

Former Island Yearling Heifer Tops At Royal

A junior yearling heifer from Lachner, British Columbia that topped the Ayreshire sale of stars at the Royal Winter Fair this year was a great granddaughter of Lealand's Royal Victoria, the cow that classified Excellent at 15 years of age and was highest scoring cow of her age in Canada that year for Keith Boswell, Victoria. Mr. Boswell told this paper yesterday.

Shown by W. H. Savage, the young heifer placed second in her class before topping the feature Ayreshire sale of the year. Glendon Captain's Victoria, the young heifer, is a three-year-old cow from Victoria 6th that produced 12,223 pounds milk at 478 fat in a 13-week period.

Glendon Royal Victoria that produced more than 15,000 pounds milk as a three-year-old. Mr. Boswell sold three heifers to Mr. Savage in 1956 and Victoria was one of them.

A new herd sire, a senior calf, has been purchased for Lachner by Lealand's Victoria Bompas, Bell's Corner, Ontario that has Scotch blood, but that is the sire and dam's side. The granddam came from the famous Lessnesoch herd and his dam was a 15,000-pound cow as a heifer.

Driver Given Adjournment

The case of Percy John Noye, Hunter River, was adjourned Monday to Dec. 17 to fix a date for completion after three Crown witnesses gave testimony. The accused is charged that after bringing his vehicle to a stop before entering an intersection, he proceeded through the intersection before it was safe to do so.

The charge arose out of an accident at the intersection of the Malpasue Highway and the New Glasgow Road, in Hunter River.

Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, is hearing the case in Queen's County Magistrate's Court.

Chessel William Irving, Murray Harbour, had his case adjourned to Dec. 17 to fix a date for hearing. He is charged with driving without insurance.

Two men were each fined $20 and costs for being intoxicated in a public place. Another was fined $20 and costs for having liquor in a place other than his residence.

3 Appointed To Fisheries Research Bd.

OTTAWA (CP) — Appointment of three new members to the Fisheries Research Board of Canada was announced Monday by Fisheries Minister MacLean.

They are Dr. Edouard Page of the University of Montreal science faculty; Dr. G. L. Pickard of the University of British Columbia oceanography institute; and Guy LeBlanc, secretary general of the Quebec United Fishermen, Montreal.

All three are appointed for five-year terms, effective Jan. 1.

Martin K. Eriksen of Prince Rupert, B.C., was reappointed to the 17-member board for a further five years.

Members retiring from the board are Leonard B. Ormstead of Wheatley, Ont.; Prof. E. S. Pretorius of U.B.C. and C. DeSourdy of Montreal.

Impaired Driver Draws Stiff Fine

Joseph H. McCarville, Grand Tracade, pleaded not guilty to drunk driving, but was found guilty to the lesser charge of driving while impaired, in city police court Monday morning, and was fined $100 and costs or 30 days.

Also charged with drunk driving was Adam B. Wight of Roseberry, who was remanded to jail with bail to stand.

Helen G. Killorn, Charlotte-Town, was fined $100 and costs for driving without due care and attention.

Magistrate A. J. Haslam levied fines of $20 and costs or 10 days on two drunk and incapable, and gave another a 20-day suspended sentence.

Islander Owns President's Cane

An 85-year-old native of Prince Edward Island, John Ellis, Andover, Maine, has in his possession a cane owned and used by Grover Cleveland, former president of the United States.

President Cleveland accepted the Statue of Liberty from France on behalf of the United States in 1886.

Mr. Ellis, who served with the 20th Maine Infantry in France during World War I, was awarded the cane from Napoleon Bonaparte to the First American Legion in 1888.

Mr. Ellis has one brother living in his province. His parents were the late Penrose Ellis and Emily (Gillis) Ellis of Fred Hill, P.E.I.
