MR. AND MRS. JOHN R. BENNER

Wedding Vows Are Spoken At Ceremony At High Noon

At high noon on Saturday, July 7, 1962 at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Charlottetown, Judith Helen Brennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Brennan, Charlottetown became the wife of Mr. John Raymer Benner, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.S. Benner, Orillia, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon J.T. Ibbott.

Mr. George Thompson, ARCO was the organist and accompanied the senior and junior choirs as they sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love". The soloist, Miss Barbara Rogers, sang Handel's "Wedding Prayer." Baskets of pink and white peonies decorated the front of the church and the altar and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows and mock orange blossoms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a beautiful period gown of embroidered organza over taffeta. The gown was floor length with a bouffant skirt and long tapered sleeves. A coonet of appliqued roses and seed pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of feathered pink carnations with tiny yellow rosebuds in cascade.

The maid of honor was Miss Katherine Gass and the bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Owen and Miss Mary Brennan. They wore matching street length gowns of barred silk organdie in blue and white, with cap sleeves and full gathered skirts, and pillbox hats with illusion veils. They carried baskets of tiny red roses and white carnations.

The best man was Mr. Kenneth Benner, brother of the groom and the ushers were Mr. Harold Duncan, classmate of the groom and Mr. Robert Brennan, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel, which was decorated for the occasion with pink and white peonies spieced with summer flowers.

For receiving the guests Mrs. Brennan chose a gown of pale rose organza trimmed with white lace. She wore matching accessories and chose a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Benner chose an ensemble of soft lime green complimented with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The charming and appropriate toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. D.M. Gass and responded to by the groom and telegrams of good wishes were read by the best man.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Things Are Made Ready For Mowing Next Week

Today the mower was brought home from its long rest at the other farm and serviced, and this evening its knife was sharpened — "touched up" with a file, in preparation for the mowing, if everything be favorable to it, the first of the week.

The present cutting-bar is much longer than those knives James was used to sharpen in the earlier years of our farming at Alderlea, when our contribution to it, was to turn the grindstone for him toward the close of a day. This was, of course, not a difficult task for us, because he would often pause in the work to test this and that blade against a finger for its keenness, or to take stock of the weather, or look out along the fields at the crops.

And always, I wonder "how that young horse will take to the sound of the mower, when we hitch him to it in the morning?" Would he first? Oh, maybe at the first round or so, but with the old mare to steady his step, he would soon become accustomed to it — And the robin's would be at evensong on the lawn. And from the night-pasture below, one might hear the odd tinkle of the cow-bell, its first chime adding to the evening lullaby, which was putting our world to rest.

"So Gran'daddy used to coil his hay. What did they look like? And why didn't you take a snapshot of a field on coil, so that we could see it now?" Mack queried this evening.

"Because then, it seemed as though folks would always be making their hay like that. There could be no other way!" we said.

"But there was", he smiled. "We make no coils nowadays, though" he grinned "I have a notion Gran'daddy would still prefer to have it done that way!

He says he seldom sees what he would call 'good hay' these times — it's done up too quickly — I read where some make theirs not in bales, but in pellets. And then too, some have installed driers in their barns to hurry the saving. I don't suppose we'll ever try the like of that here — but then — you just never know!"

A nice week, we have had. It brought a July-babe to Jamie and Elva, to be Gordie's sister, and in the overall family, the second girl of the name. She is "A bonnie wee thing" with fair curling hair, and prone to claim her own place in a world that is wide.

One, who is also a July child, visited — with husband and sons — at Alderlea last evening. A brown-eyed, brown-haired woman, this is, with an engaging accent, which declares Canada's Motherland over the seas. Quebec is however her adopted Province, but she and her family can also claim to be Islanders, in fact, for some years now, they have owned and enjoyed an Island summer-home. Here in successive summers, they have been learning more and more about us — have been exploring with much interest our highways and byways, absorbing Island history by visiting our storied sports, attending our fetes, enjoying deep sea boating and fishing and altogether, we would hope, spending a delightful vacation-time. We hope the summer is kind to this family, and to every Island-guest. May they find a refreshing holiday here, and a great peace of heart—One reflecting on the word, it may have been in that peace, which blesses, as now, a week's end prays:

"Let peace, O Lord, begin in me,
That I may dwell in harmony
With those, with whom I work and play,
Whose lives touch mine from day to day.
Help me to be courageous, strong,
When cares and worries 'round me throng;
To meet each issue face to face,
Nor all my strength, in fretting waste;
Tactful and gracious, let me be —
A restful personality;
That, as world fears and tensions grow,
My own small orbit, peace may know."

Until Monday — — Diary — Good-night.....

Yogurt Is Featured In Three No-Cook Sauces

"WHAT IS yogurt?" is a question often asked the Chef and myself at our personal appearances.

Yogurt is a satin-smooth milk food, made from defatted milk with the help of a bacteria culture which also aids and hastens the digestive process.

The average calorie content of plain yogurt per 8-ounce cup is about 120 calories. Sweetened and flavored yogurt contains up to 220 calories per cup.

FOR DIETERS

So if on a reducing diet, choose plain yogurt and add a little granulated sugar-substitute and cinnamon if you like it sweet.

Use yogurt for breakfast on ready-to-eat cereal, over a big plateful of diced fresh fruits, for a light summer luncheon or atop jellied consomme, tomato aspic or jellied madrilene for the first course at dinner.

Jeremiah Sees Hope

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—II Kings 24:17-16; Jeremiah 29:1-4; 30:18-24; 31; 32:36-42; 33:14-26.

In the brief reign of young King Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim, Jerusalem was besieged and the king gave himself up. The victorious Babylonians carried him and 10,000 of the country's best people off to their land as captives.—II Kings 24:11-16.

The prophet Jeremiah remained in Jerusalem with those who were left. He wrote to the captives, sending his message via two ambassadors on their way to Nebudchadnezzar from Judah's last king, Zedekiah. — Jeremiah 29:1-3.

Jeremiah encouraged them to settle their souls, as well as their bodies, in the captors' land, building houses, planting produce and raising families. It would be 70 years, he predicted, before they would be allowed to return.—Jeremiah 29:4-14.

Jerusalem would be a place of utter desolation, he said, but the time would come when God would see that it was rebuilt, and a new covenant made with His people.—Jeremiah 29:15-19; 31:31-40.

MEMORY VERSE:—"This is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put My law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people"—Jeremiah 31:33.
