Jail Damages Assessed Prisoner

Arrested Monday evening on a charge of being drunk and incapable Donald Doucette, Charlottetown was reported by Chief of Police C.W. MacArthur as having engaged in the wrecking of his cell at the police station while awaiting trial Tuesday morning.

At his appearance Tuesday the accused was remanded until Wednesday in order to have the city engineer Norman Stewart, assess the value of the damage done.

At his appearance before Magistrate A.J. Haslam in city police court yesterday Doucette was fined $10 and costs or five days on the drunk charge, and was ordered to pay $25 damages or serve an additional 10 days.

Of four other persons appearing on the same charge three were each sentenced to 30 days in Queens County Jail and the other was remanded in custody until Jan. 24.

For having intoxicated liquor in a place other than his residence, an accused was fined $30 and costs or 30 days.

Failure to obey a signed right-of-way sign resulted in a motorist being given a 10 day suspended sentence. A fine of $5 and costs or two days was meted out to another accused who pleaded guilty to failing to stop for a stop sign.
