned heavyweight champion, unable to get a title bout. He later, toured the United States, picking up fight dates wherever he could.

His mother died when he was 10 and when his father died four years later he went to Boston, where he got a job cleaning a small fight club operated by Joe Woodman. Woodman was his manager until shortly before 1920.

Langford became a familiar sight on Cambridge streets during the last few years tapping the path of his daily walks with a white cane until his final sickness overtook him.

But for the "rediscovery" of Langford, the man's endless feats of courage and strength in the rig might have been overlooked. He was nominated to the sport's Hall of Fame recently.

EARLY FAME

Langford was managed by Joe Woodman in his fistic years. At 17 he already held a 15-round nontitle decision over lightweight champion Joe Gans.

In 1935 he underwent surgery which temporarily restored the sight in his right eye. With the physical and financial collapse which followed for the forgotten man came a complete and final darkness.

Perhaps Langford's greatest contribution was his effort at the turn of the century—intentional or not—to present the Negro as a worthy addition to the competitive sports world. Langford fought in the days of a "color line" and was subjected to many "no decision" judgements by officials who refused to vote for him.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Tied With BYC For Top Spot

The Parkdale Flyers with the Carver brothers, Skip and Allie, firing two goals apiece, outscored St. Dunstan's University 5—2 last night at the Sports Arena in a regular game of the Island Senior League, to jump into first-place tie with the idle Basilica Youth Club.

The Flyers notched the only goal of the first period, increased their lead to 3—0 at the end of the second and split 2 goals with the Saints in a fast third frame in racking up their victory.

Bob Hurry scored the fifth Parkdale goal and Buck Davey and Gerry Burns got singles for the Saints.

Referees Moe Goodwin and Brian MacCallum handed out 19 penalites in the spirited contest, 10 going to the Parkdale. Included in the list were one misconduct to Willie Dunn of the Flyers and a pair of majors to Josey of Parkdale and Roy of S. D. U. for fighting in the second period.

Parkdale golie Frank Roper was working on a goose-egg going into the third but Burns cracked it when he scored at 7:03 from a pile up in front of the cage.

BIGGEST CROWD

The biggest crowd of the year almost 800 fans saw a comparatively slow first period of hockey. But as the game progressed it picked up speed and in the third the teams were flying from one end to the other in high gear. The Saints, who haven't played together since early December, showed surprising speed and in the third when they should have been showing the effects of the long layoff actually outskated the Flyers.

Both goaltenders, Roper of Parkdle and Earl Shepherd making his initial start for the Saints, were tested frequently in the first and both came up with some eye-opening puckstopping before Allie Carver put the Flyers 1 goal up at 18:49. Brother Skip Carver was sitting out a hooking penalty when Allie broke up an S. D. U. Attack at Parkdale's blueline and rode right in on Shepherd on a clear cut breakaway.

Arnold Mullins and Skip Carver were both doing time when Allie got his second goal at 7:29 of the second period. Allan MacLeod started the play passing to Willie Dunn at the Saints' blueline. Dunn sent Carver in on Shepherd and Carver beat the S. D. U. goalie on a backhander.

Bob Hurry gave the Flyers a 3-0 lead when he grabbed Hill's pass on a play in the S. D. U. end and scored on a high hard one.

SKIP GETS TWO

Skip Carver rapped home two goals in the early minutes of the third to give the Flyers a big 5-0 lead. Dempse Gregory set him up on the first one when he fought for the puck in the corner and relayed a pass out to Skip parked uncovered in front of the Saints cage. A little more than a minute later Allie Carver sent Skip away for his second goal.

The Saints were 5 goals down but they came back fighting harder than ever. Finally Gerry Burns got them on the scoresheet from a wild scramble in front of Roper. A couple of minutes later Buck Davey scored from a faceoff in front of Roper. Both goals were unassisted.

Lineups

Flyers: Goal, Roper; defense, A. MacLeod, Josey, Hill, Ready; forwards; A. Carver, S. Carver, D. Gregory, Hurry, Dunn, J. MacLeod, Whitehead.

CARS Are Our Line

by Earle MacLeod

Someone has estimated the average driver wastes, just throws away uselessly, 34 gallons of gasoline a year, enough to keep a car on the road for a month or six weeks.

Studies over a number of years have shown that motorists are averaging 18 miles to the gallon when they should be getting 19. Silly driving habits, we might as well be blunt about it, are mainly to blame.

There are so many "rules for drivers" that one person can't possibly keep them all in his head. But these six rules come from the head of a big fleet of company cars; he found these rules cut their costs-per-mile way down and brought that extra month of free driving.

Don't make jackrabbit starts. Get away smoothly and shift into high gear as soon as possible.

Slow down gradually when you know you're going to have to stop. Your car runs on the power from gasoline already burned, so there's no sense wasting all that momentum by coming to quick stops.

Don't race your motor while waiting for lights to change or while warming up.

Moderate speeds save gas and save the brakes.

Don't ride the clutch or brakes.

And finally, get regular checkups and servicing.

So many of the cars we've sold new, and have serviced right along, come back to us to be traded in. And these cars, that our servicemen know so well, are displayed on our used car lot. Then many buyers keep on having their used car serviced here. It's a wise way to look after a car.

THIS IS THE SEASON OF BIG VALUES when the merchants put on special sales to cut down the winter inventories. We too are offering special values for January clearance. Look at these prices! I am convinced that nowhere in the Maritimes can they be equalled.

Rumor Beavers May Move To Indianapolis

SAINT JOHN, N. B. (CP) — A telephone conversation between hockey officials in Indianapolis, Ind., and a member of the Saint John Beavers Club has started a flood of rumors among local fans of the Atlantic Coast Senior League that the Beavers may move the entire team to that United States centre before many more weeks have passed.

Indianapolis, of the International Hockey League, has announced it is in dire need of players, as evidenced by its last place position in the circuit. The team has won only six games and lost 29 so far this term.

The Indianapolis spokesman, who was not identified, telephoned the Beaver official after the game against Fredericton Capitals here Wednesday night.

The Beavers confirmed that they received the call, but were reluctant to say whether they might accept the offer. It was pointed out, however, that the club is in a none-too-good financial position, and moving the Beavers out of town would be an easy solution.

Jackie MacLeod Is New Coach

SASKATOON (CP) — Right winger Jackie McLeod was appointed playing coach of Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Hockey League Thursday for the balance of the season. He succeeds Doug Bentley who resigned Wednesday.

McLeod turned pro with New York Rangers in the 1949-50 season after completing his amateur career with the Moose Jaw Junior Canucks.

He remained with Rangers until the end of the 1951-52 season when he went to Cincinnati of the AHL. He joined Quakers the following year and collected 77 scoring points. He was back with Quakers the next year and picked up 71 points. During the 1954-55 season, he saw service with Rangres, Vancouvr Canucks and Quakers.

SHUTOUT IN BASKETBALL

TORONTO (CP)—A shutout in baseball or hockey isn't a rarity but in basketball it can be downright embarrassing.

The red faces Thursday were on East Riverdale's playground intermediates. Malvern intermediates shellacked them 90-0 in a scheduled league game Wednesday night.

The losers couldn't even get a foul shot. Not one Malvern player drew a violation.
