OBITUARY

MRS. ALEXANDER SEAMAN

Inserted by the family On February 11, 1965, relatives, friends and neighbours were saddened to hear of the death in the Prince Edward Island Hospital of Mrs. Alexander Seaman of Brackley Beach in her 83rd year after a brief illness.

She was the former Annie Florence MacDonald, daughter of the late Ronald and Sarah MacDonald, Glasgow Road, and on her marriage to Alexander Seaman in January 1918, she went to reside at Brackley Beach where she spent the remainder of her life.

Her kind, friendly disposition made her a favourite with all who knew her and she will be greatly missed in the community. However, it is in her home that her passing will be felt the keenest as she was a devoted mother and was very attached to her grandchildren.

She was a member of Harrington Presbyterian Church in which she took a keen interest and sang in the choir for many years. She also took an active part in the Women's Missionary Society and the Women's Institute.

Left to mourn are two sons, David of Brackley Beach and Heath of Halifax; her daughter-in-law, Thelma and Viola; and five grandchildren. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. George Brown of New Glasgow, and two brothers, West of Winsloe and John of Portland, Maine, as well as a number of nieces and nephews. Her husband predeceased her on April 19, 1952 and four sisters and one brother passed away some years ago.

A largely attended funeral service was held in Harrington Presbyterian Church on February 13th. The service was conducted by Mr. Hugh Lowry and the hymns, "Pass me not of Gentle Saviour" and "The Lord is my Shepherd", were sung. The pallbearers were Gordon Shaw, George MacCallum, Bradford Murray, Fred Hughes, Edward MacCallum and James MacCallum.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful and bore silent tribute of the esteem in which the deceased was held. She was laid to rest in the
