MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

Mr. H. Bruce Wright, of Sanderson & Co's. establishment, was last evening united in marriage with Miss Lettie Fennell, eldest daughter of ex-Councillor Fennell. Rev. G. M. Campbell was the officiating clergyman. The groom was supported by Mr. Arthur Smith, and Miss Ida Fennell, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. Both bride and groom are popular with a large circle of friends, and many very handsome wedding gifts were received. Among the offerings was an elegant chair from the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church accompanied by an address befitting the occasion. After the wedding supper and a very pleasant social evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for their new home on Grafton Street, followed by the best wishes of all those who enjoy their acquaintance. THE EXAMINER joins in the felicitations, and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Wright a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. S. A. Macdonald, the well-known merchant tailor, was also married last evening. The bride was Miss Bessie Wonnacott, daughter of John Wonnacott, Esq., and the interesting ceremony was performed at his residence beneath a floral bell. Mr. J. E. Matthews was groomsmen and Miss Fea McLane bridesmaid. The bride was handsomely gowned in silver grey Henrietta cloth with pearl trimmings. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. F. Fullerton, in the presence of a goodly number of the friends of the bride and groom. The popularity of the contracting parties was evidenced by the large number of elegant gifts received. Among the presents was a silver service from the bride's associate employes in Beer Bros. store, a chair from Mr. Macdonald's employ and a clock accompanied by an address from Charlottetown Lodge, I. O. G. T., of which both Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald are valued members. A wedding supper and a pleasant social evening followed the interesting ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald will reside on Chestnut Street. THE EXAMINER joins most heartily in the congratulations.

The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian writes: The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Locke, was yesterday evening the scene of a pleasant event, the marriage of their eldest daughter Miss Annie Myrtle, to Mr. Wm. Ferguson, our popular Water St. barber. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Dill, in the presence of about thirty-five invited guests. Mr. Ernest McKewen, of Charlottetown, and Miss Cora Locke, sister of the bride, performed the duties of groomsmen and bridesmaid. An unusually large and costly display of wedding presents testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Locke is held in the community. After an evening of general merrymaking and good cheer the happy couple repaired to their future home on Water street, followed by the good wishes of their many friends.

A very pretty home wedding occurred on Wednesday afternoon, June 2nd, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Latham, 78 Stanwood Street, Providence, Rhode Island, when their niece, Isabella McQuarrie, youngest daughter of Mr. Hector McQuarrie and Mrs. McQuarrie, formerly Margaret Shaw, of Rice Point, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Madison Pike, son of the late James Pike, of Providence. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles A. Campbell, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in which the bride and groom are earnest workers and leading members in the Christian Endeavor Society. The bride was attired in white organdie trimmed with lace and ribbon and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The room in which the ceremony took place was tastefully decorated with palms and ferns.

Rev. W. B. Hinson, and Miss Ethel Wadsworth, of Westmount, are to be married on the 15th June next, according to the Montreal Herald. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride-elect, Rev. Mr. Hinson was some years ago pastor of the First Baptist Church in Charlottetown.

Everybody should be on hand for the grand opening Monday night.

THE CHILD SECURED.—The Moncton Times quotes from the Halifax Herald the story regarding Josie Mills' child actress published in THE EXAMINER yesterday and adds: Mr. Buffner passed through Moncton on yesterday afternoon's C. P. R., being accompanied by the little girl for whom he was in search. The child was secured from the Josie Mills' company at Truro on Monday night. At first Miss Mills refused to give the girl up without a protest, but when the officers took another tack and interested the S. P. C. on account of the child's tender years, Miss Mills decided to allow Mr. Buffner to take her rather than spend time and money in fighting the case. The child, it is said, is but nine years of age, and being a very clever little actress, Miss Mills expressed a willingness to pay her $20 a week if Mr. Buffner would depart without her. This the Kentucky man declined to do.
