BRIDE ELECT HONORED AT SHOWER
Miss Jean Burt was tendered a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage, on Monday evening, December 4th, at French River Hall, when she received many lovely gifts which included bed linen, table linens, glassware, cooking utensils, lamps and a substantial sum in cash. The stage to which the bride-elect was escorted by Mrs. Everett Burt was gay with artistically arranged yellow and white streamers. The well filled baskets were carried in by Misses Jean MacRae and Frances Parsons, and the parcels were opened by Misses Jean Parsons and Evelyn MacRae. The good wishes and names of the donors were read by Misses Ruth MacRae and Barbara MacLeod, and the gifts were arranged by Miss Eliza Campbell. The bride-to-be gratefully thanked her friends for the lovely gifts.

Locke - Burt Wedding

Rev. D. A. Campbell was the officiating clergyman at the Presbyterian Manse, New London, when Mildred Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Burt, French River, and Wilbur Elwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Locke of the same place were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.
The ceremony took place on Wednesday, December 6th, 1950, at one-thirty in the afternoon, and the couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pidgeon, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.
The youthful bride looked charming in her gown of grey tulle with black accessories, and her bridesmaid also chose a becoming costume of grey with black accessories.
Following the ceremony, the bridal party motored to Borien and Summerside, returning to the home of the bride's parents at five o'clock for a reception at which close friends and relatives were guests.
A buffet supper was served from a table highlighted with two beautifully decorated wedding cakes.
Those serving were girl friends of the bride—Misses Barbara MacLeod, Lottie and Jean Parsons and Fabelle MacRae.
The bride's mother wore black crepe with silver trimmings and the groom's mother was attired in blue.
Mrs. Elmer Parsons and Miss Lottie Parsons entertained with musical selections during the evening.
A band of charvariers added their good wishes for the newlyweds, to those of their many other friends.
The will live at French River where the groom is engaged in the fishing industry, and the bride is a popular employee of the firm of Duggan and Duggan.

TO SPEND CHRISTMAS ON THE ISLAND — Readers of MacLean's will be keenly interested in learning that the Magazine's Ottawa Editor, Blair Fraser will spend Christmas in this province. Mr. Fraser is a son-in-law of Mr. H. B. MacLeod, of Burlington, near Kensington, and is motoring from Ottawa with his wife and two young sons, who have not seen their grand-father for sometime and to whom, it would just "not be Christmas, without Grandpa Mac". As readers of MacLean's know, Mr. Fraser has recently returned from "a world air tour, to write a series of special articles", and he is hoped the present comfortable and benign weather will continue, and that he and his family will enjoy a real holiday with world problems left behind for the moment.
