The volume of traffic to shipping points, from this and merging districts, made up by light trucks, speeding thereto with small loads of potatoes, indicates the surplus when the price is high.

Rev. Dr. W. A. MacQuarrie returned to his pastoral charge at Hopewell, N. S., on April 14, following a brief visit among relatives and friends here, guest of his mother, Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

Friends of Mr. Douglas MacDonaid will regret to learn of his present illness, restricting him from business activities, and are extending best wishes for an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Glover, and son, Donald, were brief visitors here on April 14, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrison. It is pleasing to learn that serious foot injuries sustained by Mr. Glover a few weeks ago, are gradually progressing towards complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacQuarrie have been elevated to the enviable position of grandparents, due to the arrival of a young son, born at the Reginald General Hospital, to their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. MacQuarrie, on March 23.

Friends of Mr. Warren Villott, will regret to learn that he has entered the P. E. I. Hospital for treatment, and wish him an early and complete recovery from a minor indisposition.

Friends of Mr. Earle Calbeck are pleased to learn that he is recovering from a two weeks confinement with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron MacKinnon, and two sons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler, have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to the eastern States, where they visited relatives and friends. The visit was saddened by the sudden death of Mr. MacKinnon's uncle, at whose home they were guests, before returning to P. E. I.

Friends of Mrs. Jas. O. Flood report her condition improving from treatment being received at the Charlottetown Hospital.

Many relatives and friends were present at the funeral services for the late James W. Rogerson, a former resident of Crapaud, engaged in the tailoring business, whose death occurred at Beach Grove, on April 15. Services, largely attended, were conducted by Rev. Dr. Barrass. Interment was in the Church Cemetery.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Frizzell, following the birth of a son at the P. E. I. Hospital, on April 2.

Best wishes for many happy returns of the day are extended to Rev. George Ayers, former pastor of this Church, who celebrated his 50th birthday among his friends at his home in Summerside, recently.

Relatives and friends from these merging districts, attended the wedding of Alice Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dixon, to John R. Fraser, at St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral, City, performed by Rev. G. E. Moffatt, Rector of this Cathedral.

Much interest is being manifested in the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. MacFarlane, Augustine Cove, of the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Lucy, to Gordon William Brehaut, son of the late Mr. Chester Brehaut and Mrs. Brehaut. Marriage to take place in Tryon Baptist Church on May 7.

Relatives and friends attended the funeral services for the late Mrs. Thos. Gillespie, widely known and highly respected citizen of Carleton, conducted by Rev. Mr. Bishop, assisted by Rev. W. R. MacKay, on April 14. Services, largely attended. Interment in Church of Scotland Cemetery, Cape Traverse.

Included among those recently stricken with flu is Mrs. J. E. McLaughlin, to whom is extended best wishes for an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. B.M. Gantwell and daughter, were among the week-end visitors here, guest of Mrs. Murchison MacEschen. Mrs. Gantwell is resting for a brief period of time, her former Friends of Mr. James A. O'Brien, retired C.N.R. section foreman, will be sorry to learn of his serious illness at his home in the village.

Old friends here of Mr. Fred L. O'Brien, who was ill in Bristol for several months, will be pleased to hear his condition has improved following a serious operation and he is around again much better.

The clay roads that were impassable with mud a week ago have dried up and on Sunday clouds of dust greeted car drivers on the Morell roads that have been scraped and leveled off.

Despite the cold and backward weather for some time, the high winds last week took such a hold on the land that farmers were noticed working on some of the fields on Saturday, April 23th. This is very early but one man tells us he ploughed some fields one year April 9th.

With the lobster fishing season only a few days away there are hundreds of lobster traps here yet miles from the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McVarish, who spent the winter months in Halifax, are expected here early this week where Mr. McVarish has been one of the big fishers for many years.

When the fishing season opens this week one who has lead the way for many a day will be missing. He is Billie Geldard, an outstanding fisherman and lobster packer here all his life. He will sorely miss this spring. Billie answered the fisherman's last call very suddenly last fall.

Mr. Peter Phalen and Mr. Clifford Dunn have returned from what they call a wonderful trip to the U. S. A. Short but long enough, they said, to get around to see many old friends they had not seen in many a day.

Mr. Len Kane returned home from Boston on Friday evening after a vacation trip before he reports for duty on one of the dredges. Mr. Kane visited his brothers in the big city and was a guest at the regular meeting of the Morell Club of Boston. He reports meeting scores of old friends there.

Miss Phillis Sinnott, who is with the Civil service of Canada at present in Summerside, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Th young friends of Miss Norma Sinnott, here and around the Bay, will be happy to know she will return to her banking duties in Charlottetown next week after a long period of illness. Following a severe attack of the flu she had to take a long rest as a bankers life is a hard one.

Mr. J. B. Jay, the village busy business man, was in the city on Thursday on business. Mr. Jay has been called the Mayor of Morell, he has his shoulder to so many things at one time. All seem to look to J. B. to head every move and every undertaking and no matter what is going on Jimmie has a hand in the pie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McEwen informed us they are coming back to their summer residence in the Harbor section in another week to get things ready. Early in May they will be here to stay. No place like the country for the summer they say.

NOVA SCOTIA COAL - THE THRIFTY FUEL

USE NOVA SCOTIA COAL

Until recent years, most domestic furnaces using coal were hand-fired. Many are still hand-fired today. The firing of the furnace and the removal of ashes causes some work and some inconvenience. This is not necessary today with a properly designed furnace with its accompanying automatic stoker device.

With modern appliances, coal can be fed directly and automatically as it is required from the coal bin into the furnace. Modern furnaces are fitted with ash removal units which automatically remove ashes from the furnace and place them in a conveniently placed receptacle. Such coal-burning furnaces are just as convenient as any other type of automatic furnace available today.
