Local and Other Items.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—Mr. Richard Burke, Royalty, had cauliflowers for sale at the Market to-day.

THE HATTIE LOUISE.—The brigt. Hattie Louise, Capt. Barnard, arrived here from the West Indies last evening.

RUN OVER.—A man was accidentally run over while crossing Richmond Street to-day, but was not seriously injured.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—Lobsters were on sale in the market to-day. They brought 5 cents each. This is the first of the season.

HIGHLY SPOKEN OF.—The address of Rev. James Carruthers at the closing of the Presbyterian College is highly spoken of by the Halifax papers.

EASTER MEETING.—The meeting of St Paul's Church congregation last evening adjourned without transacting any business until Tuesday evening next.

MASONIC.—A meeting of the brethren of Victoria Lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M., will be held in their Hall, Water street, to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 8 o'clock, for instruction.

THE FOUNTAIN.—We hear that the Oddfellows contemplate a repetition of their excellent concert in behalf of an ornamental fountain for Queen Square. This is commendable.

THE LATEST.—The "crazy tea" social is the latest church fad. The eatables are served on every conceivable sort of dish other than those generally used, dustpans, dippers, frying pans, etc.

TELEPHONIC.—We understand that the houses of Messrs. Horace Haszard and George E. Hughes have been connected by telephone, also the stores of James Paton & Co. and Alex. Horne & Co.

THE FIRST.—So rapidly did the Market Hall fill up at the Oddfellows' concert last evening that the announcement "standing room only" had to be given at the ticket office at eight o'clock.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—Prince Edward Division will pay a fraternal visit to Orient Division this evening. All members of Prince Edward Division are requested to assemble at 8.25 in appropriate regalia.

ANOTHER WARNING.—A 12-year-old lad named Welch died at Rockland, Me., a few days ago, from immoderate smoking affecting his brain and nerves. For two years he averaged about a dozen cigars daily.

A WORD TO THE WISE.—The Oddfellows Natal Day Celebration Committee request all persons having accounts against them to hand in their bills to the chairman or secretary not later than Saturday afternoon.

PUT THERE FOR THE PURPOSE.—A boy employed in a Winnipeg dry goods store has confessed to having been robbing the establishment for a long time, having been placed there for that purpose by a syndicate of Jew merchants.

FOUND DEAD.—A correspondent informs us that Mr. Michael Bradley, of Narrow's Creek, was found dead on Thursday morning about sixty yards from his house. He had been visiting at a neighbor's house on Wednesday, and returning home must have died suddenly from heart disease. He was 65 years of age. We tender our sympathy to the bereaved family.

MILITARY.—The two new Armstrong breech-loading rifle guns, with carriages and full equipments, which arrived here on the Princess of Wales on Wednesday last, are for the Artillery Brigade of Queen's and King's Counties. These guns have come direct from England for the sole use of the brigade. There are only five of these guns in the Dominion. The Island has a goodly share.

CARD OF THANKS.—The committee of management of the Oddfellows' Natal Day Concert desire herewith to return their sincere thanks to the following ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted last evening, viz: Miss Earle, Miss Kate Brown, Miss Bessie Lewis, Messrs. Jas. R. Davison, G. Foster, jr., E. Earle, H. Wilson: also the management of the Lyceum, and the chairman of the Market Committee, Councillor Douse, for courtesies extended, and all others who contributed in making the concert such a complete success.

ONE BETTER.—A short time ago the Summerside Journal told of a person who secured the burial outfit of a man who still lived, and now the Truro Guardian tells about a man who resides near that place and who recently purchased a coffin, with mountings, etc., from a firm in a town about twelve miles north of Brookfield, N. S. On being questioned as to who the coffin was required for, what name should be put upon the plate, etc., the purchaser replied, "Oh, never mind that part. It's for myself, and I want to have the stuff in the house, so that there won't be any fuss when my time comes to need it."

Debates and Proceedings.

OTTAWA, April 25.

As Hon. Mr. Chapleau took his seat at three he was welcomed with enthusiastic cheers.

Hon. Mr. Tupper is laid up to-day by sickness.

The House will sit on Saturday on motion of Sir John.

In reply to Mr. Laurier Sir John said the summer rates for freights to the Maritime Provinces had been adopted by the Intercolonial.

The greater portion of the afternoon was taken up with the Northwest and British Columbia matters.

On the motion to go into supply Mr. Mulock made a determined attack on the Minister of Militia, accusing Sir Adolph Caron of incompetency, extravagance and political partizanship in the administration of his department. The basis of his attack was portions of the evidence taken before the public accounts committe—re the military clothing contract.

Mr. Mulock continued his attack on Sir Adolph Caron for two hours after recess closing with the following amendment to supply: "That the administration of the Department of Militia is unsatisfactory of the militia force in Canada, and does not command public confidence.

Sir Adolph Caron replied with a power and eloquence that surprised his oldest friends. He reviewed the evidence read by Mulock, and supplemented it by other testimony to show that the whole tenor was the exact reverse of what the detractor by garbled extracts had endeavored to make the House believe.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Jones, Kenny, Lester, Hickey and Cole, Tyrshitt, Prior and Denison.

Mulock's amendment was defeated—54 to 99—and the House went into supply on Hon. Mr. Foster's motion.

At 2 o'clock this morning, as soon as the House went into supply, Sir Richard Cartwright arose in a towering rage and denounced the Government for forcing on business so fast.

Hon. Mr. Foster replied that the Opposition had wasted the whole day, and that some business must be done. He was cheered to the echo, and the House went on with business till a very late hour.
