

"Auld Lang Syne."

Dear Nelly! an' tae write the name It gars my heart-strings birl;
This year ago since first I met
The darling, fawn-eyed girl.

Well Taken Care Of.

An anxious mother rushed into a livery stable at a seaside resort:
" Oh, Mr. Smith! Have you heard anything of my daughter? I allowed her to go driving this evening with Miss Johnson, and I am sure something has happened. It's quite dark, and they haven't come back."

NASAL BALM

TOTTENHAM, ONT., May 3rd, 1887.
I have been troubled with nasal catarrh for the last five years. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised I procured a bottle, and although I have only used part of it, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best remedy in the world for that loathsome disease, Catarrh. It is easy and pleasant to use, soothing and healing in its action, instant in giving relief, removes and changes the poisonous secretions to a healthy state, stops the droppings from the head into the throat, and removes all the symptoms of Catarrh and Cold in the Head. In fact, if the directions are faithfully followed, nothing but a sure and permanent cure can be the result.

NOTICE

THE Subscriber, thankful for the patronage extended to her late husband, G. W. MILLNER, wishes to inform the public that the Tin and Gas-fitting business will be continued in the old stand as formerly.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in wisely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, worn-out, run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."
